A CATALOGUE. Address, GEORGE G. EVANS, Publisher, 439 Chestnut St., Philadelphis, Pa. April 2, 1860. 6: Carr's Poetry. THERE is no evil in this work Which men cannot relieve; And every honest mind and heart Will surely this believe : God hath ordained a perfect cure For every ill on earth. But leaves it unto men to find The secret and its worth. Thus H. G. Carr's discovered one Which will afford relief, And sure dyspepsia and indigestion, Almost beyond belief. The virtues of his Bitters are Now known unto all; And they who wish to be relieved Give H. G. Carr a call. And even if Consumption has Laid hand upon thy frame, The Syrup he has in his store Will quench the rising dame-And causes health to come sgain Unto the pallid cheek, And bringeth joy anto the sick, Which words can never speak. It is a sovereign, speedy cure For Quinsy-want of breath-For Asthma and throat diseases, Which often end in death. When others fail this will effoct
