Confesion reigns all over town-The little children get knocked down-Cross drivers yell "get out of the way"-Dit such is Moving Day.

War at the "other end" of town, Some lasy chaps have laid them down : And as celes disappear, they say, "Oh! well, 'tis Moving Day."

Grand dispers everywhere appear, Of Chinties cheap, and dainties dear ; All else but eating put away-For this is Moving Day.

Roasts, turkles, hams, enormous steaks. Preserves and pickles, pies and cakes, Ice-cream (?) and oysters (?) now hold sway For this is Moving Day.

But, dinner over-what a fuss-The dishes broken-what a muss-And many a house-wife now will say, "Save me from Moving Day." When all is done and put to right. How many pass a weary night,

And, tessing on their couches, say, Ot dreadful Moving Day. The silver moon so calm and bright Sheds furth her pesceful soothing light, And, journeying on her endless way, Ne'er dreams of Moving Day. Now, ye delinquents one and all, At Mr. Stable's office call, And all your old subscriptions pay. And let your generous printer say, Of pleasant Moving Day, Scrofula, or King's Evil, is a constitutional disease, a corruption of the blood, by which this fluid becomes vitiated, weak, and poor. Being in the circulation, is pervades the whole body, and may burst out in disease on any part of it. No organ is free-from its attacks, nor is there one which it may not destroy. The scrofulous taint is variously caused by mercurial disease, low living, disordered or unhealthy food, impure air, filth and filthy habits, the depressing vices, and, shove all, by the venercal infection. Whatever be its origin, it is hereditary in the constitution, descending "from parents to children, unto the third and fourth generation;" indeed, it seems to be the rod of Him who says, "I will visit the iniquities of the fathers upon their children." Its effects commence by deposition from the blood of corrupt or ulcerous matter, which, in the lungs, liver, and internal organs, is termed tubercles; in the glands, swellings; and on the surface, eruptions or sores. This foul cor-ruption, which genders in the blood, depresses plaints, but they have far less power to with-stand the attacks of other diseases; conscquently, vast numbers perish by disorders which, although not scrofulous in their nature, are still rendered fatal by this taint in the system. Most of the consumption which decimates the human family has its origin directly in this scrofulous contamination; and many destructive diseases of the liver, kidneys, brain, and, indeed, of all the organs, arise from or

Compound Extract of Sarsaparilla, the most effectual remedy which the medical skill of our times can devise for this every where prevailing and fatal malady. It is combined from the most active remedials that have been discovered for the expurgation of this foul disorder from the blood, and the rescue of the system from its destructive consequences. Hence it should be employed for the cure of not only scrofuls, but also those other affec-tions which arise from it, such as Europivs and Skin Disrases, St. Anthony's Fire, ROSE, OF ERYSIPPLAS, PIMPLES, PUSTULES, BLOTCHES, BLAINS and BOILS, TUMORS, TETTER and SALT RHEUM, SCALD HEAD, RINGWORM, RHEUMATRM, STPHILITIC and MERCURIAL DIS-RASES, DROPEY, DYSPETSIA, DEBILITY, and, indeed, ALL COMPLAINTS ARISING FROM VITIA-TED OR IMPURE BLOOD. The popular belief in "impurity of the blood" is founded in truth, for scrofula is a degeneration of the blood. The particular purpose and virtue of this Sarsspa-rills is to purify and regenerate this vital fluid, without which sound health is impossible in
