107 Nassau St., New York. Feb. 6, 1860. 3m Carr's Poetry. THERE is no evil in this world Which men cannot relieve;

And every honest mind and heart Will surely this believe: God hath ordained a perfect cure For every ill on earth. But leaves it unto men to find The secret and its worth. Thus H. G. Carr's discovered one Which will afford relief, And care dyspepsis and indigestion, Almost beyond belief. The virtues of his Bitters are Now known unto all; And they whe wish to be relieved Give H. G. Carr & call. And even if Consumption has Laid hand upon thy frame, The Syrup he has in his store Will encach the rising flome-And causes health to come s gain Unto the pallid sheek, And bringeth joy unto the sick, Which words one never speak. It is a sovereign, speedy cure For Quinsy-waat of breath-For Asthma and throat diseases, Which often and in death. When others fail this will effect A permanent relief-
