Q. You were nominated on the day that Mr. Kilgore made that proposition? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You were voted for as the candidate of the Republicans on the next day? A. No, sir, not the next day. Mr. Stanton moved a postponement several days, and it was done.
Q. You were nominated though on the day that proposition was made as the candidate of the Republican party? A. Yes, sir.
Q. You stated, I think, that you received affect the votes of the Republicans present in the House except that of Mr. Adams? A. Yes, sir, I should like to say that I regarded his course

I should like to say that I regarded his course toward me as very strange; because, while an apprentice in a printing office, the first writing that I ever did was in support of his father for the Presidency against General Jackson.

Practical Republicanism.

In Cleveland the Republican leaders carry out the principles they profess. They allow negro children to sit side by side with white children in their schools. Upon objection being made to this condition of things, one of the members of the Board of Education said; "I would rather my little girl should sit BESIDE A COLORED GIRL than by a FRIZZLE HEADED IRISH OF BARE HEELED DUTCH one!" That is what we call showing their faith by their works-but when election time draws nigh, these same Republican leaders will profess to be the Irish and bare beeled Dutch."
