FOR GOVERNOR, HON. HENRY D. FOSTER.

OF WESTMORELAND. DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

Womination of Hon. H. D. Foster for Governor by Acclamation! SKIES BRIGHT!

The Democratic State Convention met at Reading on Wednesday last, all was one of the Vice Presidents. The Convention. More next week.

READING, March 1 .- The delegates at large to the Charleston Convention, elected by the Democratic State Convention, Wm, Montgomery and Joseph Baker. Richard Vaux, of Philadelphia, and George M. Keim, of Berks county, were elected Electors at large, Nominations were now made for a candidate for Governor, Wm. H. Witte's name was hailed with tremendous applause and a salute was fired by the Keystone club. Among other names put in nomination were those of John L. Dawson, Jacob Fry, Nimrod Strickland and H. B. Wright, scattering; necessary to a choice 69. There being no election, Mr. Deitrick, of Lycoming county, now rose and in n loud and emphatic voice moved that Henry D. Foster, of Westmoreland county, be nominated by acclamation. A scene of the wildest enthusiasm now ensued. The motion was put by the president, who announced Mr. Foster nominated by acclamation.

[SECOND DISPATCH.] READING, March 1.—The convention adjourned sine die, after the appointment of delegates to the Charleston convention, and the adoption of resolutions encorsing the platform of the Cincinnati convention; deprecating the slavery agitation; declaring the right to hold elaves in the Territories is purely a judicial question and not legislative; that the irrepressible conflict doctrines are traught with danger to the Union, and the effort of sectional parties to obtain central government; applauding the of this Convention for President was Governor in delivering up the fugitives tred.
