Anysantaments inserted at the usual rates. Jos Printing done with nestness and dis-

OFFICE in South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wamplers' Tinning Establishment-"Complete" on the sign.

J. C. Neely, TTORNEY AT LAW, will attend to collec-A tions and all other business intrusted to his care with promptness. Office nearly opposite Fahnestock's Store, Baltimore street.

Gettysburg, April 11, 1859. tf A. H. Dill, TTORNEY AT LAW, will attend promptly A to collections and all business entrusted to

Office between Fahnestocks' and Danner & Ziegler's Stores, Baltimore st., Gettysburg, Pa. May 9, 1859. 6m

Wm. B. McClellan. TTORNEY AT LAW .- Office on the south A side of the public square, 2 duors west of the Seutinel office. Gettysburg, August 22, 153.

D. McConaughy,

A TTORNEY AT LAW, (office one door west of Buehler's drug and book store, Chambersburg street.) ATTORNEY AND SOLICITOR FOR PATRIES AND PRISIOSS. Bounty Land Warrants, Back-pay suspended Claims, and all other claims against the Government at Washington, D. C.; also American Claims in England. Land Warrants located and sold, or bought, and highest prices given. Agents engaged in lo-cating warrants in Iowa, Illinois and other western States. De Apply to him personally

Gettysburg, Nov. 21, '53. Edward B. Buehler.

A TTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly attend to all business currented to nim. He speaks the German language .-Affice at the same place, in South Bulthnore street, near Forney's drug store, and nearly opposite Danner & Ziegler's store. Gettysburg, March 20.

Dr. A. W. Dorsey, TORNERLY of Carroll county, Md., having permanently located in Gettyshurg, offers has professional services to the citizens of the town and surrounding country in the practice of the various branches of his profession. Office and residence, lialtimore street, next door to The Compiler office, where he may be found as all times when not professionally engaged.

Prof. Nathan R. Smith, Baltimore, Md. Rev. Augustus Webster, D. D., Baltimore Md. Dr. J. L. Warfield, Westminster, Md. Dr. W. A. Mathias, " Jicob Beese, Esq., "
John K. Longwell, Baq., " Goo. E. Wampler, Esq., of Rev. Thomas Bowen, Gettysburg. Oct. 25, 1858. 8m

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D. AS his office one door west of the Luttieran church in A'humbersburg street, and opposite l'icking's store, where those wishing to have any Pental Operation performed are respectfully lavited to All. REFERENCES: Drs. Hotner, Rev. C. P. Krauth, D. D. Rev. H. L. Baugher, D. D., Rev. Prof. M. Jacobs, Prof. M. L. Staver.

Wood-land A T PRIVATE SALE.—I will sell at private sate 52 ACRES OF LAND, on the banks of Marsh creek, wear Breams & Mill, 40 Acres of which is heavily timbered. If not sold prior to the first day of July it will then be faid out in tots to suit purchasers and sold at public sale. May 16, 1859. GEO, ARNOLD, "The Gem." TEW RESTAURANT,-The undersigned has found of superior quality, and his charges of man,

Gettysburg, April 11, '52.

The proprietor is thankful for the fine run of austom he is already receiving, and is resolved to large carriage, which we had engaged for it is evident that the whole space within the make "The Gen" exempore popular, if possible, A. B. PRYOR. Feb. 14, 1859.

ing Goods—an extensive lot of all kinds of Also, a large and submidul sasiaty of Setts, Breast Pins and Ear Rings : WATCHES, MUSI-BAG. In short, everything in his line. After all said and done, SAMSON SIS THE word to the wise is sufficient.

Those who wish to buy to sell again will do well by calling, as I can and will sell them goods cheaper than they can buy them in the city.

Change of Hours

p.31 returning to Gettyshurg at 12.30 noon. of villagers were, however, interesting to two men fighting, indicated a gladiatorial for the with passengers from Bultimore, Yurk, Harris- look upon, with the wine shops, macaroni school; a man whipping a boy hoisted on poscs. burg, Philadelphia, and the North and West.

The AFTERNOON TEAIN will leave Gettysburg at 1 o'clock. P. M., connecting at Hanover Junction with Mail train to Baltimore at 3.37, resurning to Gettysburg about 6.30 P. M. passengers from York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, and the North and Wurt.

By the above arrangement passengers Central Railway both morning and afternoon. B. M'CURDY, President.

April 25, 1859.

John W. Tipton,

O to Tipton's—go to Tipton's—Go to Tipton's in the corner the corner in the Diamond-In the Diamond near McClellan's, If you want your hair dressed finely-If you want your face shaved smoothly. Bachelors who never knew it-Tip's the fellow that can do it-Do it in the latest fashion-Do it quick and do it neatly, And improve your fine looks greatly, Make you look so young and sprightly, Make you feel more young and brightly, Nake you feel like going nightly Te cali upon some pretty damsel Who before would not look at you, At you as you passed her daily, And young men who wear moustaches. Who want some one to sew patches-Patches where your breeches tear— Tip's the boy to make up matches— Matches with some lady fair.

Then repair to Tipton's shop, Daney, Pogy, Plirt and Fop. Jan. 11, 1858. Opposite the Eagle Hotel.

TRANCE BONKETS and trimmings, very mo-call and see them at the store GEO. ARNOLD. ORNETS, Ribbons, Flowers, and Ruches for male at the new chosp stere of A. SOUTT & SON.

A Democratic, Mews and Family-Vournal.

THE COMPILER.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAIL."

TWO DOLLARS A-YBAR.

41st YEAR.

Br H. J. STAHLE.

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, JUNE 20, 1859.

NO. 38.

Poet's Corner.

From the London Times, May 11. THE WAR.

BY ALPRED TEXXYSON.

There is a sound of thunder afar, Storm in the South that darkens the day, Storm of battle and thunder of war, Storm! storm! Riflemen form! Ready, be ready to meet the storm! Riflemen, riflemen, riflemen form!

Be not deaf to the sound that warns! Be not gull'd by a despot's plea! Are figs of thistles, or grapes of thorns?

How should a despot set men free? Form! form! Ritlemen form! Ready, be ready to meet the storm! Ritlemen, ritlemen, ritlemen form !

Let your Reforms for a moment ga, Look to your butts and take good aims Better a rutten borough or so, Than a rotten feet or a city in flames! Form! form! Biffemen form! Ready, be ready to meet the storm! Riffemen, riffemen, riffemen form!

Form, be ready to do or die! Form in Freedom's name and the Queen True, that we have a faithful ally, But only the Devil knows what he means Form! form! Biflemen form! Ready, be ready to meet the storm! Riflemen, riflemen, riflemen, form!

THE TRUTH DOTH NEVER DIR.

Though Kingdoms, States, and Empires fall, And dynastics decay; Though cities crumble into dust, And nations die away; Though gorgeous towers and palaces la heaps of rain lie, Which once were proudest of the proud, The Truth doth never die! We'll mourn not o'er the silent past; Its glories are not fled, Although its men of high renown

Be numbered, with the dead. We'll grieve not o'er what earth has lost, It cannot claim a sigh; For the wrong slone hath perished, The Truth doth never die!

All of the Past is living still-All that is good and trae; The rest hath perished, and it did Deserve to perish, too!
The world rolls ever round and round, And time rolls ever by; And the wrong is ever rooted up,

But the Truth doth never die!

Miscellaneous.

A TRIP TO EUROPE.

TISIT TO PUMPEII-SCENES ON THE BOTTE-EX BUING-THE STREETS. HOUSES, TEMPLES, SHOPS, AND THEATERS-BINGULAR INCIDENTS, AC.

Naples, May 11, 1859. According to promise, I will now proceed the atreets for the convenience of foot paston arrate our visit to Pompeii, which, like screens in time of rain. Stones for mount Mount Vesurius, far exceeded our anticipating to pavements, and holes are found in the curbs to in all its characteristics. Fresh from pavements, and holes are found in the curbs of the Oriental Harem, every part of it most of the most magnificent of private residences within the pavements, and holes are found in the curbs of the Oriental Harem, every part of it most Genous, because of his complicity in a liberal magnificance with pavements. In the adicining lane three and a half plusters for the entire day, it being the standing rule of all travelers to was churely occupied by buildings. The A. B. PRIOR.

The public baths are very fine and in an excellent state of preservation. One has a small sweep often decorated with great splendor, and the pavement was always of marble or mosaics. In the centre of the space occupied by the smallest house, with a cold water basin of white marble in mosaics. In the centre of the space occupied by the smallest houses, there was a carly allowed from the disrebling room and rearly through the suburbs of Naples, the towns of Pasagno, Portici, Research and the pavement was always of marble or mosaics. In the centre of the space occupied by the smallest houses, there was a carly allowed from the disrebling room and form the disrebling room and the pavement was always of marble or mosaics. In the centre of the space occupied by the smallest houses, there was a carly allowed from the disrebling room and the pavement was always of marble or was alw of Naples, the towns of Pasagno, Portici, Re- by the smallest houses, there was nearly al-HATS BOOTS, SHOES and GAITERS—an un- sina, Favorita, Torre del Greco, Rossi, and rivalled assortment of TRI NKS and CABPET Torre del Annunziata in the gates of Pomrivalled assortment of TRIAKS and CARPET Torre del Annunziata in the gates of Pom- flowers. The rooms generally would be con-SACES, some very hand-some and new styles— pail, in the rear of Vesuvius, a distance of sidered as closets at the present day, the SPOT to buy your goods at the right prices. A all the way, and all connecting with each regarded as having been the dwellings of the coasts the eastern shore of the bay to the whether Pompeii was really free from any completely shut out from the sea by the dead : Hanover Junction with Express train to Baltimore at street of a long, uninteresting, dusty gos, indicated a milk shop'er dairy; two men street 9.32, and Mail train from Baltimore at street, than of a high post road. The crowds leaverying a large jug, indicated a wine shop; to the eve of a stranger.

> ENTRANCE TO POMPEIL. of Neptune, by one of the guides appointed an indelicate carred figure at the curbby the Government, and entered at once into stone. e excavated streets of the ancient city of continued shower of hot ashes from Vesuvistanding in good condition. These counters, with openings through their tops, through plotely buried that its locality was not known which to din up the wine, are generally putil the west 1704. the city has since been excavated, with the walls that must have rendered it deserving which the Pompeians sat to be shaved.

the fate of Sodom and Gomorrah. an interesting account in his well-known letwhich he likens to a great pine tree, ascending to a great height, and spreading out its shoe. There had been for many days were not unusual, but they were so particularly violent that night they not only shook everything, but seemed to threaten wtal destruction. In the morning the light was exceedingly faint and languid, the buildings all Jan. 11, 1858.

To get "the worth of your money and the right change back," make your purchases at the new cheap store of A, SCOTT & SUN,

May 16.

Opposite the Earle Hotel. though upon the most level ground, that they could not be kept steady even by supporting them with large stones. The sea seemed to roll back many itself, and to be driven from its banks by the convulsive motion of the turned, and even the sun appeared, though as under a partial eclipse. Every object After they had perished probably from suffowhich processed itself to their weakened eyes cation, the floor of the cellar was inundated was covered over with white ashes, as with a the dry light sales which were suspended in the air. This water as it reached the soil. the air. This water as it reached the soil, adorned their persons. One cast of a young carried with it in its course the cinders which girl, part of which I saw in the museum tog had fallen, and thus delaged Pompeii with a soft pasty volcanie mud or alluvium, which penetrated into places where neither scoria nor askes sould have reached; and thus completed the work of destruction.

This is the substance of the description given by an eye witness, and is valuable as which have been discovered about a mile distant. On account of the difficulty of excavating the lave, but one subterraneau excavation has been made exhibiting the interior of two or three houses and temples.

could pass at a time in any but the principal throughfares. They are paved with irregular blocks of lava, closely fitted together, and bordered by a narrow pavement and curbstone, clevated a foot or more above the car-TRANCE TO THE CITY—EXAMINATION OF THE TINGE WAY. The streets are about as wide as has four stone mills in it, something after the off his opponents from using the Splugen action—the streets, houses, temples, shore, and side of "The Little Giant," of Mesars. Ribb Pass, was the particular move, in the great

The private houses are generally small We not an early breakfast, and our party, and low, and deficient in all that would be comprising six, stirted at 8 o'clock, in a considered comfort at the present day, though walls, which are two miles in circumference. fourteen miles, which was secomplished in walls of which are covered with rich frescoes about two hours.

The whole of this route through these of preservation, and all evincing a state of CAL INSTRUMENTS. &c. &c. A very hand-gone and new style R HERDAD TRAVELLING towns, most of them being situated on the immorality beyond anything that can be continued in the present age. No houses have other so closely that, without a previous poor, and it remains to be proved by further and checkers denoted the door-post of the publican. The houses of bad repute were

The wine shops are very numerous, and Pompeii, which was completely buried and the marble counters, in which were built up large earthenware jars, each capable of holduntil the year 1784, when the ruins were accidentally discovered. About one-fourth of the vender stood to supply his customers.— There are two undoubted restaurants or cool discovery of many rich treasures of art, and shops, where articles were cooked and said with circumstances that led to the conviction ; across the counter. There is also a barber's that a tone of morality prevailed within its shop, with a stone block in the centre, on

The theatres and amphitheatres are on a Pliny the younger, who was a resident of most extensive scale, and are in an excellent Pompoii at the time of its destruction, gives state of preservation, though none of them are equal to the Colliseum at Rome. The ters to Tacitus, describing the death of his interior of the great amphitheatre was capa-uncle, the older Pliny, distinguished as a ble of seating 10,000 persons. The part now naturalist. He speaks of a cloud of vapor as excavated is about one fourth of the city, and baving been seen over Vesuvius on the after- contains two forums, nine temples, two banoon of the 24th of August, in the year 79, silies, three plaxes, an amphithentre, two theatres, a prison, double baths, nearly 100 houses and shops, several villas, a considerable portion of the walls, seven gates, and before some shocks of an earthquake, which | about a dozen tombs. The tombs are outside of the walls, and are on a scale of great magnificence, the vaults under them having re-ceptacles for urns to hold the askes of the lead, the mode of burial among the Pompaians having been to burn the bodies and deposit the ashes in funeral urns.

The walls of the city are built of large locks of Lava, and of fine workmanship,-The upper courses, however, have been freof an enemy. The towers were square, and apparently have been of great height, having vapor, darted out a long train of fire, resemb- | have been a splendid establishment, decorat- | the discipline of the Roman soldier, who ling flashes of lightning, but much larger.—

ed in the highest style of art, and embellishSoon after the cloud seemed to descend and cover the whole ocean. Immediately after room and garden. Beneath the portico, and darkness overspread them, not like that of a lellow the level of the gardens, was the wins likely. cloudy night, or when there is no moon, but cellar, a long archway, not less than 100 feet But I have not time to carry the reader of a room when it is shut up and all the lights in length, in as perfect a state as when last further through these interesting ruins, which are extinct. Nothing was to be heard but occupied by its owner. A long row of wine abound everywhere in evidence of the highest bushands, and only distinguishing each other this splendid mansion appears to have lost bonico in Naples, contained in about 100 by their voices; one lamenting his own fate, another that of his family; some wishing to akeleton was found, with that of an attendance of them only a cursory examination. The mardie from the very fear of dying: some lifting ant near the garden gate, the one still hold- ble and bronze statunry exhibit a very high their hands to the gods, but the greater part ing in his bony grasp the key of the villa, state of art, whilst statues of the Heathen imagining that the last and eternal night the other carrying a purse containing 100 Goddesses are remarkable for their historical was come which was to destroy the gods and gold and silver coins and some silver vases.— interest. In short this museum has always the world together. At length a glimmering While he was thus endeavoring to escape to been regarded as the most interesting in the light appeared, which they imagined to be the sea shore, the members of his family, world, as remarked by an English writer, in rather the forerunner of an approaching whom he had abandoned to their fate, took a work on the subject, for here we find the burst of flames, as in truth it was, than the refuge in the wine cellars, where seventeen furniture, the ornaments, the Gods, the backs, return of day. The fire, however, fell at a of their skeletons were found near the door, the utensils, the paintings of a great people, distance, and they were again immersed in a sit they had endeavored to retrace their thick darkness, with a heavy shower of sabes steps after finding that the place afforded no raining upon them, which they were obliged shelter from the fiery tempest. From the books, their musical instruments, even their to shake off, otherwise they would have been gold bracelets on the necks and arms of near-break and their baked fruits in its pristing crushed and buried in the heap. At last ly all these skeletons, it would appear that form, only blackened by the action of are, are this drendful darkness was dissipated by dethey were mostly females. Two were the to be seen. In contemplating these, we rethis drendful darkness was dissipated by de- they were mostly females. Two were the to be seen. In contemplating these, we regrees, like a cloud of smoke; the real day re- skeletons of children, whose skulls still re- trace with a sort of fascination all their habits with a fine alluvium, which hardened upon and we dwell upon the varied objects pre-> day, with her skull, possessed exceeding ele gauce of form; the neck and breast especially were perfect models of female beauty. "llow sailly echoing to the stranger's tread, These walls respond, like voices from the dead." We also examined the spot were the skeletons of a mother and three children were found, all closely folded in each others arms, great value. The ruins of a tavern are quite interesting. It has numerous apartments in the rear, which served probably as drinking rooms, as one of the walls contained announcements of one of the walls contained announcements of the public festivals of the day. The shop itruins, we were greatly surprised to find them in so excellent a state of preservation. We found ourselves walking through long paved atreets, just as they were when through with the stains of the liquor and the minute of the stains of the liquor and the minute of the liquor and the minute of the stains of the liquor and the minute of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the walls contained announcements of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the walls contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise, as one of the public festivals of the day. The shop itself-contained a furnise of the day. atreets, just as they were when thronged with inhabitants, 1800 years ago, with rows of houses on both sides, closely built up in every direction. The streets are extramely parted. and it is clear that not more than one vehicle plustering which covered other names of pre- and in an advanced period of life, had predic-supplied with surgical instruments, of forty position of the combatants, that the attack different varieties. The pulse house upon the Austrian right, by which Garibalds was also examined with great interest. It established bimself in Lombardy, and has cut principal throughfares are not more than two thirds as wide as the narrow part of Holliday still, and is precisely after the fushion of the at the very time.

According the made, exactly still and is precisely after the fushion of the at the very time.

The coven stands in a perfect condition game of war, which should be made, exactly at the very time.

It may be worth while here to give a brief and kindling in it, apparently just ready for sketch of the antecedents of Joseph Cari-fine gold bracelets, two car-rings, and thirtythree other females, supposed to have been her slaves.

The public baths are very fine and in an excellent state of preservation. One has a vaulted ceiling, richly painted red and blue, corresponds with it in size. There is also a vapor bath, the walls and chambers being constructed hollow, so as to allow the steam women's baths are at the other side of the furnaces, and are arranged and decorated in corridor of this establishment.

surrounded by the Temple of Jupiter, Temple . study of the locality, the change of coporate excavations, whether the lower orders were surrounded by the Tample of Jupiter, Temple limits could not be discerned. The road located in a separate quarter of the city, or of Vennes, and the Senate Chamber. It was ornamented of three sides by a broad colun- enrol themselves under his command. Naright, with Vesuvius to the last; but it is so pamper population.

The shops were very small, and when first ate Chamber, or Bassalica, was 200 feet long liance in his ability and bravery, and he Summer Arrangement.—On and after Thursday, April 21st, the MORNING TRAIN will leave test than over Junction with Express train to Baltimore at 9.32, and Wait ratio feed to 1.32, and Wait rat for the Augustols as well as for religious pu: | bardy and Piedmont, at this crisis, is incalculook upon, with the wine shops, macaroni school; a man windping a soy master, establishments, and other quaint spectacles another's back, indicated a school master, are distinguished for a famous well of pure was charless deputed the decrepost of the ter, said to possess great mineral qualities. We were mot at the gate near the Temple evidently marked by the authorities with 120 feet deep, not at all affected by the

in the year 79, nearly 1800 years ago, by a ing nearly as much as a harrel, are still purification, to which there was a descent by and forwards at the same time, with equal steps. Near it is the altar, on which were found the burnt bones of human victims who might witness. In another part was the figuro of Isis in purple drapery, partly gift, two walls in the vain attempt to escape from which effectually conceals the large the cruption, but perished before he could with great interest.

The barracks near the gate was undoubtedly the great headquarters of the Pompeian In the guard room were found four skeletons with their legs instened in iron stocks; in the sleeping apartments numerous holmets of bronze and iron, with bolts, the rooms of the officers above were found belinets of various kinds, some of the most exquisite workmanship, with swords and various articles of female dress and ornaments, of the richest kind, proving that the iamilies of the officers lived in the Barracks with them. for looking glass plates for this large hotel Among the personal ornaments found were smoonts to about $16,000, the cost of silver-Among the personal ornaments found were quently broken and rudely repaired, showing two neeklaces of massive gold, one of which ing and frames will increase the amount to the effect of breaches from the bettering rams was set with twelve emeralds, several gold near $30,000. them with large stones. The sea seemed to roll back upon itself, and to be driven from its banks by the convulsive motion of the carter, leaving several sea unitals on the barrance of the castern pepers "for a skeletons of men, women and children. The short.—On the other side a black and draadful cloud, burnsing with an igneous serpentine of the walls, judging from the rains left, must racks was sixty-three, a remarkable proof of from his business.

The sea seemed to apparently have been of great height, having precious stones, gilt pins for the hair, and doubtless been overthrown by the carting chests of fine lines and cloths of gold. One joying the first blusses of the honeymoon, adouted the destruction and of these upper rooms containing precious stones, gilt pins for the hair, and doubtless been overthrown by the carting chests of fine lines and cloths of gold. One joying the first blusses of the honeymoon, adouted the destruction and of these upper rooms containing precious stones, gilt pins for the hair, and doubtless been overthrown by the carting chests of fine lines and cloths of gold. One satisfies in one of the castern papers "for a skeletons of men, women and children. The lates of the down and legal to have only to akeletons fund in the bar-ful cloud, burnsing with an igneous serpentine of the walls, judging from the rains left, must be containing and cloths of gold. One of the castern papers "for a skeletons of men, women and children. The lates of the castern papers "for a skeletons of men, women and children. The small second hand leconsotive," that he may at our charch says, she used to have only to akeletons fund the containing and cloths of the first blusses of the here.

The villa of Blumches, in the first blusses of the here of the castern papers "for a skeletons of men, women and children. The lates of the containing and cloths of the castern papers "for a skeletons of men, women and children. The lates of the containing and cloths of the castern papers to the containing and cloths of the the shricks of women, the screams and the jars, each about four feet high, now stands in interest in architecture, art, sculpture and cries of men: some calling for their children, this vault, incrustated in lava against the wall, painting, thousands of the first specimens of others for their parents and others for their On the night of the cruption the owner of which are to be found in the Museum Barwhich are to be found in the Museum Barand customs, looking with double interest on such as assimilate with those of our own day, thus in idea connecting ourselves with them: deep snow. The mountain afterwards threw the todies and took easts, not only of their sented to our view, all of which are curious out deluges of heated water, charged with forms, but even of the most delicate texture of and many beautiful, with sensations so livethe linen they wore, and of the jewels which ly, so real, that we feel as if the people still lived, still were among us. Yours, &c.,

General Garibaldi.

The dashing enterprise of Gen. Garibaldi, so successfully accomplished by his throwing his volunteers upon the right of the Austrian army, has not only given him a fuoting in Lombardy, but has probably made him masaffording an evidence of the character of the found, all closely folded in each others arms, ter of Como, which commands the Lake. We eraption. This eruption also overwhelmed and covered with gold ornaments, elaborately use the word probably—all that is certainly lerculaneum with lava, some of the ruins of worked and enriched with pendant pearls of known is that Garibaldi had taken Varese, without having artillery. If he maintain himself in his position for a few days, no doubt he will be strongly reinforced. His continued occupation of Austro-Limbardian ground would greatly help the Allies. That the game of War is a game of Chess, upon a large scale, was said by the Great Napoleon. It is quite true that strategy avails as much as force, in a campaign. The head to plan is required as well as the hands to execute. An English paper says that Sir Wil-lian Napier, the emineut Historian of the Peninsular War, who is now dangerously ill, vious scribblers.

The House of the Surgeon was found well the condition of Italy and the comparative fower floor of McConsumby's Hall building in factoring the building in Carlisle effect. Getty-burg, and solicits a share in the public a patrouage. The rooms have just been fitted up in the most approved style, said will compare flavorably with many of the best in the Genos because of his complicity in a liberal neat with nothing in Pompoii that would as leven excavated, five may be considered as the principal throughfares of the city.—

In Hydres, Alc, & will always be seen excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for can be conspirately decorated. In the adjoining lane conspirately decorated. In the adjoining lane conspirately decorated. In the spinit of the skeleton of a young female, have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for can be charactery decorated. In the adjoining lane conspirately decorated. In the adjoining lane conspirately decorated. In the spinit decorated in tonish or particularly interest us; but it soon have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for can be charactery decorated. In the adjoining lane conspirately decorated. In the spinit decorated in the skeleton of a young female, have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for can be charactery decorated. In the skeleton of a young female, have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for can be charactery decorated. In the adjoining lane conspirately decorated. In the skeleton of a young female, have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for charactery decorated. In the skeleton of a young female, have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops, for charactery decorated. In the skeleton of a young female, have been excavated, five may be considered as the principal houses and shops.

The sidewalks are of bricks, and conspirately decorated. In the discount of the fair of the fair of the fair of the fair of t for the Republic of Uruguay, the squadron destined to act against Buenos Avres. two pieces of money were lying near her.— the Revolution of 1848 broke out, Garibaldi, Close at hand were found the skeletons of with the remains of the Italian legion who had fought under him in South America. fought on the side of Italian independence .-Piedmont, in the Tyrol, and in Rome, (which he gallantly defended against the French troops,) his value was distinguished.

His, indeed, is A spirit that can dare The deadliest form that death can take, And dare it-for the daring's sake. After Rome was taken, Garibaldi disbanded his little company of adherents and went to New York, where he entered into business. and painting, most of them in excellent state to circulate freely from the furnaces. The Thence he returned to South America, and commanded the Peruvian navy for some time. hase and sides of Yesuvius, was like passing ceived in the present age. No houses have through a continuous street of Naples, paved however, yet been discovered, which can be less than 500 stone lamps were found in one wife, a woman of undanated converse died by He has lived, with his children, in an island his side, from an Austrian ball in Italy. At script: The forum is a spacious and imposing spot | the sound of the war trumpet, Garibaldi returned to his native land, was recognised and seek. Mr. Eaton is the carpenter, and Mr. of the Manden type take gin todales and encouraged, and the volunteers hastened to week. Mr. Eaton is the carpenter, and Mr. of them are as good as lawyers and dec-

New York, in the person of a man named Karl Saul, who it is asserted, has four eyes! That which attracted most attention was the famous temple of Isis. The court presents all the arrangements for the Isis worthing the famous temple of Isis. The court presents all the arrangements for the Isis worthing t ship. In one end is the sacred well of lustral of eyes are perfect, and he sees backwards had just been sacrificed. In a niche of the The objects which he simultaneously beholds, wall was a figure of Harpocrates, with his he will describe with wonderful accuracy. fingers on his lips to enjoin silence upon the Indeed, he is remarkable for his descriptive worshippers in regard to the mysteries they powers. Mr. Saul is a man of extreme diffidence, and the peculiarity of his visual construction has been carefully concealed, and holding a bronze sistrum and a key. In one of the rooms a skeleton was found holding a his most intimate friends. The back of the sacrificial axe with which he had cut through which are generally protected by a bandage. reach the third. The subterranean passage As if the above is not wonderful enough, the and secret stairs by which the priest correspondent of the Post makes the following could obtain access to the interior of the altar, wonderful statement: "He is highly intelligent and deliver the oracles as if they proceeded gent, and social in his habita, and owns confrom the statue of Isis herself, we examined siderable property, which he has accumulated

The largest mirror ever imported into this country has just been received from Paris, for the Fifth Avenue Hotel now in progress of completion. Its dimensions are 90 by 188 inches, and its cost, exclusive of frame, about lances, swords, strigils, leather belts, &c. In $1,500. No ship was large enough to admit it between decks, and so it was brought as the Enchanted Horse, I want to ask you part of a deck load. This glass is to be placemethin'." "Well, Ichabed, what is it?" ed in the dining room, opposite the entrance bout noon of yesterday, at the fish stand at Second and Pine streets, owing to the enactment of a funny, though painful scene, that no rustling of wings, the work of warning or occurred there, between a stupid kind of a Dutchman and a Delaware snapper. The of chastening has been done no less surely.

Smelling a Snapper. Not a little amusing excitement prevailed

Perhaps we had, too, nearly forgotten the dis man, whose name is Fritz, after making a tresses of 1857, and the demonstrations of the stand aforesaid, and hulted. He had heard of snappers, snapper soup, and other kind of "snaps," but he had never seen more than the shell of an original inhabitant of the marshy fens of the silvery Delaware. "Ish dem are tings yet you calls schunp-pers?" said Fritz to the july dispenser of such singular looking amphibious creatures. "Yes," replied the seller ; " would you like excellent order, and the cheapest kind of food. They'll make you fatter than lager beer, and far more wholesome." Frits. "Well, dat ish goot, lager beer is it to the nasal protuberance of his counto-The dealer said nothing-the bystanders observing the passing events, congregated around, and stood in silent admiration of Mynheer smelling a snapping turtle. He applied his nose to the shell, then the soft parts, and then elevating the candidate for soup, brought his nose in close proximity to the head thereof. In a moment the snapper exhibited his natural propensities, and poor Fritz's rose was firmly cleuched within its strong and willing jaws. The horny and sharp beak of a snapping turtle is the only thing it has for purposes of defence, and in this instance, as might well be expected, it held on like death to the careass of a deceased son of Ethiopia.

Fritz danced around and performed sandry gyrations, that would have ninde first class waltzers hide their heads, exclaiming "Got for tam-de difle-takes him army-takes him off-my nose ish bit mit de diffe-I deskont vants der soup."

Butchers, hucksters, dealers, truckers, and people generally, congregated around the terrified Dutchman. Some laughed, others roared, some shook all over with merriment. A jully "pot gutted" dealer in perk and hams, overcome with emotions of fun and de-light, fairly rolled on the pavement; ever an mient Quaker lady smiled. Finally, a stout Hibernian, who couldn't help enjoying a hearty laugh, came to the rescue of the pain stricken, thrified Teuton.

"Be jalers, men, the basic must come from the fellow's news; give me yes knife, and I'll cut the binguard's head off." "No, you don't," said the dealer; "pry his jaws open-take your fingers."

It's not the likes or me as will put my fingers nary once to the creatur's mouth."

Things now became very serious, and it was a matter of come double whether the unfortunate man would not lose a portion of his proboscis. The dealer, however, came to the to the entire satisfaction of Mynheer.

The crowd soon separated, and it may be needless to say that the Dutchman had become so entirely satisfied with "snapper," that he did not think it necessary at all to test the quality of snapper soup. He, with one hand over his wounded nose, and the other holding his basket, made a bee line for his unexpected and painful adventure in smelling a suapper.

Yankee all Over!

The Newport News tells the following arms at the present day. Duncan Pell, Esq., has just commenced Fludder the mason. The work is to be done tors. If you want a true christian marry an by the day. Terms cash.

" Messrs. Fish & Engs furnish the lumber.

"April 25, 1859. Duncan Pell." To this The National Intelligencer thus narrates the sequel:

"It was on the first night of the to-he-dry month of May, 1859—the month of flowers and balmy sephyrs, passional attraction, green peas, and other affinities—that Duncan Pell lay buried in the arms of slumber. A from sleep, Duncan looked forth into the cause sir," he replied, "if your eyes should moonlight. A dark form was pounding away grow weak, you could not keep spectacles on." dow, the form cried aloud:

" Say, you, Mister Pell, be you agoin' to have this ero fence white or yaller washed?'

Pike's Peak Items .- It seems to be a prevailing fushion among the Pike's Peakers to inscribe some motto on their wagon cover. emblematic, we suppose, of the proprietor's sentiments. The other day we noticed the ollowing inscription on a wagon, bound for the Peak :- " For Pike's Peak, or bust!" In a few days we again saw the same wagon. returning, and the inscription read, "Busted y G-d!" So goes the world.

We learn from persons just returned from like's Peak, that Gen. Larimer attempted to limb to the top of the peak, and when withn about six feet of the top, the point broke off in the General's arms, and the General and the peak rolled down to the bottom of the peak together. The General was badly bruised, but the peak was not seriously injured.

Sally," said a green youth, in a venerable white hat and gray pants, through which his legs projected half a foot—" hally, before we go into this 'ere museum to see Why, you see this 'ere business is gwine to cost a hull quarter of a dollar apiece, and I can't afford to spend so much for nuthin'.— Now, of you'll say you'll have me, darned of I don't pay the bull on't myself—I will!"— Sally made a non-committed reply, which Ichabod interpreted to suit himself, and he strode up two steps at a time, and paid the

The Pittelering Disputch thus maralless are er the distressing results of the recent fronts:

While listening on Monday and Tuesday, with real sympathy, to the deepending reports of the farmers of our county in regard to the effect of the fresh on their crops, we could not help feeling with a possible face to the inter selplessness of main, the smalley of his calculations, and the inscentify of his lopes, save as founded in absolute faith in God's wisdom and goodness. It is, Indeed, herd to how in genuine submission to thest Providence at such a moment of distress, and Providence at such a moment of distress, and the heart will murmur and rebel, but of what avail is it? On Saturday, at sundown, there were doubts and fears of mischief, perhaps, but who dreamed of the desolution which foun-day morning's sun revealed? of the wishered fruits, and the blighted, blasted veretation which had succeeded the grand promise of a few hours before? "What is man," says the good Book, and what indeed is he? He may plant and water, but what is secured to time the still his labor? A little frost comes in the of all his labor? A little frost comes, in the calm, still night, while we sleep undisturbed, and the apparently triffing agent outs down more hopes and fortunes than a conflagation or a war of long duration. The Destroying Angel has passed by, and though we heard crowded morning prayer meetings and Sab-bath day gatherings in acknowledgment that there was a God, and that we were his dependent creatures.

Apache Whiskey .- Our correspondent at Apache Pass, says the Arizonian, gives us the following account of the manner in which the Indians of this region manufacture their "disquin," or "tisween," an intexteating liquor of extraordinary ferocity. He says: world, as remarked by an English writer, in a work on the subject, for here we find the furniture, the ornaments, the Gods, the basts, the utensils, the paintings of a great people, whose city was overthrown and baried under thick ashes almost 2,000 years ago; their a hole is then dug in the ground, generally in a wigwam, and some dry grass had on the bottom; on this grass the corn is placed, and a layer of water is sprinkled over the corn, and at night the family sleep on it, to increase the warmth, and make the corn sprout quick.
At the end of four or five days the corn is all sprouted; it is then dried and pounded fine. goot, un it makes me feel so goot—if der schnappers is better, vy I takes von. Eh, vat you ask for him." Here Pritz extended his right hand and held up the unpresending bis right hand and held up the unpresending roady for drinking. Although not rank to I schmells him," at the same time putting very great, and when an Indian has a quart the taste, and flery, its intoxicating power is or two on board, he don't care a copper who is President of the United States.

It's a pity that laws cannot be made to punish all kinds of scoundrelism. A young lady in Cincinnati was to be led to the altar on Monday evening last, by one to whom she had given her heart's affections. Friends and acquaintances had been invited to the marriage ceremony, and a large number had convened. The hour arrived, yet the bride-groom came not. The bride and guests were in waiting, and the hour passed by, and still the bridegroom delayed making his appearance. At length the postman called at the house with a letter for the intended bride. It was from her betrothed, and contained the cards of himself and bride—he having been married the night previous to another. What punishment does the dastard deserve who could be guilty of an act like this?

We never thought the French were ery sound on any question, but a French editor gives the following amusing description of the effect of an advertisement which seems to us pretty sound. The first time a man sees an advertisement he takes no notice of it; the second time he looks at the name; the third time he looks at the price; the fourth time he reads it; the fith time he speaks of it to his wife; the sixth time he buys. People who don't believe in advertising should ponder upon this,

The following, from the Cincinnati Empirer, is really too bad. But the editor of that paper was once a member of Congress, and has a right to know the moral stamman of that unfortunate class of men :

"Three convicts of the Penitentiary at Washington were baptized in the Potomac "On ter tifle—ter tifle—he ish bits barter River, on Sunday last, by a minister of the n harter—takes von stohick and rhams it in Baptist faith. Who shall say that membersof Congress are beyond all hope ?"

22 Ledies, whose husbands have a liabis of snoring, will be gratified to learn that a man in Springfield has invented an appararescue, and by well directed efforts, eased tus, upon which he has the caveat, which is the anapper inspector of his nasal appendage | designed as a certain remedy. It fastens upon the mouth a gutta percha tule leading to the tympanum of the ear. Whenever the anorer anores, he himself receives the first impression, and if he be a sensible man or woman-quits.

The Riflemen of the Tyrol.-Many of the letters from the seat of war in Italy, note the his home not far distant, to ruminate over skill of the Tyrolese riflemen in the Austrian army. They annoy the French exceedingly, and pick off men at an almost incredible distance, where they were considered safe from the reach of even the longest range of smell

A High Estimate. - What does the reader the erection of a new fence in front of his think of the "scandalous" editor who could mansion, on Mary street, in this city. On give this answer to a correspondent! "JENNIE. one of the posts is the following, in manu- Ministers are not more addicted to dissipation than the men of other professions. The proposed fence is to be 60 feet long, few of the Kalloch type take gin toddies and

"Messrs. Fish & Engs furnish the lumber. Why don't you wheel that harrow of 'I hope this will be satisfactory to the coals, Ned?" said a learned miner to his son; it is not a very hard job; there is an inclined plane to relieve you."
"Ah!" replied Ned, who had more relish for wit than work, "the plane may be inclined, but hang me if I am."

> An old soldier, whose nose had been cropped off by a sabre cut, happened to give a few cents to a beggar, who exclaimed in return, "God preserve your eyesight"-'Why so?" inquired the veteran. Ah! my dear, how came you so wet?"

inquired an affectionate mother of her son. Why, ma, one of the boys said I darsent jump into the creek, and by gosh, I tell you I am't to be dared. An Old Offender .- Wiley Smith, an old soldier of 1812, seventy years old, was col-victed in Washington, N. C., last week of kil-ling his brother, and sentenced to a fine and six months' imprisonment. A certain Mr. Brown, residing in Lancaster county, Ps., attempted to cut his throat on Sunday, with a broad axe, but the axe was too dull to make a good job of it. A correspondent of the New York Courier says, "It is believed that such a flect never swam as England will have affeut before the last of the present month.

Prof. Agassis has toesived a butterfly which measures ten inches, from tip to tip of its wings. The University of North Carolina at its late commencement, conferred the hono-rary degree of L. L. D., on President Bu-During a period of 27 successive years, ending 1850, not a lawsuit occurred in the populous town of Hancock, N. H. James Williams, an African, died in Augusta, May 11, at the remarkable ago of

The editor of the Pittsburg Chronicle the old woman who opens the pews ference; and well-like 19 milly religious to our church says, she used to have only to west but what you one hundred and Afteen years.