

THE COMPILER, published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STAHL, at $1.75 per annum if paid strictly in advance...

By H. J. STAHL. 41st YEAR. GETTYSBURG, PA., MONDAY, MAY 9, 1859. NO. 32.

Abbey & Neff, No. 308 North Third Street, (three doors above the Philadelphia). THE OLD HARDWARE STAND—(established 24 years)...

New Spring Goods. J. L. SCHICK, dealer in Silks, Domestic Goods, Cloths, Casimeres, Embroideries, Linens, Jewels, Notions, etc.

Spring Goods! FRESH ARRIVAL—FAHNESTOCK BROS. have just received a large and choice assortment of Spring Goods...

"The Gem" NEW RESTAURANT.—The undersigned has opened a first-class Restaurant, on the corner of North Third and Market streets...

Globe Inn, Mechanicsville, Frederick county, Md.—Having been renovated and re-furnished, the proprietor assures a full satisfaction in every case.

Mowing and Reaping MACHINE AGENCY, 633 Market Street, Philadelphia, offers for sale the BEST COMBINED MACHINES NOW IN USE!

Fresh Arrival! STILL COMING!—Just received at the Store of COBBAN & CO., a large supply of HATS, CAPS, BOOTS & SHOES...

Marble Yard Removed. THE subscriber having removed his place of business to East York street, a short distance below St. James Church...

New Goods. GEORGE ARNOLD has just received and is now opening the largest and most beautiful assortment of LADIES' DRESS GOODS...

Grand Jury Report. TO the Honorable the Judges of the Courts of the County of Adams, the undersigned members of the Grand Jury, having viewed the County Prison and examined it carefully...

Poet's Corner.

THE PERPLEXED HOUSEKEEPER. BY MRS. F. D. GAGE. I wish I had a dozen pairs Of hands this very minute; I'd soon put all these things to rights— The very deuce is in it.

Miscellaneous.

THE HUNTER'S REWARD.

In the Spring of 1790, two young men, George Dill and Peter Brown, both carpenters, launched a small boat on the Monongahela, and covered with small branches and twigs, a simple stock of provisions and ammunition, dropped down the river on an exploring and hunting expedition.

The Tail Gate.

Many years ago an act of ejectment was on trial in our Court of Common Pleas to recover possession of a tract of land on the eastern border of the county.

Punctuation.

We present to the readers of the Journal in this article a more remarkable instance of the effect of punctuation in changing the meaning of the sentence, than any previously given.

A True Woman.

A curious story of conjugal affection is told by an Illinois gentleman, who has written a carpenter moved from Bucyrus, Ohio, to Missouri, where he sold a pair of horses to a stock buyer, receiving all his pay in bills on a Kentucky bank.

A Gay Sportsman.

Yesterday of a most faithful disciple of Isaac Walton, who is ever playing the rod and line, yet seldom meets with success in catching a full trout for the reason.

New Song.

Beauty, pathos, and truth are combined in the following Song, which all delinquent subscribers should learn to sing with understanding heart.

The Hay Field Anecdote.

There is a good story which may have been heard in more than one hay field last summer. We heard it one day on a visit to the eastern border of the county.

Old Squire J.

Old Squire J., of Addison county, is famous for being a market for better article of cheese than any of his agricultural neighbors, which occasioned a merchant to inquire how it happened.

Putting out the Flash.

The Rev. Thomas Allen, who was at the battle of Bennington, under Gen. Stark, was asked if he killed any one.

She Stoops to Conquer.

A slight mistake—Bufo, says the Rochester Times, is a high old place any way. Our correspondent "Quiz," who has ample opportunities of knowing what is going on, gives us a circumstance which has not floated to the great chagrin of those interested.

Two Distinguished Philosophers.

Two distinguished philosophers took shelter under one tree, during a heavy shower. After some time, one of them complained to the other that he felt cold.

A Harmless Half-witted Fellow.

A harmless, half-witted fellow, was accosted by a rascally fellow, who thought to make game of him.

William Penn Lehr.

William Penn Lehr, the favorite delineator of negro character, is said to be insane. He is with his wife's friends in Cincinnati.

There is to be a State Convention.

There is to be a State Convention of the Ohio brass bands at Mansfield, on the 20th of May.

Paul Stevens, Esq.

Paul Stevens, Esq., one of the regular jury panel on the Scales case, died in Washington on Thursday week.

The Savannah Republican.

The Savannah Republican says that a vessel is now sailing at that port with lumber for Beirut, Syria.

Elizabethtown.

Elizabethtown is organizing a company of Worcester, Mass., to emigrate to Cerro, his Virginia town.

A man named James Bawer.

A man named James Bawer was shot to death in Boston, on Tuesday, by passing a sign on Norfolk Day. Bawer was of possessing a fat-headed, quadruped, that is, a chicken with four legs.

Death of Porter, the Kentucky Giant.

James D. Porter, widely known as the Kentucky giant, died at his residence in Portland, on Sunday night, the 24th ult., in the 44th year of his age, having been born in 1814.

Sickles' Country House and its Occupants.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, in describing the country seats that line the Harlem road between New York and Haverlem, says:

Vanity in Dress.

Some young ladies, feeling themselves aggrieved by the attention with which their friends complimented them with their gay plumes, elegant scarlet petticoats and founces, went to their pastor to learn his opinion.

Will you take this woman to be your wedded wife?

asked an Illinois magistrate of the mate of a couple who stood up before him. "Will you," said the man, "take this woman to be your wedded wife?"

A Modern Miracle.

Wm. A. Abbott gives an account, in a New York paper, of a young lady in the city of New York, who was cured of her blindness by the prayers of a clergyman.

Lightning During a Snow Storm.

The Courier, on the 14th ult. during a heavy snow storm, a vivid flash of lightning struck the linden atmosphere, followed after a few seconds by a peal of heavy thunder.

Effects of Competition.

The Ohio State Journal, in a recent issue, mentions that the Ohio State Fair, which was held at Mansfield, on Monday, and unless a large attendance is effected, will go down to perdition.

I can't see how you can be so stupid.

"I can't see how you can be so stupid, while your wife is so nice!" "Why, my dear fellow, it is not that I love my wife less, but that I love pancakes more."

A gentleman was speaking of his other day.

the kindness of his friends in visiting him. One old man, in particular, visited him twice a year, and stayed three months each time.

A police report.

A police report, lately received, stated that a man named John Smith, who had been arrested for a long time, had been found guilty of a crime.

What is the difference between an attempted homicide and a homicide?

The difference is that in an attempted homicide, the person is not killed, while in a homicide, the person is killed.

From your own country.

From your own country, it is reported that a man named John Smith, who had been arrested for a long time, had been found guilty of a crime.

Let me have a pound of guano, my good man.

Let me have a pound of guano, my good man, will you? "I will, if you will give me a pound of guano in return."

Death of Porter, the Kentucky Giant.

James D. Porter, widely known as the Kentucky giant, died at his residence in Portland, on Sunday night, the 24th ult., in the 44th year of his age, having been born in 1814.

Sickles' Country House and its Occupants.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, in describing the country seats that line the Harlem road between New York and Haverlem, says:

Vanity in Dress.

Some young ladies, feeling themselves aggrieved by the attention with which their friends complimented them with their gay plumes, elegant scarlet petticoats and founces, went to their pastor to learn his opinion.

Will you take this woman to be your wedded wife?

asked an Illinois magistrate of the mate of a couple who stood up before him. "Will you," said the man, "take this woman to be your wedded wife?"

A Modern Miracle.

Wm. A. Abbott gives an account, in a New York paper, of a young lady in the city of New York, who was cured of her blindness by the prayers of a clergyman.

Lightning During a Snow Storm.

The Courier, on the 14th ult. during a heavy snow storm, a vivid flash of lightning struck the linden atmosphere, followed after a few seconds by a peal of heavy thunder.

Effects of Competition.

The Ohio State Journal, in a recent issue, mentions that the Ohio State Fair, which was held at Mansfield, on Monday, and unless a large attendance is effected, will go down to perdition.

I can't see how you can be so stupid.

"I can't see how you can be so stupid, while your wife is so nice!" "Why, my dear fellow, it is not that I love my wife less, but that I love pancakes more."

A gentleman was speaking of his other day.

the kindness of his friends in visiting him. One old man, in particular, visited him twice a year, and stayed three months each time.

A police report.

A police report, lately received, stated that a man named John Smith, who had been arrested for a long time, had been found guilty of a crime.

What is the difference between an attempted homicide and a homicide?

The difference is that in an attempted homicide, the person is not killed, while in a homicide, the person is killed.

From your own country.

From your own country, it is reported that a man named John Smith, who had been arrested for a long time, had been found guilty of a crime.

Let me have a pound of guano, my good man.

Let me have a pound of guano, my good man, will you? "I will, if you will give me a pound of guano in return."

Death of Porter, the Kentucky Giant.

James D. Porter, widely known as the Kentucky giant, died at his residence in Portland, on Sunday night, the 24th ult., in the 44th year of his age, having been born in 1814.

Sickles' Country House and its Occupants.

The New York correspondent of the Boston Journal, in describing the country seats that line the Harlem road between New York and Haverlem, says:

Vanity in Dress.

Some young ladies, feeling themselves aggrieved by the attention with which their friends complimented them with their gay plumes, elegant scarlet petticoats and founces, went to their pastor to learn his opinion.

Will you take this woman to be your wedded wife?

asked an Illinois magistrate of the mate of a couple who stood up before him. "Will you," said the man, "take this woman to be your wedded wife?"

A Modern Miracle.

Wm. A. Abbott gives an account, in a New York paper, of a young lady in the city of New York, who was cured of her blindness by the prayers of a clergyman.

Lightning During a Snow Storm.

The Courier, on the 14th ult. during a heavy snow storm, a vivid flash of lightning struck the linden atmosphere, followed after a few seconds by a peal of heavy thunder.

Effects of Competition.

The Ohio State Journal, in a recent issue, mentions that the Ohio State Fair, which was held at Mansfield, on Monday, and unless a large attendance is effected, will go down to perdition.

I can't see how you can be so stupid.

"I can't see how you can be so stupid, while your wife is so nice!" "Why, my dear fellow, it is not that I love my wife less, but that I love pancakes more."

A gentleman was speaking of his other day.

the kindness of his friends in visiting him. One old man, in particular, visited him twice a year, and stayed three months each time.

A police report.

A police report, lately received, stated that a man named John Smith, who had been arrested for a long time, had been found guilty of a crime.

What is the difference between an attempted homicide and a homicide?

The difference is that in an attempted homicide, the person is not killed, while in a homicide, the person is killed.

From your own country.

From your own country, it is reported that a man named John Smith, who had been arrested for a long time, had been found guilty of a crime.

Let me have a pound of guano, my good man.

Let me have a pound of guano, my good man, will you? "I will, if you will give me a pound of guano in return."