Tun Consumn is published every Monday morning, by HERRY J. STARLE, at $1 75 per annum if paid strictly IN ADVANCE-$2 00 per samum if not paid in advance. No subscription discontinued, unless at the option of the pub-Lisher, until all arrearages are paid.

ADVERTISERENTS inserted at the usual rates. Jos Paurring done with neatness and dismich

Owners in South Baltimore street, directly Opposite Wamplers' Tinning Establishment-"Cempilizs" on the sign.

Dr. A. W. Dorsey,

WRMERLY of Carroll county, Md., having permanently located in Gettysburg, offers his professional services to the citizens of the town and surrounding country in the practice of the various branches of his profession. Office and residence, Baltimore street, next door to The Compiler office, where he may be found at all times when not professionally engaged.

EXPERSICES. TroC. Yathan R. Smith, Baltimore, Md. Rev. Augustus Webster, D. D., Baltimure Md. Dr. J. L. Warfield, Westminster, Md. Dr. W. A. Mathias, Jacob Reese, Esq., " John K. Longwell, Esq., " 11 Geo. E. Wampler, Esg., " Rev. Thomas Bowen, Gettydoorg. Oct. 25, 1858. 6m

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D.

HAS his office one door west of the atheran church in Luthernn church in Chambersburg street, and opposite Ficking's : and for said county, on the 15th day of August store, where those wishing to have any Bental next, (1859.) then to answer Samuel Fahne-Operation performed are respectfully invited to stock, of a plea in debt not exceeding $500, and caff. BRFERESCES: Drs. Horner, Rev. C. P. also that you summon all persons in whose hands Krauth, D. D., Rev. H. L. Baugher, D. D., Bev. ar possession the said goods or chattela, finded Prof. M. Jacobs, Prof. M. L. Steever. Gettysburg, April 11, 53.

Wm. B. McClellan.

side of the public square, 2 doars west of tue Sentinel office. Gettysburg, August 22, 53.

D. McConaughy,

A TTORNEY AT LAW. (slice see door west of Buehler's drug and book store. Chainbersburg street.) ATTORNEY AND SULICITOR FOR PATENTS AND PENSIONS. Boundy Land Warstarts, Back-pay suspended Chines, and all other claims sgainst the Government at Washsugton, D. C.; also American Claims in England. Land Warrants located and sold, or boards, and highest prices given. Agents engaged in lo-cating warrants in lowa, illinois and other western States. Mersonally ar by letter.

diettysburg, Nov. 21, 53.

Edward B. Buehler,

TTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly attend to all businessentrusted him. He speaks the German language.--- late partners doing business under the name, lice at the same place, in South Baltimore style and firm of S. Fabnestock & Seas, of a Office, at the same place, in South Baltimure street, near Forney's drug store, and nearly plea in debt on note under seel not exceeding opposite Danner & Ziegler's store. Gettysburg, March 20.

J. C. Neely, A TTORNEY AT LAW, will attend to adlec-tions and all other business intrusted to care with promptness. Office acasfs apposite what shall be objected against them or him, and imanfack's Store. Baltimore street. Betty sburg, April 11, 1859. If A TT motified to the sudgment of the Court thereon, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Bon, Robert J. Fisher, President Judgm of our 2 almentick's Store, Baltimore street. Gettysburg, April 11, 1859. If

A. H. Dill. A TTORNEY AT LAW, will attend promptly to collections and all business entrusted to JACO

Fabnestock Brothers. No. 15, Aug. T., 1859. Office between Fahnestucks' and Danner & Ziegler's Stores, Baltimore st., Gettysburg, Pa. May 9, 1859. 6m

Notice.

THE notes and book accounts of Joux WEIEsur have been placed in the hands of the andersigned for collection-to whom those indebted are requested to make payment. All persons failing to pay their vendue notes when due, will be charged interest from date. E. B. BUFHLER,

Attorney at Law, Gettysburg. May 16, 1859. 32

Br H. J. STAHLE. 41st YEAR.

Foreign Attachment.

CAMUEL PAHNESTUCK,) No. 13, August T., CHARLES W. HOFFMAN. Attachment.

ADAMS COUNTY, 85. The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Sheriff of said county-greeting: We command you, that you at-tach (harles W. Hoffman, late of your county, by all and singular bis goods and chattels, hands and temements, in purhose hands or possession soever the same may we therefore print it : be, so that he be and appear before our Court of Common Pleas, to be holden at Gettysburg, in and tenementt, or any of them, may be attached. so that they and every of them, be and appear before our said Court at the day and place afore

A TTORSEY AT LAW.-Office on the south against them or him, and abide the jadgment of side of the public source ? doors more the fourt the fourt in and abide the jadgment of the Court therein, and have you then and there this writ. Witness the Hon, Robert J. Fisher, Freeident Judge of said Court, at Gettysburg, the 29th day of April, A. D. 1859.

JACOB BUSHEY, Prothesistary. S. Faluentock & Sons, No. 14, Aug. T., 1859

Charles W. Hoffman. J. Foreigu Attachment. ALL PARTY

vanis to the Sheriff of said county-greeting: We command you, that you attach Charles W. Hoffman, late of your may be attached, so that they and every of them, he and appear before our said Court, on the day and place aforementioned, to answer said Court, at Gettysburg, this 29th day of and chattels, lands and tenements, in whose that he be and appear before our Court of Common Pleas, to be holden at Gettysburg, in and for said county, on the 15th day of August next, hands or possession soever the same may be. so

greeting:

JACOB BUSHEY, Prothonolary.

"Now tell us what 'twas all about," county, by all and singular his goods Young Peterkin be cries; And little Wilhelmine looks up and chattels, lands and tenements, in whose hands or passession soever the same may be, so

With wonder-waiting eyes; that he be and appear before one Court of Cous-mon Pleas, to be holden at flettysburg, in and Now lell us all about the war. And what they fought each other for." for said county, on the 15th day of August next, (1859,) then to answer Samuel Falsestock, "It was the English," Kasper cried, "Who put the French to route;

James F. Fahnestock and Henry J. Fahnestock But what they fought each other for, I could not well make out : But every body said," quoth he, "That 'twas a famous victory. $425, and also that you summon all persons in whose hands or passession the said goods and chattles, lands and tensments, or say of them.

Poet's Corner.

It was a summer evening ;

Old Kasper's work was done, And he before his cottage door

And by him sported on the green His little granchild Wilhelmine.

Roll something large and round, Which he beside the rivulet

In playing there, had found;

He came to ask what he had found

Old Kasper took it from the boy,

"I find them in the garden, For there's many here about ;

And often when I go to plough, The ploughshare turns them out;

For many thousand men." said he.

"Were stain in that great eletory.

That was so large, and smooth, and rou

Who stood expectant by; And then the old man shook his head,

And with a matural sigh, "'Tis some poor fellow's skull," said he, "Who fell in the great victory.

She saw her brother Peterkin

Was sitting in the sun;

"My father lived at Bloaheim then, on little stream hard by ; They burnt his dwelling to the ground,

And he was forced to fly; So with his wife and child he fled, Nor had he where to reat his head. "With firs and sword the country cound

Was wasted far and wide, And many a childing mother then, And new-born baby died; But things like that, you know, must be

At every famous victory. "They say it was a shocking sight After the field was won;

Charles W. Hoffman. Foreign Attachment. For many thousand bodies here Lay rotting in the sun ; Adams couvry, ss. The Commonwealth of Penneyl-But things like that, you know, must be vania to the Sheriff of said county-After a famous victory. "Great praise the Duke of Maribora' was, We command you, that you attach Charles W. Hoffman, late of Adams county, by all and singular his goods And our good prince Eugene."

"Why, 'twas a very wicked thing !" Said little Wilhelmine. "It was a famous victory.

" And every body praised the Dake Who this great fight did win." "But what good came of it at last ?

Gen. Washington's First Love. A correspondent of the Century, in giving some reminiscences of the old county seat called "The Cottage," in Hanover county, "THE BATTLE OF BLENKELL" In all probability a sanguinary conflict is Virginia, gives an account of General Washington's suit to and rejection by Mary Cary: Her father was Wilson Cary, Esq., of "Ce-leys." in the county of Elizabeth City, de-scended from the noble family of Hudson, in ow raging in southern Europe. The fair valleys of Italy will be devastated by fire and sword;

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAIL."

THE COMPILER.

A Democratic, Mews aus Kamily Sournal.

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, MAY 30, 1859.

England. His relative, Col. Archibald Cary, of "Ampthill," in Chesterfield, was at his death the heir apparent to the earldon. The worthy old gentleman seems, from all wo know of him, to have been as proud as the him. Coureys or the Somersets; and to have antag thought his family the noblest in the land .-He lived in great state, with chariot and exclaimed he; "is this the conduct of an horses, plate and velvet and embroidery-a American officer and a man of honor ?"worthy of the old school, fully satisfied with the "order of things," and enjoying screnely the good gifts of Providence. His beautiful daughter was a great heiress, and had many suitors the accident which befell one of them has made her remembered in many books. He was a young man of very high character, a relative of Geo. Wm. Fairfaz, Esq., who fived at Belvoir, on the Potomac; and here he met Miss Cary, who came to visit Mrs. Fairfax, her elder sister... The young man at once preceded to fall in love, which he did with an ardor characteristic of his nature. When Miss Cary went back home to "Celeys," on James River, he followed her like a courageous gallant, and laid open siege to the fair furtrees. In the good old times, however, something more was necessary than the consent of the young lady; and so the youth duly asked a private interview with the awful old lord of the manor, who listened to awful old lord of the manor. who listened to him silently throughout. When the lover had finished, Mr. Cary rose, made him a low bow, and said that if this were young Mr. Washington's errand at "Celeys," his visit had better terminate; his "daughter had been accustomed to rids in her own chariot." And with this allusion to the poor condition of the rounges on the interview terminated of the younger son, the interview terminated. Young Washington bowed and turned away, and in due time married Martha Dandridge Custis, who "resembled Miss Cary," says my suchority, "as much as one twin sister ever did another."

But the old tradition does not and here. Many years fied away-Mary Cary was Mrs. Ambler-and her discarded suitor was the man who had just received the sword of Cornwallis at Yorktown ; whom the whole civilized wallis at Yorktows; whom the whole civilized world hailed as greatest among the great— "the foremost man," not of America, but "of all the world," Hs passed through the old metropolis, Williamsburg, at the head of his victorious troops, and the people were crasy with joy and adoration almost. The vast multidude mearly prevented his horns from proceeding—the calm statue on hornshack passed on screnely. All at once he perceived at a window, or in the srowd, his old towa. Mary Cary. He raised his sword and salut-ed her profoundly. She fainted.

ed her profoundly. She fainted. But it does not seem that the lovely woman was to blame. She had not been able to re-turn the affection of the youth-that was all. Ambler. He was not unworthy of this noble lady in rank or in character. If was de-and out of

of his race. At twelve he had been sent for his education to England ; he graduated at and was so much respected that when Lord Bottetourt came to Virginia as Governor, he brought a letter of introduction to the Collec scene of her grief, and took refuga in the "Cottage," far up in Hanover.

Revolutionary Anecdotes.

persons of their captives between themselves and the marksmen at the windows. Among abouts, though she told them she knew well

At the battle of Eataw Springs, the follow scended through his mother from the great And here is the cent, said he, depositing a Huguenut house of La Roche Jaqueline, in green discolored copper upon the counter. Vendee, and inherited the honest instincts Ilere is your second box.

NO. 35.

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

A Good Story. The following smusing sketch of the man-ner in which an iraseible President of old Cambridge was once mollified by a mug of flip, is from the pen of "Jack Robinson:" too etrong for human resistance. She was too beautiful! Would not the wronged the gentleman with a fight; and it was stipulated that the duel should take place on the following morning, and that they should fight without seconds. At the appointed time the Apropos of Porter, whose name I have just taken in vain: I heard a good college story the other day, which I may as well set down General went on the ground, armed with sword and pistols. On entering the field, here. Porter is an institution in Cambridge. Ile is a person of varied accomplishments, and keeps "a house of call." None like him Putnam, who had taken a stand at the opposite extremity, and at a distance of about thirty rods, levelled his musket and fired at to brew beshop or mingle a shandy goff.— But his chefd' œurre is flip. It is reported The gentleman now ran towards his among the students that Ganymede, when dy-ing-because it's all nonsense about Ganymede antagonist, who deliberately proceeded to re-load his gun. "What are you about to do ?" being immortal-he left Jupiter's service, married Hebe, set up an inn with his savings, and died at a good old age—it is reported that Ganymede left Porter the recipe for General, attending only to the first question ; making both nectar and ambrosia, which re-cipe he surreptitiously opied from Juno's re-ceipt book, and Porter, improving on the idea, conceived the happy thought of making both divine materials. and producing an ineffable beverage-something which should combine the elements of the supernal meat and supernal drink-a harmony of solid and fluid, to which each element should contribute its celestial flavor. He carried out the idea. He mingled the ambrosia and the nectar, and all Olympus turned pale with envy, for the result was dip.

With such a classic origin it was not to be wondered at that under-graduates, who are notorious for their love of mythological matters, should find themselves attracted to Por-ter's and there refresh their reminiscenses victims than advance science. You could not of Oympus with draughts of the divine ber-make kim believe that—oh, so! Tell kim arage. In fact, such was their devotion to there were regalia cigars that cost forty dollars this branch of classic study, and so inspired there were regalia eights that out furty dollars per thousand :---it might do to stuff down the throats of those who knew no better ; de was throats of those who knew no better ; de was night on flip. It must be seen to. The President puts on his most authorita tive wig and stern countenance, and sallies out to blow up the Classical Porter, for lea-ding his students satray. First of all he thinks, in order to be able to speak more decisively, that he will taste this norious ber-erage with his own lips. Then there can be no mistake. With much dignity he enters Porter's. He is greeted with respect. He interrogates Purter : "Sir. many of the under-graduates come

'A few," modestly replies the landlord. "They come here frequently, Mr. Purter?"

air ?"

"They drink a great deal of it, Mr. Por-and out of it he drew a handful of coin.

dignant.

at something or somebody, and declared posi-tively that he would drown himself, and made off for the river, some quarter of a mile dis-off for the river, some quarter of a mile dis-tant, apparantly for that purpose. Not knowing what the fellow might do, Captain Brown told one of the boys to follow him and watch his motions. The had took a circuit and arrived on the bank of the river soon af-ter Sim did, and concealed himself among some bushes where he could observe him an perceived. Sim stripped and waded in until the water was up to his chin, when under he went. After heiding his breath as long as he well could, up he popped, puffing and plowing like a purpoise. But he was not to give it up so; he made three several and do-terminod efforts, but it was no go. His tem-per had probably by this time cooled down considerably, and he made for the bank and commenced dressing. The youngster who had been watching his manœuvres, ready to split with laughter at his comical attempts to drown, now made his appearance, and with as much gravity as he could command. said :

L gr gan and

Who Paid for the Minf-

farmer's house, in the front of which happen-ed to stand a sumarizably haxom, blooming woman, the farmer's wife. Inflamed with the anders massion of admiration, the dusty-footed traveleer approached the motionless beanty, and, not knowing how else to unter into conversation, asked for a glass of water. It was willingly brought to him; but, in re-turning the glass, he suddenly threw his arms around her, pressed her close to to his heart and rays her the most suprements of up.

heart and gave her the most sonorous of un-mistakable kisses. Which fury appeared, the rough customer once more overtook his

The farmer mas in the field not far off, and, to call him and make enraged report of the proceeding, was the work of as few minutes as possible. Instantly unhitching the plow-horse, the injured husband mounted and rode after the invader of his rights, overtook and

The guilty purloiner was not going to de-fend himself, however. On the contrary he confessed humbly that he was in the wrong

-regretted that he could not give back to the lady the kiss he had so culpably taken from her without her permission-but pleaded for pardon on the ground that the temptation was spouse compromise-say for five dollars, or the sight of the pocket book, the injured hus-band was mollified-took a ten-dollar bill-gave back a "five," for change, and returned, thinking himself, on the whole, no poorer for the transaction. In which frame of mind he remained, till, on bringing the ten dollar bill to light again, for a purchase, a fortnight afterwards, he found that it was a counter-

Five dollars for the kiss, but who paid

107" Captain Brown was one of our most

 Captain Brown was one of our most respected citizens of a former generation. In his family lived Sim Ohappel, a sort of Half-witted, good-for-nothing fellow, such as may sometimes be seen in our old farmers' kitchens, and whose principal business ap-pears to be to do chores and drink cider.---Sim was not exactly a 'natural,' but sufficient-be shellow with a source which the the ly shallow, with a very slight touch of shrewducas, to be quite amusing at times. "On one occasion Sim got dreadfally mad

Between the compliment to his wife and tempestuously accused him.

A stout drover, on his way to the Capital, with twenty or thirty beeves, passed by a farmer's house, in the front of which happen-

Retributice Death of a Dog.-A very weal-thy but very malicious English lady is living in Paris, possessing (besides her money) but one charm-a wonderful complexion. Of course, the unnatural rivalry, by which the new fashioned plaster cosmetics outdid her own authentic red and white, put her in a rage. She hit upon a revenge. The most admired dog in good society was the remarkable King Charles spaniel she carried habi-tually in her lap : and by careful training, this favorite was taught to kiss a lady-that is to say, he would jump to the face of any one who approached him, and apply unexpected-ly his salivated wiper. The first vlotim was the pretty Baroness _____, of flavana, who, by the close application of the dog's tongue, as ehe stooped to caress him, was one cheek sang froid has porcelain, and the other earthenware, but alas for the King Charles! The Baroness Presently a superhuman flip, with an ahad that day made a first experiment of a new romatic foam, which Venus might have arisen from, creaming over the edge of the goblet, is the result of his efforts. He hunds it resand wonderful cosmetic, the principal ingredi-ent of which was arsonic. He died of that kiss. pectfully, and with some anxiety, to the Pres-ident, on where face judicial thunder clouds

A Bargain by Arithmetical Progres-

"a preity question to put to a man whom you intend to murder. I'm about to kill you, and if you don't beat a retreat in less time than 'twould take old Heath to hang a Tory, you are a gone dog ;" at the same time returning his remrod to its place, and throwing the breach of his gun into the hollow of his shoulder. This intimation was too unequivocal to be misunderstood, and our valorous duellist turned and fled for dear life. non.

brother officer. The dispute arose at a wine

table, and the officer demanded instant reparation. Putnam, being a little elevated, expressed his willingness to accommodate

While engaged in the tobacco and eigar business. I used to have for a customer in cheap cigars one of those knowing fellows whose knowledge serves better to bore his none of them. And so it was with everything; he alwyas knew best. It always appeared to be his delight to draw me into some controversy, no matter what the subject, in order to hear himself hold forth. I tried every way I could think of to circumvent him; and at length I did succeed in laying him out as flat as a founder. It was Saturday afternoon, he came in nade his purchase, and seated himself, to deal out his usual portion ; but I was awake for him.

Captain, said I, I have made up my mind to go to California, and if you wish to go into a speculation, now is your time.

As how? said he. Why, you see those fifteen boxes of cigars; well, there are two hundred and fifty in each box, and I will let you have the whole fifteen at a low rate, providing you take them ы!.

Very well, said my friend, let us hear the onditions. You give me one cont for the first box, two cents for the second, four cents for the third, and so on, doubling on every box.

Done, said he; fetch on your eigars. Sup-pose you think I have not money enough-

-Not at all; so let us proceed. Here is your He drew from his pocket a leathern purse here, I understand ?"

"They drop in now and then, sir." "And they drink a beverage called flip,

"Sometimer, sir."

"Well, sir, they do take considerable." "They get drunk on it, Mr. Porter ?" The discreet Porter remained silent.

lown. It is empty !

boldly answers in the affirmative.

Logal Advice.

the street to a lawyer, and in an excited,

With these words the gentleman laid a ten dollar bill on the deak, and said, "Now what "I do," was the reply. "Then," said Brief, quietly folding up the X and putting it in his pocket, "he told you to go to h-l. Well, my opinion and advise to you is, don't you do it. There is, merceyner, no statute or local law that san

"Do you mean this for a retainer ?" said

"? ob nov bloow

Brief.

vehement and hurried manner, said:

way here ?" "Yes, I know him," answered Brief.

A gentleman ordered a suit of clothes from

"Make me a-a-flip," at length says the venerable President ; still frowning auf in-Porter. wh noment forsaken him, employs all the researces of his art.

speech-that the matter attracted the attention of the President of the College-a venerable gentleman of the period, whose name I have forgotton. Heartless and ignorant persons entirely misconceiving the spirit in which the undergraduates visited Porter's, reported to this worthy person that the students were in the habit of getting drank every it?

"'Sim, why did you not keep your head under and drown yourself?" "'Wwwky,' said Sim, his teeth chattering with cold, 'I couldn't breathe!"" in the Gents share Water Company, that stock, partners, doing business under the name, an Election for Fire Managers of said Company syste and firm of Fahnestock Brothers, of a plea will be held at the house of Geo. W. McClellan. in Cettysburg, on Saturday, the 4th of June next, between the hours of 2 and 4 o'clock, P. M. Br order of the Boand. H. E. RUSSELL, Ser'y. May 46, 1859. te Wool! Wool! Wool! 2(), ()()() LBS. WOOL wanted at the Good futent Woolen Factury. () ork Springs, Pa.) for which the subscribe will pay the highest price in Cash or in exchange for Woolen Goods.

Election.

May 9, 1859. 41 WILLIAM MEGART.

A Word to the Wise!

DON'T FAIL to call and see SANSON'S New Goods-a large and splendid assortment of MEN'S AND BOY'S CLOTHING and Furnishing Goud-us sciencies for of all kinds of HATS, BOUTS, SHOES and GAITERS-on unrivalled assortment of TRUNKS and CARPET SACES, some very handsome and new styles.-Also, a large and sulendid variety of Setts.

From the sense of the spinord variety of Setter, Breast Pins and Ear Rings: WATCHES, MUSI-CAL INSTRUMENTS, &c., &c. A very hand-some and new style BAHLBOAD TRAVELLING BAG. In short, everything in his line. AGC all sold and down SAMSON'S IS THE After all said and done, SAMSON'S IS THE cheaper than they can buy them in the city. April 18, 1850.

Change of Hours

Gettysburg it 6.30 o'clock A. M., connecting at | Witness the Hon. Robert J. Fisher, President Hanover Junction with Express train to Balti- | Judge of said Court, at Gettysburg, the 29th more at 9.32, and Mail train from Baltimore at | day of April, A. D., 1859, 9.32, returning to Gattysburg at 12.30 noon. JACOB BUSHEY, Prothenotary. 9.32, returning to Gettysburg at 12.30 noon, with passengers from Baltimore, York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, and the North and West.

The AFTERNOUS TP.AIN will leave Gettys-burg at 1 o'clock, P. M., connecting at Hanover W. Hoffman, the defendant therein, viz: Junction with Mail train to Baltimore at 3.37, returning to Gettysburg about 6.30 P. M., with passengers from York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, and the North and West.

On Tuesday and Saturday evenings of every week, the Evening train will wait at the Junc-tion until 5.30, on the Evening Express train from Baltimore, which leaves Calvert Station at 2. P. M., thus enabling passengers to leave Gez-tysburg on those days at 6.39, A. M., reach Battit 13.15 P. M. attend to business there until 3. P. M., and return to Gettysburg the same evening. By the above agrangement passengers n go either North or South on the Northern Central Railway both morning and afternoon, B. M'CUEDY, President.

April 25, 1859.

Groceries,

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL .- Nolasses and Sugar by the barrel, Coffee by the sack, and all kinds of Groceries, aither by the quantity or in small amounts, at prices that defy competition. Call at once at April 4. FAHNESTOCK BBOS', April 4.

Call and See

TIME celebrated New Jarsey REAPER & NOWER, At the new Ware-room o SHEADS, BURHLER & KURTZ. March 14, 1859.

Spoulting. G EORGE & HEMEY WARPLER will make House Spoulag and put up the same low, for cash or country produce. Formers and all others wishing their boases, barns, &c., sponted, would do well to give them a call. April 18, '53. tf G. & H. WAMPLER.

THE subscriber respectfully invites the at-disting of the Lodier to his full and com-gliets sametiment of LADIRS' SHORE and GAI-TERS. of almost avery sigis and calar. Cati and 1859.) then to answer James T. Pakaestaci TOTICE is hereby given to the Stockholders Henry J. Fahnestack and Edward G. Fahnein debt on mate under seal, not exceeding $900, and also that you summon all persons in whose hands or possession the said goods and chattels, tlands and tenemeute, or any of them, may be attached, so that they and every of them be and appear before our said Court, at the day and place aforementioned, to answer what shall be then and there this writ. Witness the Hon. | his inspection and opinion. The following i Robert J. Fisher. President Judge of said Court, at Gettysburg, the 29th day of April, A. D., 1859. JACOB BUSHEY, Prothonolary.

David Middlecoff, | Yo. 16, Aug. T., 1859. Charles W. Hoffman.) Poreign Attachment. A DAMA COL SPT. Rd.

greeting :

We command rou, that you attach We command you, that you attach Charles W. Hoffman. late of your county. by all and singular his goods and chattels. lands and tenements, in the same may bubble, and may prevail with some readers, they only found safety by interposing the subtle, and may prevail with some readers, they only found safety by interposing the who-e hands or possession soever the same may the, so that he be and appear before our Court of Common Pleas, to be h ulden at Gettysburg, in SPOT to buy your goods at the right prices. A and for said county, on the 15th day of August and the consequences of printing this piece the British officers was one Major Barry, word to the wise is sufficient. "Inext. (1859.) then to answer David Middlecoff, will be, a great deal of odium drawn upon the slightest resistance, began Those who wish to buy to sell again will do set a plea in assumpti, and also that you sum- yourself, mischief to you, and no benefit to only with a probund solemnity to enumerate of the sufficient of well by calling, as I can and will -ell them goods mon all persons, in whose hands or possession others. He that spits against the wind spits his many titles. "Sir, I am Henry Barry, the said goods and chattels, lands and tene- in his own face. But were you to succeed. Deputy Adjutant General of the British army, ments, or any of them be attached, so that they do you imagine any good will be done by it? Secretary to the commandant of Charleston. and every of them be and appear before our said Court, at the day and place aforementioned, to ON THE GETTYSBUBG RAILBOAD! - answer what shall be objected against them or Summer Arrangement.-On and after Thurs-day. April 21st. the MORXING TRAIN will leave on. and have you then and there this writ.-

By virtue of the above Writs. I have attached

Chambersburg street, adjoining lot of Abraham Scott, with a two-story Brick Dwelling House and other improvements thereon. No. 3. A LOT OF GROUND, adjoining No. 2 street 29 feet, with a Stable thereon. No. 4. A LOT OF GROUND, adjoining No. 3 on the east and No. 1 on the west, fronting on said street 25 feet, with a large Coschmaker

Shop and other improvements thereon. No. 5. A LOT OF GROUND, lying west of the Foundry, on the corner of the Railroad and Franklin street, in said borough, with a Steam

Grist and Saw Mill thereon. No. 6. A LOT OF GROUND, adjoining No. 5 on the west, containing 3 acres, more or lass. No. 7. THREE LOTS OF GROUND, each fronting 30 feet on the north side of said Chambershurg street, adjoining lots of H. Jerome

Walter on the east. No. 8. A LOT OF GROUND, on said Chambersharg street, adjoining a pablic alley on the north, with a Stone Basement for a House thereos crocted. The said Lots, from No. 2 to No. 8 Inclusive, being usoecupied. ISAAC LIGHTNER, Shorif. Sheriff's Office, Gettysherg, } May 16, 5859. 6t

Mowing and Resping

MEACHINE AGENCY, 633 Narhat Street, MI Philadelphia, where farmers maders and inder are themalyne, between SIX OF THE BEST COMBINED MICHINES NOW IN USEF and purchase the Machine of their choice. ENLEY & PASSNORR, 633 Market St., Philadelphia. April 4, 1859. 88

Quoth Little Paterkin. Why, that I cannot tell," said he; "But 'twas a famous victory."

Miscellaneous.

Dr. Franklin and Thomas Paine. When Paine was writing his Mfamous at atjected against them or him, and abide the tacks on the Christian religion, he authitted judgment of the Court thereon, and have you a part of his manuscript to Dr. Franklin for the answer of that philosopher and patriot : DELE SIE-1 have read your manuscript with some attention. By the argument it contains against a particular Providence, though you allow a general Providence, you At the battle of Kataw Springs, the follow-strike at the foundation of all religion. For ing ladicrous incident occurred. The Ameriwithout the belief of a Providence that takes | cans had pursued the English so clusely that cot xrr. ss. The Commonwealth of Pennsyl-vanin to the Sheriff of said county-ship a Deity, to fear its displeasure or to pray they had taken refuge in a brick dwelling, while in their haste to close the door upon they had taken refuge in a brick dwelling, while in their haste to close the door upon they had taken refuge in a brick dwelling, while in their haste to close the door upon the rapidly advancing Americans, they shut for its protection. I will not enter into any out some of their own officers, who were im-discussion of your principles, though you seem mediately surrounded by their captors. The

> you will not succeed so as to change the gen-eral sentiments of mankind on the subject, You yourself may find it easy to live a virtu- captain of the 52d regiment. &c." "Enough, one life without the assistance afforded by enough." replied Col. Manning, in whose religion; you have a clear perception of the hands he had fallen. "You are just the man advantages of virtue, and the disadvantages I was looking for. Fear nothing; you shall of vice, and possess a strength of resolution | screen me from danger, and I shall take sufficient to enable you to resist common especial care of you," and with the pompous temptations. But think how great a portion major held before his person, the American of mankind consist of weak and ignorant men officer secured a safe retreat. and woman, and of inexperianced, inconside- Governor Griswold, of Connecticut, was rate youth, of both sexes, who have need of once indebted to a happy thought of his wife the motives of religion to restrain them from for his escape from the British, to whom he the following described Beal Estate of Charles the motives of religion to restrain them from for his escape from the British, to whom he was extremely obnoxious. He was at home, with a LOT OF GROUND, situated in the practice of it till it becomes habitual, but expected to set out immediately for linet, which is the great point for its security.— Hartford, to meet the Legislature, which had borough of Gettysburg, on the north side of which is the great point for its security.— Hartford, to meet the Legislature, which had commenced its session a day or two previous. Site to your religious education, for the family residence was at Blackhill, oppo-feet, with a double Brick Dwelling House, Smith Shop and other improvements. No. 2. A LOT OF GROUND, fronting on said by value yourself. You might easily display your excellent talents of reasoning upon | east, and Long Island Sound on the south .-- a rank with our most distinguished authors. the Governor was known to be at this time in No. 3. A LOT OF GROUND, adjoining No. 2 For among us it is not necessary, as among his own mansion, a boat was secretly sent on the east, fronting on said Chambersburg the Hottentots, that a youth, to be raised into ashore for the purpose of securing his person. the company of men, should prove his man-bood by beating his mother. I would advise alarmed by seeing a file of marines coming > the ensuries it may raise against you, and perhaps, a good deal of regret and repent-ended that the Governor's proportions-which ance. If men are so wicked with religion, were by no means slight-must be compresswhat would they be if without it? I intend this letter itself as a proof of my friendship, and therefore, add no profession to it; but cask and covered. The process occupied but simply subscribe, yours, B. FRANKLIN. a few moments, and the soldiers presently entered. Mrs. Griswold was of course inno-Filial Love.- A plain old gentleman went cent of all knowledge of her husband's wherewith his team, to bring home his soas, two with his team, to bring home his none and sound and that the legislature was in session, and that young sprigs, who were soon expecting to that the legislature was in session, and that graduate. While returning they stopped at business required his presence at the capital, a hotel in one of our country towns for din. The bouse and sellar having been searched ner. The landlord, struck with the deshing without success, the soldiers departed. By the time their boat resched the ship, that the time their boat monday up the road on his appearance of the two gentlamen, made him the time their boat reached the ship, the sell very offsions, while he took the old man, Governor was galloping up the road on his

Here is your two cents. Very well, here is your third box.

And bers is your four cents, said he chack-

Cambridge, and then made the grand tour of ling. Here is your fourth box. Europe, returning to Virginia when he was twenty-one. He was married to Miss Cary soon afterward; became Collector at York, Exactly. And here are your eight cents ! -He i ha i ha ! old fellow-go on. Here is your fifth box, said I, handing lown another.

And here is your sixteen cents. He died at thirty-five; and the Kevola Here is your sixth box. tionary War breaking out soon afterward his beautiful widow moved sway from the

And-ha! ha! ha !--here is your thirtytero centit.

Here is your seventh box. And here-ha I ha! the joke is getting to rich-here is your sluty-four cents, and half of your signre are gone. Here is your sighth box, said I, assuming cool indifference that perfectly surprised the fellow. And here is your dollar and twenty-eight drunk on this. sir ?"

sesta. Here is your ninth box.

Here is your-let me see-sh 1 two dollars Ind filty-six cents. Here he drew his wallet thoughtfully, and on the slate made a small calculation. And here is your five dollars and twelve ents. Here is your eleventh box.

And here is your-twice five is ten, twice twelve is twenty-four-ten dollars and twentyfour cents.

At this stage of the game he had got quite locile, and I continued

Here is your twelfth ; hand over twenty dollars and forty-eight cents.

Here the globules of perspiration, large as marrow-fat peas, stood out in bold relief osbbage man's house, and said : on his face, but at length he doled out the cam. Here is your thirteenth box ; pile out forty dollars and ninety-siz chts. If I do, I shall, I will not. With that he left, and I have been unable to get near bim aince.

Popping the Question.

One evenin' as I was sittin' by Hetty, and had worked myself up to the sticking pint, ses I, " Hetty, if a feller was to ask you to marry him, what would you say ?" Then she laugh-ed, and ses she, "That would depend on who asked me." Then ses I, "Suppose it was The ninth fraction of the genus home could a less hazardous subject, and thereby obtain British ships were lying in the sound, and as Ned Willis?" Sex she, "I'd tell Ned Willis, not stand this, and plainly told his customer a rank with our most distinguished authors, the Governor was known to be at this time in but not you." That kinder staggered me; to go to the calorie regions of Pandemonium but I was too cute to loose the opportunity, and so ses I agen, "Suppose it was me ?" And then you orter have seen her pout up her lips, and ses she, "I don't take no supyon, therefore, not to attempt unchaining the up from the beach to the house. There was tiger, but to burn this piece before it is seen no time for flight. Mrs. Griswold bethought by any other person, whereby you will save yourself a great deal of mortification from had been brought in a day or two before, and Won't you say yes?" And then there was was not yet filled. Quick as thought, she desuch a hallabelloo in my head. I don't know 'xactly what tak place, but I thought I hoered were by no means slight—must be compress-ed into this, the only available hiding place. He was obliged to submit to be stowed in the a yes whisperin' somewhere out of the skrim age.

Scallowed a Shood .- A man down town wallowed a shovel yesterday morning; before doing so, however, it was converted into whisky. This morning the man was doing as well as could be expected "under the circumstances."

The Lover's Pussie .- To learn to read the following, so as to make good sense, is, the mystery I then yead see that me. Love is fown will I'll have

A Shot in the Flock.-We wonder if the following Paixhan shot, from the "Notes from the Plymouth Pulpit," by Henry Ward have teen gathering. The President thates it gloomily. He pauses. Another sip.-The thunder clouds have not yet flashed forth Beecher, hits anybody in all this region round about? We hope not. Mr. Beecher any lightnings. Porter, resigned, awaits the outburst. The President gazes wonderingly at his glass. A general emollient expression said :

"There are sitting before me in this coupling gation now two hundred men, who stuff their seems to glide over his face, and smooth the frowning brows. The lips relax, and a smile seems about to dawn. He lifts the glass once Sundays full of what they call religion, and then go out on Mondays to catch their brothmore to his lips, heaves a sigh, and puts it er by the throat, saying : 'Pay me what thou owest; its Monday now, and you seedu't

"Mr. Porter," he says, " the students get think that because we sat orging together yesterday, over our Savior's suffering and love, that I am going to let you off from that Porter sees that the storm is passed, and debt, if it does rain you to pay it now.""

"Sir," says the venerable man, walking gravely away, "sir, I don't wonder at it !"

A City buck visited the Shakers at Lebanon some time ago, and as he was wandering through the village encountered a stout hearty specimen of the sect and thus a tailor, and specially enjoined him that they addressed him : "Well, Broadrim, are you much of a Shamust be made by the next Tuesday, and that they must be made in the finest style, and ker?"

"Nay," said the other, "not overmuch that unless the tailor could have them ready but I can do a little that way." "I should like to see you perform." to a certainty, beyond a peradventure, to the day, that he must not undertake them : but Snip promised faithfully that they should be finished ad diems. Tuesday came and no clothes; the enraged gentleman flew to the " I can accommodate thee, friend," said the other quite cooly, and saized the antonished customer by the collar and nearly shook him out of his boots.

"What's the reason that my clothes were BET The Rev. Mr. A ---- was more eminent not ready as you promised ? liere, you have in his day for the brilliancy of his imaginakept me in the city at a loss of time and busition than the force of his logic. At cucking he was preaching on "the Ministry of An-gels," and in the peroration he suddenly abness only to disappoint me; now, if we had you in our part of the country, I tell you what they would call you; they would say you were served, "I hear a whisper!" The change of a perfect squirt." The knight of the goose explained that the The knight of the goose explained that the only competent workman he had, capable of "I guess it is the boys in the gallery! spoke: making the suit, had a wife lying at death's door, and he could not possibly leave her. The outraged gentleman was not able to

A German writer, who has published an account of men and things in the United smother his disappointment, and berated the States, says that "the condition of the negroes tailor soundly for failing in his positive in New York was at one time very bad, but awing to some reforms introduced by General Jackson, it is now considerably alleviated."

to go to the caloric regions of Pandemonium. The customer, red with rage, rushed across Cabbages .- To secure true solid heads on those stocks that manifest a disposition, to grow to what are known as " long shanks," take a penknife and stab it through the stock about the middle; inserts small piece of wood "Do you know Saip, the tailor, across the to keep the incision open, which will check the growth.

"Well, now, I want your advice," said the sonA newsboy was heard to say that he entleman ; " I want to know what you would had given up selling newspapers, and had gooe into the messagining business. "I get five dollars per week," said be, "for play-ing." "Playing what?" saked one of his to in such a case. That infamous stitch-louse has not only kept me here in the city on expense, to the great detriment of my business, and disappointed me in a suit of clothes, but, comrades. " Possum," replied the boy. when I went to remonstrate with the follow about it, what do you suppose the impudent rascal told me? If told me to go to h-II."

The Teacher Floored .- "You are yerr sta-pid, John," said a country teacher to a little boy eight years old. "You are like a doutery!" and what do they do to cure him of his sto-pidity ?" "Why they ised him more, wild lick him less," mid the grobin.

"Ma, is santy got bees in her month?" "No ? why do you ask such a question ?" "Cause that lobtle man with a hand do buir on his frow south'd hold of there and said he was a going to this the heavy's from her line; and ahe said. "Wall make:

-Sec. 11