Marshall, Pius Lawrence, Anthony Klunk, this place, aged about 74 years. Daniel Small, Ambrose Eline, Samuel Shorb.

Secretarics, Joseph J. Smith, Michael Law rence. Thomas McClain, Eusebius J. Owings. Mr. Busbey then made some very appro priate remarks, and at their conclusion intro daced Hon. Moses McOlean, who entertained the assemblage with a speech which gave great satisfaction, and was frequently ap-plauded. J. W. Douglas, J. C. Neely, Andrew Dellono, II. J. Stahle, and J. D. Newman, followed in succession, when the meet-ing adjourned with hearsy cheers for the success of the whole Democratic Ticket.

AT MOUNT ROCK.

The meeting at J. E. Smith's, in Mountricesant township, in the evening of the same day, was a rouser, all the country round about pouring in its scores upon scores antil the rathering amounted to probably 400 persons. Being the first meeting at that wint, the large turn out and warm enthusiasm which was observable on all sides, made up a most ngreeable surprise. Among the delegitions in attendance, was a long procession of horsemen from Brush Run. They made a very fine appearance, and were received with re-peated huzzas. The officers of the meeting of Alexander and M. Shorb, of Mountpleasant township, aged 5 years 5 months and 22 days. Life has its momenta Of beauty's bloom : But they hang like sweet roses On the edge of the tomb. Blessings they bring us. As lovely as brief; They meet us when happy, And leave us in grief. Hues of the morning, Tinging the sky, Come on the subleams, And off with them fly. Shadows of evoning, Hang soft on the shore. Darkuess enwraps them,-We see them no more. So life's better moments. In brilliance appear. Dawning in beauty, Our journey to cheer. Round us they shall linger. Like shadows of even; Would that we, like them,
