The Coffee designathed and the Corpe Comests Life.t-A singular affair occurred yesterday at the negro settlement known as Hog Nock, near the Rocky River Plank-road, some six miles from the city. An old negro named Jacob Sanders, and who was familiarly known row. as Old Jakey, died (apparently) late on Sunday night, and yesterday afternoon his body was put in a rough pine coffin, which was placed in a wagon, and the moved towards the grave. When on the was starting up the Lehigh Value was starting up the Lehigh Va procession—an unusually large onegon containing the coffin took fright George Winters, engineer, and William and broke into a mad-run, upsetting the aranched on its way. The mourners rushed to the spot and were vastly amazed to see old Jakey rising from among the rains of his coffin, and staring stupidly around. His inky black face, snow-white wool and white shroud formed a startling picture, turning the amazement of the colored mourners into fright, and they all took wildly to their heals. Carr's Poetry. THERE is no evil in this world Which men cannot relieve:

And every honest mind and heart Will surely this believe: God hath ordained a perfect cure For every ill on earth, But leaves it unto men to find. The secret and its worth. Thus H. G. Carr's discovered one Which will afford relief, And cure dyspessis and indignation, Almost beyond belief. The virtues of his Bitters are Now known unto all; And they who wish to be relieved Give H. G. Carr a call. And even if Consumption has Laid hand upon thy frame, The Syrup he has in his store Will quench the rising flame-And causes health to come sgain Unto the pallid cheek, And bringeth joy unto the sick, Which words can never speak. It is a sovereign, speedy cure For Quinsy—want of breath— For Asthma and throat dispases, Which often end in death.
When others fall this will affect.
A permanent religioWill bring the suffering back to health,
And cheek old Death-the thief.
