The Pennsylvanian says: -- Many of those who believed that the regular Democratic Convention erred in refusing an endorsement of Gov. Packer's State policy, and favored the bogus gathering on Wednesday last, at Harrishurg, have been apprised and disgusted by the open efforts of Bickman, Lauman, forney, Knox & Co., at the meeting, in favor of Seward Abolitionism. The most amusing thing, next to the actu al proceedings of the disappointed office-hun ters' Convention, is the systematic attempt to pull that ridiculous figule into the majestic proportions of a great outpouring of the peo-ple. We grant that the proceedings on paper, are inflated and magnificent enough for the most imposing assemblage, but most empha-tically dony that the Convention was as large and imposing as the imagination of its historians. The fact is, that it was a most miss rable and disgrassful failure. The managers of the concern saw and felt this keenly.—
They really expected the people to respond to the call, and to innegarate an irresishible movement. Their mertification and chagrin was intenes, when instead of the them they anticipated would flook to Harrisburg for the patriotic purpose of resturing the name, fame, and principles of the Democratic party, under the direction of Formy and LAUMAN, but a handful of self-elected dele-The state of the s

But there was not a single person present at this meeting whose pulifical reputation stands even moderately fair with the Democratic party, either in the State at large, or in his particular locality—not one.

Julging from the proceedings, the political refugees appear to desire to lead a kind of roving, vagaband life, between the Democratic army and Seward's Rochester camp-all except Hickman, who seemed anxious to rition. The fearless Hickman, after selling himself to the Opposition, and being paid for deserting his Democratic constituency, by a re-election, mainly secured by Black Repubmakes a Legislature of a Territory of the United States infinitely apperior, in our system of government, to Congress and the Constitution and the States themselves, the real actual owners of the Territory in question. At the last session, when every Democratic Senatur was in favor of sustaining the Kansas policy of the President Mr. Turney liffered, and expressed that difference with a soldness that marked his cander and sincerity. But for this reason, he did not feel called upon to desert the Democratic organisation, and no Democrat ever lifted up ! to drive him out. His case is a noble refutation of the wholesale and unrelenting proscription which has been falsely charged upon the Democratic party by those who have deserted it. Mr. Turney remained in the party, a firm and loyal Democrat; and he has now sen elevated by that party to the position he s so well fitted to grave and adum.

Greeley's Tribune appears to be much delighted with the action of the Bogne Convention and Hickman's speech, and to think that they "will do good" for the cause of sectional Abolitionism "in other free States as well as in Pennsylvania." We have ne doubt they will do much good, by ridding the Democracy of a set of ambitious, disappointed, corrupt and reckless politicians, who are playing a game towards President Buchanan and his Administration, similar to that tried by inces of the March Convention.
