Who sink within the arms of death
Ere yet the chilling wintry breath
Of sorrow o'er them blows."

Communicated.

On the 19th inst., Capt. JOHN GARDNER, of Butler township, aged about 74 years. Capt. Gardner was a soldier in the war with Great Britain in the year 1814, on the Canadian frontiers; he was first Lieut. in a company commanded by Capt. Samuel White, after whom, Whitestown, in this county, was named. Capt. White being taken prisoner by the Indians, Lieut. Gardner was advanced to the Captaincy. He was in all, or nearly all the engagements of that memorable period, in which some of the most sanguinary battles, in the history of our country, were fought; and was one of those in the company whose daring courage carried them into the enemy's country. In the after part of his life it was his delight, and often to the edification of his hearers, to recount the exploits of the American soldier, and to rehearse their bold encounters with the enemy. At such times his aged eye would sparkle with youthful fire, and he would seem to live over again the events of by-gone days. He was truly a brave soldier.

At the residence of his grand-father, (J. P. Topper,) near Fairfield, on the 16th inst., of malignant sore throat, FRANCIS EDMUND KIBEL, aged 3 years 3 months and 24 days.

Dearest Eddy, thou hast left us,
Here thy loss we deeply feel;
But 'tis God that hath bereft us,
He can all our sorrows heal.

Yet again we hope to meet thee,
When the day of life is fled;
Then in heaven with joy to greet thee,
Where no farewell tear is shed. C. T.

On the 23d inst., CATHARINE ELIZABETH BEITLER, daughter of Emanuel and Susannah Beitler, of Straban township.

O, may no gloomy crime
Polute the rising day—
May Jesus' blood, like morning dew,
Wash all our stains away.
We give to God what he to us gave,
We bless him with our weeping eyes;
Our bud sleeps not within the grave,
But sweetly blooms in paradise. A. H. M.

On the 13th of February, ALICE E. LAREW, daughter of D. P. and S. J. Larew, of Latimore township, aged 2 years 11 months and 2 days.

"Weep not for little Alice,
She has gone to God who gave;
Her spirit sleeps in Jesus,
Though she's in the silent grave.

Loving parents cease your weeping,
Dry your tears, it must be so;
God now has her in his keeping,
Oh then, cease your woe.

Hard I know has been the parting
From little Alice's side,
But 'tis the good Lord's calling,
By it we must abide. E. F.

Cannon & Adair's

NEW MARBLE WORKS, corner of Baltimore and East Middle streets, directly opposite the new Court House, Gettysburg.—Having recently arrived from Philadelphia, and feeling fully competent to execute all work in the finest style of the art, we would respectfully invite the attention of the public wishing to procure anything in our line, to favor us with a call and examine specimens of our work. We are prepared to furnish MONUMENTS, TOMBS AND HEADSTONES, MARBLE MANTLES, SLABS for Cabinet-makers, and all other work appertaining to our business, at the lowest possible prices. We do not hesitate to guarantee that our work shall be put up in a manner substantial and tasteful equal to the best to be seen in the cities, where every improvement which experience has suggested is availed of, and especially do we guarantee that our Cemetery and Grave Yard work shall be so carefully set as not to be affected by frost, but shall maintain for years that erectness of position given at the completion of a job, and so necessary to continued gracefulness and symmetry.
