their good names tarnished by the suspicious of venality and corruption. We have not in-vented a single one of the many diagraceful suspicious which unfortunately attach to the reputation of McClure. On this point we can fill the Court House with proof. These suspicions have been ripe in the community, and in and about Harrisburg, for a long time, and not a few of the very worst of them have had their start in his own vain buseting to magnify his sharpness and cunning. This we ARE PREPARED TO PROVE. It was our duty as he was again up for office to direct public attention to his suspicious career, and it was his business to show that these suspicions were unfounded, and that he was worthy the trust he was then asking the people to repose in him. Ah! but he has prosecuted for libel—so be has—and like s prudent man, out of the twenty-seven suspicions published he has selected one and a part of another on which he knew we could not be prepared to go to trial, at the last Court, and he could thereby stave off investigation until after the election. Purity of the Ballot Box. The Fulton Democrat in an editorial article, published in July last, states that Col. McClure "has done more than any other person to corrupt the ballot boxes of Franklin county with money, and will one day reap a crop of retributive justice that will consign him to oblivion. The day may not be here, but it will come." It will be seen, from the above extract, that the reputation of McClure for corrupting the ballot box is not confined merely to his own county. It has extended abroad and brought reproach upon his name, coupled with the prediction that his discreditable transactions will one day "consign him to oblivion." No man among us has done more to disgrace the palladium of our liberty than McClure. He was the first man, in our county, to introduce money in elections, and secure his triumph by the mere dint of hard cash. Death from Esting Watermelm .- Mrs. Corselia Thaxton, conscrit of Dr. Joseph J. Thaxton, of Person county, N. C., (says the Newbern Delm.) ate a piece of watermelon on Priday last, and died of cramp choice in two oute of a million per annum of postage rebours afterward.

The Senatorial Contest.

The last issue of the Repository and Transcript contains an article, under the head of "the Senatorial contest" in which we find the following in reference to Mr. Douglas: "The active leaders of the party in every section of the county, who have labored almost yearly to keep him off the ticket, excepting when defeat was inevitable, will allow him to make his own struggle."

General Scott has started on his mission to San Juan. He left New York on Tuesday in the Star of the West. His departure was honored by a military parade, and he was saluted from Governor's Island, Fort Hamilton and Poot Columbus, as the Star of the West passed down the bay. The Scots Life Guard, Captain. J. H. Hobart Ward, composed exclusively of the several companies in rms which served during the Mexican war, paraded as artiflerists, and fired a salute as he stenmer left her wharf. The mission of the General to the Western coast relates to a controversy now arising between our Government and that of Great Britain relative to the proprietorship of San Juan Island, which lies boot twenty-five miles from the shore of Washington Territory, in the strait separating that territory from Vancouver's Island. It is situated optside the main channel, and s farther removed from British than from American land, and, accordingly, by immemorial usage, belongs to the United States.

And now let the Ajax of the party, Joshua R. Gippings, declare himself. In the last Republican State Convention of Ohio Mr. "The negro is a Heavenly Institution, and t is God-like in man to elecate him to an equality with the white." And Mr. Giddings thus delivers himself through the Ashtabula Sentinel. This is a choice morcean, and deserves attention : "Some niggers are superior to some Dem ocrats. Indeed they are superior to the great mass of the Democratic party; while some Democrats are superior to some niggers, and perhaps to the greater portion of the African race. Yet all Democrats, however intellectually inferior they may be to the niggers, are entitled to live, and to enjoy their liberty, and the fruits of their labor. And while we are endeavoring to sustain these equal and uni versal rights we ought not to be drawn into any discussion of the moral or social suprertority of the niggers over the Democrats." Such, reader, is the croed of the Republican party—the object it is aiming to accomplish is the elevation of the black man and the degradation of the white. We learn it from the only source from which a party's creed can be learned-from the declarations of its recognised leaders and the teachings of its journals. The belief in negro equality is not confined to certain localities, but is rapidly spreading.
