Died, in Mummasburg, on Tuesday, the 31st of May, W.M. D. GOBRECHT, Esq., aged 59 years 5 months and 25 days.

In the death of Mr. Gobrecht our community has metained a serious fors. Endowed by nature with talents of a very high order, possessed of remarkable conversational powers, blessed with a genial disposition, and qualified by eduhis aim was to be useful in all the relations of

In accordance with the request of those who had opportunity of knowing something of the exercises of his mind during the last of his mortal days, the following lines are transcribed for insertion:

"Ye fields that witnessed once his tears, Ye winds that wafted oft his sighs, Ye mountains, where he breathed his prayers, When sorrow's shadow veiled his eves! No more the weary pilgrim mourns, No more affliction wrings his heart .-Th' unfetter'd soul to God returns, Forever he and anguish part. Receive, O earth, his faded form, la thy cold bosom let it lie; Bafe let it rest from every storm .-

Soon must it rise, no more to die." On the 2d of June his remains were interred in the burying ground of the Church at Arendts- | Clover Seed ville, which he assisted in building and supporting. The funeral sermon was based upon the words of inspiration, found in Prov. 14: 32 -"The Righteons hath hope in his death."

Communicated. Our community during the last week lost one of its most valuable members, in the removal by death of Mrs. E. WELTY, Mrs. W. was about 51 years of age-was a native of, and had resided, in this place during her whole life. Though she had been unwell for a long time, still her death was very sudden and unexpected. On the morning of Saturday, (May 28th.) she ate her breakfast as usual, and remarked that she felt much better than commonly, but before 12 o'clock she was a corpse. For many years Mrs. W. was a member of most consistent christian. Sue had a firm relinnce in the atonement of Christ, and looked to llim as the "author and finisher of her faith." Her gentle manners, her kind and christian spirit, made her beloved by all who knew her. were strewed lavishly round-by them her loss will be deeply felt. She always tried to spread

THE OXYGENATED BITTERS .- Nature, in her great old stand. labratory, has stered some remedy adapted to every dis-case which "flesh is heir to." But it requires the investigation and research of the philosopher to discover and apply this remedy. Such research and investigation has suc coded in discouring a remody for that most affective dis-pensation, the DYSPEPSIA, with all its issuer and numerone orde; and it may be safely asserted that until the appearance of the Oxygenated Bitters a case of Dyspapsia nared, was a sure experience in malical practice. Now under the infinence of these Bitters the rule is to care, the rare exception, failure to cure. Read the following, which the subscriber requests us to publish for the boundt of the affricted :
