THE LAND OF DREAMS. The land of dreams is brighter Than this dark land of ours, Its cloudless skies are lighter, And fairer are its flowers, And hearts that earth would sever. In union close and sweet, More fond and true than ever, May there together meet. The forms we most have cherished, That in the cold grave sleep, The beings that have perished Rise from their slumber deep, And joyfully they meet us, With a pleasure beaming eye, And the voice with which they greet us, Is the voice of days gone by. The beggar with his wallet.

Has a mine at his command, And the slave upon his pallet, Holds a sceptre in his hand. In sleep the old man loves to dwell, He seems a boy to be; The prisoner laugheth in his cell, For he dreams that he is free.

From realms of cold reality, How starts the unfettered mind, Banging as lawless through the sky As blows the mountain wind; Its home of clay forsaking, it journeys wide and far,

Its boundless voyage taking From distant star to star. MISCHLIANY.
