"Baly and the War of 1859."—This hand-mome volume, written by Madame Julie de Marguerittes, and suitably illustrated with Maps and Portraits, has just been published by G. G. Kyans (the original Gift Book pub-lisher), of Philadelphia, at the low price of $1 25 and is as well timed as it is well exe-ented. The design is to show Italy in her fust and Present, so that the reader may un-derstand on what grounds she bases her ex-pectancy of a glorious Future; with this view the author, who has traveled largely through Europe, and has resided for a considerable pe-riod in Milan, and visits to the other grant clitter of Italy, describes places with which she is ac-quainted, and personages whom she intimately knew. The receipts on the last day, when sale at the Stove Ware Room of "Israel in Egypt" was given, amounted to very nearly eighty thousand dollars. This, course, is entirely without precedent in the history of public performances.

A Toast .-- At the late celebration in Ellington, Conn., the following was the 13th regular toast : "Woman—the lover of union and the friend of annexation. Like our country, her manifest destiny is to spread her skirts."

The above tonst was responded to by nine cheers and a whoop !
