Carr's Poetry. THERE is no evil in this world Which men cannot relieve; And every honest mind and heart Will surely this believe; God hath ordained a perfect cure For every ill on earth, But leaves it unto men to find The secret and its worth. Thus H. G. Carr's discovered one hich will afford relief, And cure dyspepsia and indigestion, Almost beyond belief. The virtues of his Bitters are Now known unto all; And they who wish to be relieved tiive H. G. Carr a call. And even if Consumption has Laid hand upon thy trame, The Syrup he has in his store Will quench the rising flame-And causes health to come again Unto the pallid cheek. And bringeth joy unto the sick, Which words can never speak, it is a sovereign, speedy cure For Quinsy—want of breath-For Asthma and throat diseases,

Which often end in death. When others fail this will effect A permanent relief— Will bring the suffering back to bealth, And chest old Death-the thief. All of which are for sale at H. G. CARR'S, East York street, Gett; sburg. March 19, 1860.
