A Southern Scene.

It is so seldom that the real truth respecting the social condition of the Southern slave appears in the Northern

Republican press, that we take pleasure in clipping the following paragraph from a lotter to the Newark Advortiser, a Republican paper :

I remained at Savannah eight days in sight-seeing, and while there attended the races, a few miles from the city .--There were to be found on the grounds hundreds of well-dressed negroes, with purse in hand, ready to bet you varj-

Six months af. of specific dutics, the Post says :

"It will dishonor us in the eyes of the civilized world if we, who boast of the freedom of our institutions and the wisdom of our legislations should in the meautime be seen picking up the broken fetters of that system, and patting them into the hands of artisans at Washington to forge them again into handcuffs for our wrists. If any such bill as is threatened should be introduced into Congress by the Committee of Ways and Means, we trust that the Republicans of the Western States will be ready to assist in giving it its deuth-blow. If it do not meet its quietus from tham, it will probably be rejected, as it will richly deserve, in the Senate, and Mr. Buchanan will never have the satisfaction of giving it his signature." "

Let the Opposition of Penneylvania, who have sent delegates to the Reputs lican Convention at Chicago, pointer over and digest these words, attered by Wm. C. Bryant, one of the great Republican authorities of the country, who was lately selected by the Republicans who had resided in a country ignorant of New York to preside over a meeting addressed by Abraham Lincom - Ritriot & Union. 1.1102 12. 73

> An Indian and a white man recently skated sixty miles, on a wager, in Wisconsin. The Indian came in a few minutes less than ten hours, and did not seem to suffer from the exertion. The white man was over eleven hours in making the distance, and in a few hours after he had pulled off his skates his limbs swelled to a monstrous size, and he was disabled for several days. A man in Pawtucket lately made upplication for insurance on a building situated in a villago where there was no fire-engine. He was asked: "!! What, are the facilities in your village for extinguishing fires ?" "Weil, sit smins sometimes," he replied, with great simplicity. A disease among horsus has apread in Brooklyn, N. X. It is described as a paralysis of the throat. It is confided to one stable. Right horses have died.
