

THE COMPILER. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 20, 1859.

For Author General. RICHARDSON L. WRIGHT, of Philadelphia. For Editor General. JOHN BOWEN, of Franklin county.

News, etc. The letter from Europe, on our first page, will be found very interesting.

Ripe peaches have made their appearance in Warrenham. They were raised in Burke county, Ga.

Dr. Beecher says: "Never chase a He. Let it alone, and it will run to death."

The Portsmouth Transcript says President Buchanan will visit Old Point during the summer.

A child of Peter Reiger, residing in Allegheny county, Pa., was bitten by a rat in two places, on the 24th inst., while lying in the cradle, and died from the effects on the 26th inst.

Bear is said that while "the price of the Compiler is only $1.75, if paid in advance. While you enjoy the liberty of which all Americans are so justly proud, why deny yourselves the privilege of reading the Compiler."

On the 8th ult., Dr. Irwin, U. S. A., of Fort Buchanan, killed two antelopes at a single shot, with a Colt's carbine, the distance being over three hundred yards.

Two barrels of cucumbers, the first of the season, were sold at Portsmouth, on Tuesday, for $20 per barrel, and shipped to Baltimore.

The Vicksburg Whig says that on the plantation of Mr. Samuel Garvin, near that city, a stalk of corn may be seen over 11 feet high.

St. Louis, June 9th.—At the sale of premium tobacco at the Planter's warehouse to-day, the first premium of $75 for manufacturing leaf was awarded to Addison Finley, of Pike county, Missouri.

Last week an elderly man was brought as a convict to the Kentucky State penitentiary, whose six sons were already in that institution as convicts.

It is said that there are several young Americans in Paris—mere boys—who spend $100 a day in fast living.

The finest steambath in the world is said to be the "Commonwealth," of the Norwich and Worcester line from New York to Boston and White Mountains.

It is said that common table salt and pulverized alum will drive the tooth-ache out of the mouths of men, women and well behaved children.

One of our exchanges says: "It is a popular idea that courtship is the consequence of original sin." We don't know how that may be, but it is plain enough that a good deal of original sin is the consequence of courtship.

It was a smart boy who owned up that he liked everything good, but a good whipping. The same boy liked a good rainy day, too, rainy day to go to school, and just about rainy enough to go fishing.

Some writers say marriage is like eating an onion—you shed tears and eat again.

A young lady was recently refused a teacher's certificate by the New York Commissioners because she declined to pledge herself not to dance while she taught school.

At Greenburg, Indiana, a few days ago, a child died, apparently, and its coffin was ordered, but by some accident was delayed a few hours, during which time the child revived and is now entirely well.

Opposition Bolting in Ohio! The chances of the mongrel Opposition are becoming smaller by degrees and beneficially less.

It is important for every young man to stand right in politics as well as in other matters. Those who join the Democracy, connect themselves with a permanent organization.

Not Harmonious. The Oppositionists, alias Abolitionists and Know Nothings, don't appear to have had a very harmonious time of it in their State Convention at Harrisburg, on the 4th inst.

The Correspondent of the New York Herald writes: The Convention then adjourned half an hour, to give the Committee time to report a platform.

The Unnatural Parent. The Black Republican party, says the Doylston Standard, since the adoption of the two years' proscriptive act in Massachusetts, remind us in their treatment of their own enactment of a young girl, who having made a mistake, loomed a mother without being made a wife.

What is Black Republicanism? Those who may desire an answer to the above interrogatory are referred to Massachusetts, the blackest of the Black Republican States—the State which in 1836 gave Fremont nearly double as many votes as Buchanan and Fillmore together.

Look Out for a Great Battle. Tuesday last was the 50th anniversary of the battle of Messauge, and as Louis Napoleon is fond of anniversaries, it will not surprise us to learn that the proper time from Europe that he sought Tuesday for a conflict with the Austrians.

Some Storm at Niagara Falls. The Niagara Falls Gazette says that snow fell in great flakes at the falls on Friday last, "reminiscent of the winter season."

Young Man, Attach Yourself to the Democracy. It is important for every young man to stand right in politics as well as in other matters.

Union of the Party. The Opposition may creak and rejoice as much as they please, which is only a prelude of keeping their courage up above freezing point—nothing is now pretty certain, and that if, the success of the Democratic ticket next fall, we see evidence in all sections of a determination on the part of the Democracy to heal their divisions, and settle all mere personal difficulties, unite once more, the great party of the Union, had it together, as with hooks of steel, and make early preparation for the great contest of 1860.

Public Opinion. Public indignation meetings are being held in different parts of Ohio, to pass opinion upon the repudiation of Chief Justice Swann by the Republican State Convention, on account of his decision in the Oberlin Rescue case.

The Naturalization Question.—A series of resolutions was next introduced, condemning the naturalization law lately adopted by Massachusetts. Mr. Campbell suggested that that question had better not be disturbed at this time.

A few days ago a girl only seven years of age fell into a well in Buffalo. The well is sixteen feet deep, and contains five feet of water. The child went to the bottom, striking her head with some force upon the stones.

Lauer's Artesian Well, at Reading, after attaining a depth of 750 feet, has struck upon a vein of carbonate of lime mixed with sand. The result is a supply of pure soda water, which is now being analyzed and may prove a valuable discovery.

The Senior of the Bellefonte Watchman has done a new title, which the junior describes as a bluish, bell-crowned, store-pipe article—an excellent institution in which to stow away ground nuts and gingerbread.

A boy employed as a mail carrier in the northern part of Indiana has been sentenced at Indianapolis to two years' imprisonment in the penitentiary for abstracting one dollar from a letter which he opened without authority.

Trouble in the Ohio Opposition Camp. There was anything but harmony in the recent Opposition State Convention in Ohio, and great difficulty was experienced in bringing about even a moderate degree of good feeling.
