ADVERTISEMENTS inserted at the usual rates Jon PRINTING done with neatness and dis-

Orrice in South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wamplers' Tinning Establishment-"Complexe" on the sign.

Dr. A. W. Dorsey,

WRMERLY of Carroll county, Md., having PORMERLY of Carron county, permanently located in Gettysburg, offers to the citizens of the his professional services to the citizens of the town and surrounding country in theoractice of the various branches of his profession. Other and residence, Baltimore street, next door to The Compiler office, where he may be found at all times when not professionally engaged.

Prof. Nathan R. Smith, Baltimore, Md. Rev. Augustus Webster, D. D., Baltimore Md Dr. J. L. Warfield, Westminster, Md. Dr. W. A. Mathias, Jacob Reese, Esq., " John K. Longwell, Esq., " tico. E. Wampler, Esq., Rev. Thomas Bowen, Gettysburg.

Oct. 25, 1858. 6m

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D. AS his office one door west of the Lutheran church in Chambersburg street, and opposite Picking's store, where those wishing to have any Dental Operation performed are respectfully invited to call. REFERENCES: Drs. Horner, Rev. C. P. Kranth, D. D., Rev. H. L. Baugher, D. D., Rev.

Prof. M. Jacobs, Prof. M. L. Stever.

Gettysburg, April 11, 53.

the Sentinel office.

Gettysburg, August 22, '53.

J. C. Neely, A TTORNEY AT LAW, will attend to collections and all other business intrusted to his care with promptness. Office nearly opposite Falmestock's Store, Baltimore street. Gettysburg, April 11, 1859. tf Wm. B. McClellan, A TTORNEY AT LAW.—Other on the south WEAR, of every description, consisting of Cloths, side of the public square, 2 doors west of Cassimeres, Casinetts, Coatings, Vestings, &c.,

Edward B. Bushler. A TTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted of J. C. Quinn & Bro. Believing that the public can suit themselves better here than else Office at the same place, in South Bultimore where, we invite them to give us a call. For street, near Forney's drug store, and nearly the proof of our assertion, eatl and examine our facely and proof of our assertion and proof of our assertion and facely as facely as a facely of the proof of our assertion and facely as facely as a facely as a facely of the proof of our assertion and facely as a facely of the proof of our assertion and facely as facely as a facely of the proof of our assertion and facely of the proof of our assertion and facely our assertion and facely of the proof of our assertion and facely our assertion as a facely of the proof of our assertion and facely our assertio opposite Danner & Ziegler's store. Gettysburg, March 20.

D. McConaughy,

TTORNEY AT LAW, (office one door west of Buchler's drug and book store, Chambersburg street.) ATTORNEY AND SOLICITOR FOR other claims against the Government at Washington, D. C.; also American Claims in England. Land Warrants located and sold or house. highest prices given. Agents engaged in locating warrants in lowa, Illinois and other western States. Apply to him personally Junction with Mail train to Baltimore at 3.37, re-Gettysburg, Nov. 21, '53.

New Livery

STABLISHMENT. — CHARLES
M. TATE has opened a new Livery establishment, at the stables on Washington street, occupied in part by the "Eagle Hotel," and his made such arrangements as will enable him to accommodate th public at all times, on reasonable terms, with Horses, Buggies, Hacks, &c. His stock is good. On fureral occasions, &c., he will be able to supply a want which has been much needel. forms CASH. [May 24, '58.

Groceries,

MITHOLESALE AND RETAIL.-Molusses sack, and all kinds of Groceries, either by the quantity or in small amounts, at prices that defy competition. Call at once at FAHNESTOCK BROS'.

Wood-land

T PRIVATE SALE.—I will sell at private sale 52 ACRES OF LAND, on the banks of which is heavily timbered. If not sold prior to the first day of July it will then be laid out in lots to suit purchasers and sold at public sale. GEO. ARNOLD.

Wall Paper.

P. McILHENNY respectfull 'nvites the 'the cheap and fashionable store of B. F. McIL-attention of the public to his large stock HENY, at the N. E. Corner of Centre Square, Or Wall Paper, and announces to his friends. to have on hand a full and complete line of samples from 8 cents up to 50 cents a roll-so that persons failing to be suited with his large and be furnished with paper at any price and in any quantity on two or three days notice.

Globe Inn.

MECHANICSTOWN, Frederick county, Md.— Having been renovated and re-furnished, e proprietor a sures the public that a call is only needed, as he guarantees full satisfaction in every case. Charges moderate.
HENRY HERR, Proprietor.

Feb. 14, 1859. tf Marble Yard Removed.

TIME subscriber having removed his place of business to East York street, a short dis-tance below St. James' Church, would announce to the public that he is still prepared to furnish all kinds of work in his line, such as Monuements, Headstones, &c., &c , of every variety of style and finish, with and without bases and sockets, to suit purchasers, and at prices to suit the times. Persons desiring anything in his line will find it a decided advantage to examine his stock and prices before purchasing elsewhere. WM. B. MEALS. Gettysburg, March 21, 1859.

Lace Caps, MANTILLAS, &C.—Another new arrival purchased at Another purchased at Auction at reduced prices ad which will be sold at rates that defy compe tition. Our stock of Caps and Mantillas is the largest ever kept in the county, and for styles and cheapness, it only requires an examination to induce those wishing the article to purchase. A large and general assortment of all kinds of Ladies' Dress Goods always on hand, to which we are constantly making additions.
FAHNESTOCK BROTHERS,

Sign of the Red Front. New Goods.

GEORGE ARNOLD has just received and is now opening the largest and most beautiful assortment of LADIES' DRESS GOODS tha has been offered to the public at any time Also, a lot of beautiful Fancy Bonnets, Bonnet Trimmings, Shawls, Hosiery, Gloves, &c., &c.-A large stock of Gentlemen's Dress Goods READY-MADE CLOTHING, &c., all of which have been bought low for cash and will be sold cheap. All persons are invited to call-the ladies' attention is particularly invited to my stock of Dress Goods, which for beauty of style

Here We Are Again! UST from the city with the best and cheap-est assortment of SYBUPS and MOLASSES that we have yet offered, calculated to please all persons in quality and prices; BUGARS, a very large stock, low; COPPEES, TRAS, Choco-late Rice. Cheese Science (all best Constant) late, Rice, Cheese, Spices, (all kinds,) Crackers and Tea Cakes, Vinegar, Pickles, Sugar-dured HARS and SHOULDERS, Lard, Shad, Mackerel and Herrings, Salt, Cedar-ware, Tubs, Buckets, &c.; Baskets, Flour Seives, Brooms, Brushes, Ac.; Baskets, Flour Selves, Brooms, Brushes, Ac.; all kinds of Coffiage, Concentrated Lys: Extra and Superfine PLOUR, all kinds of Feed; Potatoes, Fresh Batto and Eggs constantly of hand; Fanoy Goods, Confectionaries, and Frank. Give us a call. It affords us pleasure to show our large and lariting stock. NORBECK & MARTIN. Gettysburg, May 56, 1855.

COMPIER

Democratic, Jews and Family Journal.

BY H. J. STAILE.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAIL."

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

41st YEAR.

A Word to the Wise!

DON'T FAIL to call and see SAMSON'S New Goods-a large and splendid assortment ing Goods—an extensive lot of all kinds of HATS, BOOTS SHOES and GAITERS—an unrivalic I assortment of TRUNKS and CARPET SACKS, some very handsome and new styles.—Also, a large and splended variety of Setts, worl to the wise is sufficient.

Those who wish to buy to sell again will do well by calling, as I can and will sell them goods cheaper than they can buy them in the city.

Railroad Store.

C. GUINN & BRO, have just received and are opening at their new store on the North-west corner of Centre Square, Gettysburg.

a large and complete assortment of Spring and Summer Goods and Groceries. The ladies particularly are invited to call and examine our superior styles of Dress Goods and Fancy articles, embracing everything coming properly under this head at prices not heretofore equalled, and in quality surpassed by none. GENTLEMEN'S which cannot be surpassed out of the city in quality and price.

Our stock of Groceries is also complete, while every other article generally found in a Dry Goods store can be had at the "Railroad Store" stock, even if you don't buy. [April 4, 1859.

Change of Hours

ON THE GETTYSBURG RAILROAD!—
Su nmer Arrangement.—On and after Thursday, April 21st, the MORNING TRAIN will leave THE GETTYSBURG RAILROAD!-

Gettysburg at 6.30 o'clock A. M., connecting at Hanover Junction with Express train to Balti-

The AFTERNOON TRAIN will leave Gettys

By the above arrangement passengers can go either North or South on the Northern Central Railway both morning and afternoon.

R. M'CURDY, President.

Farmers' & Mechanics'

ceive interest at the rate of from two to four per cent. This institution offers a safe, convenient and profitable depository to all classes of people.

Removal.

The Latest News!

FINIR latest news, in which all are interested

Gettysburg. His stock of Hats is very exten

Shoes, Ladies and Children's Shoes and Gaiters of every style. The public is very respectfully

What Everybody Wants.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR: containing in plain language, free from medical terms, the AUSES, SYMPTOMS and CURE of disease in the Sick .- This book is written in a plain, easy and familiar style, adapted expressly to family and individual use. It advocates no particular or the Minerals of Earth, for such Remedies as some form, mercifully placed a Specific. Neither does it profess to supercede the physician, but ing him in except in dangerous cases. It is in ready to serve you, while its simple receipt may type, is illustrated by appropriate engravings, and will be forwarded to your address, postage paid and neatly bound, on receipts of the price

Agents wanted everywhere, who will find it

No. 917 Sansom St., Philadelphia, Pa.

very popular, and with whom liberal arrange-

Willoughby's

PLEBRATED GUMSPRING GRAIN DRILL

manufactured and for sale in the counties above counties. Orders for these Drills will be they may be purchased of our Travelling Agents

Orders addressed to us, at Carlisle, will receive prompt attention. Farmers are invited to examine the Willoughby Drill, which took the First Premium at the various State Fairs last full. Several of them may now be seen but the

The above Drills are also sold in Adams tounty by ROBERT S. PAXTON, (agent for Daniel Strock, who manufactures them,) at lect-tysburg, Fairfield and other places in the county. May 16, 1859. 3m above Agricultural Warehouse. Price $10 cash

ments will be made Address,
JOHN E. POTTER, Publisher,

It contains 308 pages, in a clear and open soon save you many times its cost.

$1 00. Everybody should have it.

July 4, 1859. 6m

only to avoid the necessity and expense of call-

April 18, 1859.

burg at 1 o'clock, P. M., connecting at Hanover and the North and West.

April 25, 1859.

July 4, 1359.

April 18, 1859.

MEN S AND BOY'S CLOTHING and Furnish-

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, AUG. 8, 1859.

Poet's Corner.

"BRA WOMAN."

There is so much that is appropriately suggested in the following lines, that we cannot resist the temptation to insert them. Although some of our fair friends may turn up their dainty noses in derision, there are many, and by far the larger portion, who will thank us Brust Pins and Ear Rings; WATCHES, MUSI-CAL INSTRUMENTS, &c. &c. A very hand-some and new style RAILROAD TRAVELLING BAG. In short, everything in his line. Atter all said and done, SAMSON'S IS THE SPOT to buy your goods at the right prices. A

Oft I've heard a gentle mother, As the twikeht hours began,

Pleading with a son on duty, Urging him to be a man, But unto her blue-cycd daughter, Though with love's words quite as ready, Points she out the other duty, "Strive, my dear, to be a hely!"

What's a lady? Is it something Made of hoops, and silks, and airs, Used to decorate the parlor, Like the fancy rugs and chairs? Is it one that wastes on novels

Every feeling that is human? If 'tis this to be a lady,
'Tis pot this to be a woman. Mother, then, unto your daughter

Speak of something higher far Than to be mere fushion's lady — "Woman" is the brightest star. If ye, in your strong affection, Urge your son to be a true man,

Urge your daughter no less strongly To rice up and be a woman. Yes, a woman—brightest model
Of that light and perfect beauty;
There the mind, and soul, and body,
Blend to work out life's great duty—

Be a woman—naught is higher On the gilded list of fame; On the catalogue of virtue There's no brighter, holier name.

Be a woman—on to duty, Raise the world from all that's low, Place high in the social heaven Virtue's fair and radiant bow! Lend thy influence to each effort That shall raise our nature human :

Be not fashion's gilded lady, Be a brave, true, whole-souled woman.

Miscellaneous.

Who Offers?

turning to Gettysburg about 6.30 P. M., with I am just twenty, but will not marry before passengers from York, Harrisburg, Philadelphia, I am two years older. I am a graduate of Marietta Seminary. I can do, and love to do, all manner of house-work, from making pies and bread to washing shirts; I can do all kinds of sewing, from embroidery to linsey pantaloons; I enn skate, ride, sing, play on the piano or spinning-wheel, or anything that may reasonably be expected of my sex. If required I can act the part of a dunce in the society of the "upper ten," or the part of a woman among women. As for riding, here allow me to make a baster: any man may bring two horses, give me chains and all the folks inside the omnibus laughed as he drove eff. SAVINGS INSTITUTION OF ADAMS COUNTY - Wealth comes by Saving.—Deposite your surplus funds in this Institution and re-

I am his; if not, the horse is mine. Beware. around.
I am a believer in hydropathy, and use no THE subscriber has removed his Plough It is subscriber has removed the Foundry if he desires. I believe in "woman's rights," ing down building to Railroad street, opposite Tate's but believe I have no right to meddle with Blacksmith shop, back of the Eagle Hotel, politics, or men's business in general—neither where he is better prepared than ever to attend to customers. Ploughs always on hand As for appearance, I am neither tall nor and made to order at the shortest notice, and short; large nor small, but I am just as I was sale 52 ACRES OF LAND, on the banks of Machinet, Reapors, &c., repaired. Also he shape or color, as I am perfectly satisfied nich is heavily timbered. If not sold prior to May 10. DAVID WARREN. with the same. By fops I am styled handsome, by the young men on whom I please to smile, I am styled the height of perfection; by those I from upon; "the devil's imp;" by the wise and sober I am called wild and foolis the arrival of a very large and superior stock of HATS, CAPS, BOOTS & SHOES, at ish; by my female acquaintances, "Molly," and by my uncle, "Tom." If I marry, it will be a man who uses no spirits, tolacco or profitity. He may be young or old, handsome or homely, rich or sive, comprising all the various styles of Silk Hats, Gent's black and colored Soft Dress Hats, poor, but not in the extreme. He must have Men's Russia Hats, (broad-rim,) and all kinds a good common education at least. He must of Men's and Boy's Slouch Hats and Caps, of he industrious; he must be empable of bearstock on hand, can select from his sample book the most fashionable styles—all of which are and be furnished with paper at any price and unsurpassed for beauty of style and elegance of by all; his disposition on after acquaintance finish. BOOTS AND BHOES.—He has also re-ceived a very large assortment of Boots and Shoes, consisting of Men's French Calf Boots, Men's French Calf Congress Gaiters, Patent must please in every-corpect. He, after mar-riage, must allow me to follow the dictates of my own conscience, provided I do not tram-ple on his rights, and he must follow suit. Leather Guiters and Pomps, Oxford Ties and all MARY JINKS. kinds of Men's and Boy's Dress and Coarse invited to call and examine these goods before Last Sabbath was Quarterly Meeting in the purchasing elsewhere, as it will certainly be to M. E. Church, and, as usual on such occasions, the Sacrament was administered. After the meeting adjourned, the members went their several ways, some to dine with friends in town, soine to their homes in the country. In about an hour the doctors were in requisition in every direction; the whole membership every form, with important RULES FOR PRE- | was seized with a simultaneous "billious at SERVING THE HEALTH, and Directions for tack," and the defined for remedial agents the Sick Chamber, and the Proper Treatment of was general. The first smell of the samptuous diguera prepared provoked sudden and involuntary erustation on the part of all the orthodox members of the respective families The tenerable Peter Cartwright, Presiding theory of medicine, but draws alike from the Elder, for whom preparations had, of course Flowers of the Field, the Plants of the Garden, been made, retired from the prospect as dinhave proved the most simple, safe, and effectual, ner came on, a little bent over, with both believing that wherever disease has found a hands placed below the vest buttons, declarfoothold there the Giver of all Good has, in ling that "he didn't feel like enting." One brother is said to have made for his house. half bent, and with a groan, tumbled on to the bed, and in reply to his wife's "What's the matter?" exclaimed in a despairing tone, fact a physician itself, always at hand and 'Oh, I've got the cholera." The epidemic spread all through the country, exciting considerable alarm, and occasioning a general casting up of accounts. But the panic subsaled when it was succertained that antimonial time had been, by mistake, administered to the whole body of communicants? We un-derstand that "Uncle Peter" said "It was the first time he ever knew an attempt to vomit the devil out of the church." Although it was a serious matter, the sinners, owing to the hardness of their hearts, did laugh .- Winchester (III.) Chronicle, July 16. What is fame? What is fortune?-

A Church Soized with a Billious Attack.

Nicholas Longworth, the "Crossus" of Cincinnati, worth in money from $5,000,000 to of Cumberland, Adams, York and Perry, by F. $6,000,000, while sitting the other day, on GARDNER & CO., Carlisle, agents for the the steps of a drinking-house, with his hat between his knees, waiting for a friend, was received at the Agricultural Warehouse of the recipient of twenty-five cents from a Messis. Sheads, Buchler & Kurtz, Gettysburg, or pagaing contleman, who mistook him for a passing gentleman, who mistook him for a beggar L

> An Irish jockey once selling a nag to a gentleman frequently observed with emphatic earnestness, that he was an honest horse .-After the purchase the gentleman asked him what he meant by an honest horse. "Why, sir," replied the seller, "whenever I rode him ha ciways threatened to throw me, and he certainly never descived me."

A writer in All the Year Round de scribes gout thus: "Put your toe in a vice; turn the screw till you can bear the pain no longer-that's rheumatical. Givente screw

My First Visit to New York.

Having come to a good understanding about breakfast, bills of fare, and things in general about the Astor, said Mr. Philikins, I told the clerk I wanted to see Broadway, and asked him to tell me where I should go to look for it. "Right in front of the Hetel," says he.

"Why," says I, "you don't mean to say that narrow street out there in front of the house is Broadway, do you?"

"I do," says he,
"Well," says I, "then suppose it is, and all I have to say is, I'm disappointed. I expected to find Broadway a wide street, which it would take a spy-glass to look across; but this is nothing; I've seen wider streets than these in Chicago."

The clerk said he was sorry Broadway-did opinions get out, as it might make the inhab-itants feel bad. He said if I would keep still, he'd speak to the Mayor at the first opportunity. I promised secrecy, shook hands with him, and set out to see what could be seen. As I went down the front stops inside, mot a gentleman and bowed to him, as we al-you don't give me hack my money, I'll take you do to strangers, where I live: but he it out on the sidewalk and dash it into a thouways do to strangers, where I live; but he it out on the took ne notice of me at all. Thinks I you're sand pieces!" an ill-bred fellow, anyhow, with all your

and I resolved not to low to another soul un-less I was bowed to first.

I sauntered along down Broadway, looking at the signs and shop windows, when suddenat the signs and shop windows, when suddenly a chap driving an omnibus beckoned to nie. Hello, thinks I, here's an old acquaintunce, but on looking at him closely I didn't recognize him. He kept motioning to me, however, and looking at me for a long time. I hadn't gone it rod before another chap motioned to me, and then another, who was driving down street, Leckoned to me, too. I thought some of them must know me and so I went up to one to see what it meant.

my purse with me, so I could buy it; I'd have it, sure." Thinks I, that gentleman knows all about it, so there's no danger. I'll get it and one to see what it meant.

As he saw me coming he pulled up his horses, and says I, Well, neighbor, how are you? Where have we seen each other be-"Ride up?" says lie.

"How?" says I.
"Ride up?" says he, "right away, up Broadway !" "No," says I, "I don't want to ride up Broadway; I'm going t'other way." "What did you stop the 'bus for, then?"

said he. "I didn't stop it; you stopped it yourself, I replied; and what's more, you stopped me, too. You beckoned to me, and I thought you knew me, or wanted to say something."

bring two horses, give me choice and ten freet, and then if he overtakes me in one mile free plug, on which I set down to rest and look

I am his; if not, the horse is mine. Beware.

I am a believer in hydropathy, and use no the core office, neither do I wear corrects; but I am willing that my husband shall do either.

I am willing that my husband shall do either. ing down there, and that the people were her pig on Judgment day, what account will going home to breakfast; so I'd wait till they you be able to give for yourself, when the got past.

But they kept coming thicker and thicker; so thinks I they have a revival down at the church, and I'll go down and see how they nre getting along, and give them some real Kentucky revival hymns, on the regular hallelujah order.
So I went along dywn. Before I got to the church, I saw a chap standing on the side-walk with a stick on his shoulder; an the top in my curiosity to penetrate the mysteries of n Mock Auction, I forgot the revival at the big charch. chap with the big board was standing, and looked in.

A young man was selling all sorts of valuable articles. Right next door another man was selling things too; and is occurred to me that he had got that-chap with the hig board to stand before the first man's door so as to injure his business. This struck me as being real mean my sympathics were touched; my Kentucky grit began to ferment, and I Retermined to patronize the injured party; for you know a Kentuckian always goes in for fair play, and no favore asked.

While I stood thinking over the matter, the man who; was selling watches, (the "injured party") happened to see me, and immediately bowed to me in a very polite manner. That was the first bow I'd received in New York, and it had upon me a most gratifying effect. Says I'to myself, I've found a gentleman at last who is no upstart, who understands the usuges of polito society. I returned his bow, and he then politely asked me to walk in, which I did. Just as I stepped in, he bid off a handsom gold watch for $15. Bless my soul, thinks I, what a fool I was, not to bid on that! I might then have a nice gold watch to take home to my wife, and how proud she would have been i So, says I, neighbor, have you any more

"Yes, sir." he answered, "here's a splendid gold watch and chain, left for sale by a young gentleman from Cuba, who is out of money and must sell at some price. I hope gentle men will bid liberally, for the gentleman is very worthy and in great need."

The folks began to bid. "Three dollars. says one, "five dollars," says another. Thinks I, that's darned mean to take advantage of poor fellow that way; so says I, "eighteen dollars." I suppose that rather frightened the company, for after that nobody else bid a cent, and the watch was knocked down to me. The man who sold it then went to the other end of the counter, telling me to pay the money to another man who was sitting at the desk with a big account book open be fore him. I paid the money, and then went to the other end of the room for my watch When the purispeer handed it to me, it didn's look like the one that I bid for, and on examining it closely, I saw it was nothing but copper! So says !—
"See here, stranger, this watch is nothing but copper, and I bought a gold watch.
"I didn't warrant it gold," said he.
"Well, I don't care what you scarranted it for; you sold it for a gold watch, and it is a gold; so just give me back my money." "I have no authority to return money any one, else I should be happy to accommodate you; you must speak to the cashier, to whom you paid your maney." I then asked the eashier for my meney, but he said he had no authority te return or pay out money either. I asked him who had authority then to give me back my money. He said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the establishment had authority the said no one in the said SHOVELS, FORKS & HOES.—A large lot longer—that's rhematimat. Givenhe earew one in the establishment had authority to pay out money under any directive of the pay out money under any directive one one one to the establishment as vacuum.

Solution of the establishment as produced by the evaporal ty to pay out money under the red enough of the interest of the money under the red enough of the establishment as a good looking (a) last.

Solution of the establishment as produced by the evaporal ty to pay out money under the red enough of the establishment as a solution.

Solution of the establishment as produced by the evaporal ty to pay out money under the red enough of the red enough of the establishment as a solution.

Solution of the establishment as a solution of the establish one connected with it could receive money, but no one could pay it out; and these rule he said, were always strictly enforced. Well said I, you're a darned pretty set; I never heard of such a system before; I shant stand it. The fact is, my Kentucky dander ris just about this time, and I determined to whip the rascal, if he did not give me back my money; but before I could get to him, a shap, who said he was a policeman, told me confidentially that if I made a disturbance, he should be bliged to take me to the Tombs. This put have gone there for a dozen watches. So I thought I'd coax him to give me back my money, but he wouldn't listen to me at all. I looked at the watch. It was just about the meanest looking thing that ever ticked; not suit me, and hoped I wouldn't let, my and thinks I, shall I give such a thing to my wife? I couldn't stand the thought. What! take a copper watch home as a present to my wife? to the mother of my children? I just took the thing by the chain, and says I—"See here, do you suppose I'll take such a watch home to my wifes. No, sir. Now, if

"Oh!" says he, "it was a lady's watch you clothes. At the foot of the stairs I met another man and bowed to him. He gave me a saucy stare and passed on. Well, says I to myself, if that is the game here in New York I can play at it with the table of its gamineness. York, I can play at it with the best of you; of its genuinchess; there will be no chest about the watch.".

"Oh, that shall count on the other. I'll take the copper watch back."

Well, thinks I, I'll save my $18 any how, so I took hold of the one he showed me and examined it carefully. While I was inspecting it I heard a gentleman behind me ray, in a whisper to a friend, "Isn't that a splendid watch! it's worth at least $150; I wish I had no chent.

We began to bid, and every one accomed to want the watch, for they all bid freely. It fan up to $118, and I got it. Now thinks I, here's a present fit for a wife; won't she be proud? I handed over the copper watch and $1(x), and left.

The next day I thought I'd at a jeweler what my watch was worth, and don't you lelieve that turned out to be a copper one, too? I started to the Mock Auction store at onco, but I couldn't find it. It was changed into a cigar store.

That was what I got by not going to that revival meeting, as I ought to have done.

There's Your Pig. "Patrick, the widow Molony tells me that you have stolen one of her finest pigs. Is that so ?" "Yes, yer honor!" "What have you done with it?"

"Killed it and ate it, yer honor!" "Oh. Patrick! Patrick! when you are brought face to face with the widow an

"Did you say the pig would be there, your riverence ?" "To be sure I did!"

Molony, there's your pig!"

Worth Knowing. A Philadelpia paper states that a young lady walk with a stick on his shoulder; an the top of that city, while in the country, stepped on cook was a big board; on this board was a reasy nail, which ran through her shoe into a wooden bowl, or any suitable versel, and written, in big black letters,

"Strangers, Beware of Mock Auctions!" great, and lock jaw was apprehended. A friend of the family recommended the appli-Thinks I, what is a Mock Auction? This friend of the family recommended the appli- Now let the operator hold his hand in water is something new; I must look into it; and cation of a beet, taken from the garden and as hot as can be porne for a few seconds, pounded fine, to the wound. It was done, then pleage it in sold water for about a minand the effect was very beneficial. Soon the late, and at once commence to agitate the inflammation began to aubeide, and by keep-I walked up to the house before which the ling on the fresh bect, and changing it for a tresh one as its virtue seemed to become impaired, a speedy care was effected. Simple and effectual remodics like this should be known to every one. In a Pretty Fix.-A lady and gentleman is this vicinity, chancing to be bathing an natural, but unseen by each other, being separated by a ledge of rocks, a mischievious boy ex-changed one pile of clothing for the other.— Their perplexity and embarrassment on emerging from the water may be better imagined than described; but, seeing no other alterna-tive, the lady donned the male and the gentioman the female apparel, hoops and we're rything." and made their way to their homes in that guise. - New Haven News.

They speak of a man in Maine who is trong enough to lift a harrel of park with his teeth. This is not remarkable. a man—an aged one, two— who has lifted several barrels of pork, with his teeth.

We know a more remarkable person than either of them. He is of unbounded stomach -has been known to swallow one hundred and sixty acres of land, with all the improve ments, four three story brick bouses and a good-sixed country tavern-principally in bad Thiskey.

A letter writer says:-" In Amsterdam saw a queer looking fellow walking around dressed in black, with a cocked hat on his read, from which crape dangled to his heels with short breeches, knee buckles and black stockings, and a short black coat, from the collar of which another roll of crape hung down to the ground. Upon inquiry, I discovered that he was a death announcer.'

Old Guzzle says if he could have his choice of three things, he should choose first, plenty of tobacco, secondly, a good stock of rum, thirdly, he should choose some more Rufus Chonte, the son of the late Rufus Charte, is described as the "worthy successor" of his distinguished sire. He graduated with honor at Amberst College in 1855, and was admitted to the bar about a year since.-His age is about 25.

At Oskalousa, Iowa, a young woman whose bushand came bome drunk the other day, took down the ox goad, and chastise him most gloriously—until he promised not to do so again: He laid the blame upon a friend who asked him to drink.—She whaled him again for not having stability to refuse. The next day she learned that it was a female that he had been drinking with at a dance house, when she gave him another lathering which so affected the poor fellow that he has not been seen in Oskaloods since.

A machine for the manufacture of ice is now in operation in London, which turns refrigeration is produced by the evaporation of ether in a vacuum.

The Mysterious Piano. Not long since I was invited to pay a visit damper on my combativeness, for I beard horrid stories about the Tombs, and wouldn't here, and said:

"C., do you hear that?"
"Hear what? I do not listen to people supposing she referred to Margaret and Fanny, who were in the other bed.

Some one is playing on the piano."
"Who can it be?" said Milly. "Why do you not lock it, Fanny, it is your place to do &c. We do not ask you to write for the

he came out with a light in his hand, when we formed a procession after him with chattering teeth, but withal eager faces, for our curiosity was stronger than our foar. We enter the parlor: sure enough the pinne is shut and locked, while the gamut is being played regularly and distinctly. The father asks for the key; all the girls sercam out at

It was easy to account for the ecenness of his playing, as he was too small to skip a note, and therefore touched every one.

To make Butter in Five Minutes without a Churn. A correspondent highly recommends the following recipe :- After straining the milk, set it away for about twelve hours, for the turbing it, on the stove, let it remain there until you observe the coating of cream on the surface assume a wrinkled appearance, but "Well, then, your riverence, I'll say Mrs. be the ease the eream will mix with the wolk being "hard"—nevertheless we atta it milk and carnot again be collected. Now for the novelty of the thing.—Norfolk (Va.) set it away till quite cold and then skim off Day Book. the cream, mixe I with as little milk as possi-ble. When sufficient cream is collected procream by a gentle circular motion. In five minutes, or less, the butter will have come, when, of course, it must be washed and salted according to taste ; and our correspondent > guarantees that no better butter can be made y the best churn ever invented. To those who keep only one cow, this method of making butter will be found really valuable; while quite as large a quantity of butter is obtained as by the common mode, the skim-milk is much sweeter and palarable. In summer season it will usually be found necessary to bring the cream out of the cellar (say a quarter of an hour before churning) to take the excessive chill off; in winter lace the vessel containing the cream over another containing water to warm it; then continue to agitate the cream until the chill is > Before washing the butter separate all the milk you possibly can, as the latter will be found excellent for tea-cakes. Butter made n this manner will be much firmer, and less oilly in hot weather than when made in the ordinary way.

A Young Woman Murdered in Cold Blood.
-Miss Melissa Morris, of Marshall county, Va., was murdered on Saturday week, near an orchard where she had been gathering apples. The supposed murderer is a man named Nathaniel Harten. The supposition is that Harten overtook her where she had sat down upon a log to rest, as the handkerchief which contained the apples was found lying on it. That her person had been outraged before she was murdered was also evident. The murder was murdered was also evident. The murder was committed by the side of the public road from which her body was dragged some twenty or thirty yards by the feet to a small run, in which it was found. The murder was committed by heavy blows of a stone or club about the head and breast. The side of her head was broken and one eye knocked out, pesides indications of a number of severe blows upon different parts of her person.

The Smoke of Battle .- Some of the Anstrians seem to have been particularly struck at seeing Zuraves come into action with their pipes in their mouths. The German's love r a pipe is of the number of calm delightsa thing to be appreciated when "he beside his cottage door is sitting in the sun"—but a pipe in battle! Innocent German! Incomprohensible Zonave!

Singular Coincidence .- On the whip Pomoa, wrecked some time since off the coast of Ireland, Mrs. Paxton and her children were ost. She was coming to this country to meet her husband, who was expected from Calcutta. It has been learned that on the very day hard for the admission of the latter live of his family's loss he died at Calcutts.

A aleepy deacon, who sometimes engaged in popular games, hearing the minister use the words, "shuffle off this mortal coil," started up, rubbed his eyes, and exclaimed, Hold ou! its my doub!"

Mithridates, king of Pontus, knew overy one of his eighty thousand soldiers by hope our triends in the country, out on the suggestions and keep us advised of that is going on in their district.

Everybody thinks the state matter to edit a paper. We are including told, by those who as the satisfied that it is not that a new paper absolute it. One would have it full of the was in precede; there is full of the world in the space of this or that is a third thinks politice a bore and would have none of it: a fourth would exclude all advertisements, and devote the space to the stories of ments, and devote the space to the stories of "Corn-Cobb," and Dr. Robinson, or other writers for the Ledger and the Mercury; a fifth insists that all "love stories" are insufferably stupid; a sixth thinks we do not pay enough attention to local nows, and tells us

The have never unticed the measure appeal or the manusch cabbage of his neighbor Jenkins —and so on to the end of fault adder's chapter. Now, we submit that it is impossible to please all these diverse tastes; and as the next best thing, after pleasing everybody, is to please one's self, we try to do that, and trust to luck for the balance. But there is one thing we could do, which would please a vare to some friends out of town. In the family majority of our roaders, and which we would were three young ladies, besides young child if we could receive the help necessary. dren. Being musical, we spent the greater part of the first evening of my visit singing and playing, and, at a proper hour retired for the night, as we supposed. As I was a great the night, as we supposed. As I was a great the night, as we supposed. As I was a great the night, as we supposed. As I was a great the night, as we supposed. As I was a great the night, as we supposed the night and favorite with all the girls, each one wanted to sleep with me, and to effect this, it was decided that inethed of going to my room, I should remain in their double-bedded room. Accordingly, instead of going to sleep, we lay and talked (as girls often do) some hours.—Milly touched me on the arm in the middle of a most interesting account I was giving her of the opers, and certain regular attendants there, and said:

Treceive the cordial halp of all our friends in the various townships. Matters are occurring every day in different parts of the country that possess a local interest all over it, which, if we could dress up for our columns, and thus give an interest heretofore unthought of. It is impossible for us to be everywhere—to be here, in our office, attending to our such that possess a local interest all over it, which, if we could dress up for our columns, and thus give an interest heretofore unthought of. It is impossible for us to be everywhere—to be here, in our office, attending to our file our ring every day in different parts of the country which, if we could be furnished the particulars, we could dress up for our columns, and the same time taking and columns are receive the cordial halp of all our friends in the various townships. Matters are occurring every day in different parts of the country which, if we could be furnished the particulars, we could dress up for our columns, and that are country when a country which, if we could dress up for our columns, and the country which, if we could dress up for our columns, and the country which, if we could be furnished the particulars, we could dress up for our columns, and the country which, if we could dress up for our columns, and the various townships. there, and said:
"C., do you hear that?"
"Ilear what? I do not listen to people when they are not talking to me," naturally supposing she referred to Margaret and Fanty who were in the other had. then be able each week to spread the same "There! now, girls, don't you hear it? before our readers. We think we hear seveme one is playing on the piano." eral who read this article respond, "Lut. I am not competent to write for the press," &c.. "Well," said Panny? "I did, and the key whenever anything new occurs in your noigh-borhood—and out of the information that turnished we will prepare it for the many first the present the present that the problem had the present the p This, of sourse, we would not believe. So, trembling from head to foot, she got up, dark as it was, found the dress, with the key in its pocket. All his while we heard the piano, sounding in simple scales from top to bottom. rice versa, but producing the most wonderful quality of tones, resembling those of a musical box more than anything else.

We had all heard of spirits, and were quite sure there were some in the house, for it was not probable that any of the children would be up at that hour of the night. So it was decided that we should hold each other by the hand, and go across the hall to the father's room. All this time the scales were being played on the piano, as if some one had been ordered to practice for an hour. We sneeveded in awakening Mr. W, and in a few minutes he came out with a light in his hand, when we formed a procession after him with chatty, testing tested by the without the help of the complaints, alluded to in this article, that too little atteraction is paid to the local affairs of the complaints, alluded to the local affairs of the coupty, testing tested by the without the help affairs of the complaints, alluded to in this article, that too little atteraction is paid to the local affairs of the coupty, testing tested by the without she without the help of a physician or the benefit of clergy, we want to know it, for of such paragraphs are newspapers made of such paragraphs are newspapers made of the complaints, alluded to in this article, that too little atteraction is paid to the local affairs of the coupty, the such that the procession after him with chatty.

Canino Undertaker.

"Don't open it; it must be spirits.

But Mr. W. does not believe in piano playing spirits and opens the instrument, while we are all huddled together, and he exclaims:

"Goodwar me, it's a mouse!"

Another kitten was procured; and for the little animal, but no use, inquisey had practised his lesson and gone.

It was easy to account for the little animal between the control of the carden. A string his lesson and gone. and the acquaintance of the dog soon became familiar. One day the dog was found in the garden with this kitten, and he had dug a large hole and placed the live kitten in it, and was about proceeding to cover it with earth when he was discovered by his owner. An Egg Cooked in the Sun .- The thermometer ranged as high as 90 deg. in the shade during a part of vesterday. If we high it was in good strong handles to lift them by.) After the sun we cannot say, but we ate an egg which standing as above, set the milk, without dishad been cooked "hard" in the sun Said egg was placed upon the roof of our office, and remained exposed to the direct rays of the ann surface assume a wrinkled appearance, but alout two hours. When we broke is we found be careful it does not boil, as should this it cooked "hard" for our liking even the > Unpleasant Bed-Fellow .- Mr. John Tyson. residing in the southern part of our horough, a few mornings since found that he had been having a very unpleasant bed-fellow through the night. On rising from the hed, on which he had slept with his child by his side, he discovered a house-snake eighteen inches in length, in the bed between where he had hin and the child. He made short work with the reptile, by removing it from its comfortable repute, by removing its head," professing, if he must sleep "as thick as three in a bed," other company than his snakeship. This is other company than his snakeship. This is the third snake that has been killed in the same house during this year .- Wrightenille

> The Sunday Question in St. Louis -The Mayor of St. Louis refuses to sign the resolutions of Conneils for the submission to a vote of the people of the proposition to cluse the liquor shops and beer gardens of the city on the Sabbath, and the agitation is becoming more and more intense. On one side the Mayor is denounced, and on the other Lisfirmness is extrolled.

> 1 "rough" subscriber to a country onper was struck from its mail list because he wouldn't pay up. The delinquent wife insisted wrathfully that she knew what was newspaper law-that she did-the purprietor was obliged to send the paper until "all arrearages were paid."

> Charlie, my dear," said a loving mother to her hopeful son, just budding into breeches, "Charlie, my dear, come here and get some candy." "I guess I wen't mind it now, mother," replied Charlie; Mine got some tobacco.'

A letter was lately received at the Chirago post-office, directed "To an Honest Man." The chief clerk sent it to the dead letter department, with the candid confession that the man addressed did not live in Chicago. A German at Cincinnati made a bei of

$59 that he could drink half a burrel-of lagor in twenty-four hours. Seeing how he was going on, the other party paid him $10 to stop and throw up the bet. Mrs. Wm. P. Danna, of Perry, Me., has preserved and put up for future use, during the past season, fifty-seven hundred pounds of atrawberries! A pleasant place to visit, no doubt. to visit, no doubt. The Gasette, Bodfard, Pa., publishes an article authoritatively declaring that President Buchanan will not be a candidate for re-nomination.

Sickles is negotiating for the purchase of a house in Schheetady, N. 1. With a view to reside there when not in Congress. When one sin is admitted in a generally found that it has a companion waiting at the door, and the former will work work and stop picking your bose?

Boy It's my use, and tit the the Fourth of July, too. Tilk pickethaniles and on't, if I've a mind to.

Church in Philadelphia, it is stated in luice first time out of facility and the characteristics of the characteri refrigeration is produced by the evaporation of ether in a vacuum.

this right name.

of ether in a vacuum.

this right name.

of ether in a vacuum.

the plant of ether in a vacuum.

the plant in th