

THE COMPILER.

W. J. STABLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, JUNE 11, 1860.

FOR GOVERNOR,

MON. HENRY D. FOSTER,

OF WESTMORELAND.

SENATORIAL ELECTORS:

- 1. Frederick A. Serber, 14. Isaac Rocknow.
2. Wm. C. Patterson, 15. Geo. D. Jackson.
3. J. W. Kelly, 16. John A. Ahl.
4. John G. Brener, 17. Joel B. Danner.
5. G. W. Kelly, 18. J. R. Crawford.
6. G. W. Kelly, 19. H. S. Lee.
7. Oliver P. James, 20. Josh. B. Howell.
8. David Schall, 21. N. B. Fetterman.
9. Joel Leitner, 22. Samuel Marshall.
10. S. B. Bachour, 23. Wm. Bock.
11. Theo. H. Walker, 24. B. D. Hamlin.
12. S. B. Wichter, 25. Gaylord Church.
13. Jos. Leubach.

The Japanese.

The Japanese Ambassadors were received at Baltimore on Friday last, and, of course, a grand display was had on the occasion.

A Baseless Charge.

The Republican journals of this State are parading a bit of testimony said to have been given before the Corvode Committee by Cornelius Wendell as tending to prove corruption upon Mr. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor.

Humbag Won't Do.

Three years ago the Republican party tried to force David Wilmot, a notorious renegade and free-trade Democrat, upon the people of Pennsylvania for Governor, but her yeomanry could not be seduced, and he was defeated by an immense vote.

The Irrepressible Conflict.

The testimony of the Albany Evening Journal (Thurlow Weed's paper) in regard to the peculiar stripe of Abraham Lincoln's politics is presumed to be disinterested, and therefore is of some value.

Honest for Office!

We find the following in the published proceedings of the Chicago Convention. After the report on Platform, in the discussion which took place, Judge Jessup, of Pa., arose and said:

All 'Ham.

The Republican ticket is exceedingly appropriate—true to its design. Devoted to the interests of Ham's descendants, it begins and ends with its index fingers pointing to the colored raoc; thus—Abraham and Ham—Lin!

The Two Candidates for Governor—The Contrast.

There is a marked contrast just now, says the York Gazette, between the doings of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania.

How They Were Made.

The country was somewhat astonished that delegates were reported present at the Republican Convention from several southern States—Texas among the number.

The Corvode Committee.

Starting Discharges. Showing that John Corvode and his Associates refuse to Investigate Charges of Republican Corruption!

The Record of Abraham Lincoln.

He takes sides against his country at the Washington Constitution. This discourse upon the Congressional history of Abraham Lincoln!

LOCAL NEWS.

Avail Tornado in Iowa and Illinois.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A terrible tornado swept over Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois last night, which has caused more destruction of life and property, especially at Clinton, Iowa, than any similar visitation remembered.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HANOVER RAILROAD.

It is our painful duty to record this week the occurrence on last Monday morning of a terrible accident on the Hanover Branch Railroad, by which Mr. CHARLES TRONE, a much esteemed young citizen of this Borough, lost his life.

Hamilin's Record.

Hannibal Hamilin was a member of the Democratic Convention in 1848, which nominated Lewis Cass; in that convention he voted against a protective tariff; in that convention he opposed a system of internal improvements; in that convention he favored the Mexican war; now he professes to favor a tariff; how he is a candidate on the same ticket with Lincoln, who denounced the Mexican war as an unjust and unconstitutional war!

Why Lincoln was Nominated.—Geo. A. Corvode, one of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Chicago Convention, on his return to Philadelphia, in giving an account of the convention, said:

"Private consultations were held by the delegates from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, and an interchange of opinion revealed this fact, that in order to DEFEAT THE NOMINATION OF MR. SEWARD, these four States should rally upon Lincoln."

How to Save the Union and the Constitution.

The New York Tribune, in answer to Mr. Toombs' declaration that "the greatest danger of the South is that the Union will survive the Constitution," proclaims that the true way to save both together is, by electing Lincoln and Hamlin!

The Democracy "sneer at ABRAHAM LINCOLN as a rail splitter."

No they don't! They only sneer at a set of jackasses who go round in the hot sun with rails on their backs, thinking they thereby glorify a man who followed the reputable and honest business of splitting rails.

The report is that while Mr. Lincoln is a tariff man, Mr. Hamlin is a free trader.

Such an incongruity between candidates on the same ticket is consistent with Republicanism, though with nothing else.

Seward's term in the Senate expires March 4th, 1861.

His most bitter enemy, Horace Greeley, proposes to step into the place. Henry J. Raymond, according to Greeley, is the latter's competitor.

Gen. Webb predicts that the Tribune circulation will diminish 80 per cent. in consequence of the Greeley and Seward feud.

The Two Candidates for Governor—The Contrast.

There is a marked contrast just now, says the York Gazette, between the doings of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania.

How They Were Made.

The country was somewhat astonished that delegates were reported present at the Republican Convention from several southern States—Texas among the number.

The Corvode Committee.

Starting Discharges. Showing that John Corvode and his Associates refuse to Investigate Charges of Republican Corruption!

The Record of Abraham Lincoln.

He takes sides against his country at the Washington Constitution. This discourse upon the Congressional history of Abraham Lincoln!

LOCAL NEWS.

Avail Tornado in Iowa and Illinois.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A terrible tornado swept over Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois last night, which has caused more destruction of life and property, especially at Clinton, Iowa, than any similar visitation remembered.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HANOVER RAILROAD.

It is our painful duty to record this week the occurrence on last Monday morning of a terrible accident on the Hanover Branch Railroad, by which Mr. CHARLES TRONE, a much esteemed young citizen of this Borough, lost his life.

Hamilin's Record.

Hannibal Hamilin was a member of the Democratic Convention in 1848, which nominated Lewis Cass; in that convention he voted against a protective tariff; in that convention he opposed a system of internal improvements; in that convention he favored the Mexican war; now he professes to favor a tariff; how he is a candidate on the same ticket with Lincoln, who denounced the Mexican war as an unjust and unconstitutional war!

Why Lincoln was Nominated.—Geo. A. Corvode, one of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Chicago Convention, on his return to Philadelphia, in giving an account of the convention, said:

"Private consultations were held by the delegates from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, and an interchange of opinion revealed this fact, that in order to DEFEAT THE NOMINATION OF MR. SEWARD, these four States should rally upon Lincoln."

How to Save the Union and the Constitution.

The New York Tribune, in answer to Mr. Toombs' declaration that "the greatest danger of the South is that the Union will survive the Constitution," proclaims that the true way to save both together is, by electing Lincoln and Hamlin!

The Democracy "sneer at ABRAHAM LINCOLN as a rail splitter."

No they don't! They only sneer at a set of jackasses who go round in the hot sun with rails on their backs, thinking they thereby glorify a man who followed the reputable and honest business of splitting rails.

The report is that while Mr. Lincoln is a tariff man, Mr. Hamlin is a free trader.

Such an incongruity between candidates on the same ticket is consistent with Republicanism, though with nothing else.

Seward's term in the Senate expires March 4th, 1861.

His most bitter enemy, Horace Greeley, proposes to step into the place. Henry J. Raymond, according to Greeley, is the latter's competitor.

Gen. Webb predicts that the Tribune circulation will diminish 80 per cent. in consequence of the Greeley and Seward feud.

The Two Candidates for Governor—The Contrast.

There is a marked contrast just now, says the York Gazette, between the doings of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania.

How They Were Made.

The country was somewhat astonished that delegates were reported present at the Republican Convention from several southern States—Texas among the number.

The Corvode Committee.

Starting Discharges. Showing that John Corvode and his Associates refuse to Investigate Charges of Republican Corruption!

The Record of Abraham Lincoln.

He takes sides against his country at the Washington Constitution. This discourse upon the Congressional history of Abraham Lincoln!

LOCAL NEWS.

Avail Tornado in Iowa and Illinois.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A terrible tornado swept over Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois last night, which has caused more destruction of life and property, especially at Clinton, Iowa, than any similar visitation remembered.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HANOVER RAILROAD.

It is our painful duty to record this week the occurrence on last Monday morning of a terrible accident on the Hanover Branch Railroad, by which Mr. CHARLES TRONE, a much esteemed young citizen of this Borough, lost his life.

Hamilin's Record.

Hannibal Hamilin was a member of the Democratic Convention in 1848, which nominated Lewis Cass; in that convention he voted against a protective tariff; in that convention he opposed a system of internal improvements; in that convention he favored the Mexican war; now he professes to favor a tariff; how he is a candidate on the same ticket with Lincoln, who denounced the Mexican war as an unjust and unconstitutional war!

Why Lincoln was Nominated.—Geo. A. Corvode, one of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Chicago Convention, on his return to Philadelphia, in giving an account of the convention, said:

"Private consultations were held by the delegates from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, and an interchange of opinion revealed this fact, that in order to DEFEAT THE NOMINATION OF MR. SEWARD, these four States should rally upon Lincoln."

How to Save the Union and the Constitution.

The New York Tribune, in answer to Mr. Toombs' declaration that "the greatest danger of the South is that the Union will survive the Constitution," proclaims that the true way to save both together is, by electing Lincoln and Hamlin!

The Democracy "sneer at ABRAHAM LINCOLN as a rail splitter."

No they don't! They only sneer at a set of jackasses who go round in the hot sun with rails on their backs, thinking they thereby glorify a man who followed the reputable and honest business of splitting rails.

The report is that while Mr. Lincoln is a tariff man, Mr. Hamlin is a free trader.

Such an incongruity between candidates on the same ticket is consistent with Republicanism, though with nothing else.

Seward's term in the Senate expires March 4th, 1861.

His most bitter enemy, Horace Greeley, proposes to step into the place. Henry J. Raymond, according to Greeley, is the latter's competitor.

Gen. Webb predicts that the Tribune circulation will diminish 80 per cent. in consequence of the Greeley and Seward feud.

The Two Candidates for Governor—The Contrast.

There is a marked contrast just now, says the York Gazette, between the doings of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania.

How They Were Made.

The country was somewhat astonished that delegates were reported present at the Republican Convention from several southern States—Texas among the number.

The Corvode Committee.

Starting Discharges. Showing that John Corvode and his Associates refuse to Investigate Charges of Republican Corruption!

The Record of Abraham Lincoln.

He takes sides against his country at the Washington Constitution. This discourse upon the Congressional history of Abraham Lincoln!

LOCAL NEWS.

Avail Tornado in Iowa and Illinois.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A terrible tornado swept over Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois last night, which has caused more destruction of life and property, especially at Clinton, Iowa, than any similar visitation remembered.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HANOVER RAILROAD.

It is our painful duty to record this week the occurrence on last Monday morning of a terrible accident on the Hanover Branch Railroad, by which Mr. CHARLES TRONE, a much esteemed young citizen of this Borough, lost his life.

Hamilin's Record.

Hannibal Hamilin was a member of the Democratic Convention in 1848, which nominated Lewis Cass; in that convention he voted against a protective tariff; in that convention he opposed a system of internal improvements; in that convention he favored the Mexican war; now he professes to favor a tariff; how he is a candidate on the same ticket with Lincoln, who denounced the Mexican war as an unjust and unconstitutional war!

Why Lincoln was Nominated.—Geo. A. Corvode, one of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Chicago Convention, on his return to Philadelphia, in giving an account of the convention, said:

"Private consultations were held by the delegates from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, and an interchange of opinion revealed this fact, that in order to DEFEAT THE NOMINATION OF MR. SEWARD, these four States should rally upon Lincoln."

How to Save the Union and the Constitution.

The New York Tribune, in answer to Mr. Toombs' declaration that "the greatest danger of the South is that the Union will survive the Constitution," proclaims that the true way to save both together is, by electing Lincoln and Hamlin!

The Democracy "sneer at ABRAHAM LINCOLN as a rail splitter."

No they don't! They only sneer at a set of jackasses who go round in the hot sun with rails on their backs, thinking they thereby glorify a man who followed the reputable and honest business of splitting rails.

The report is that while Mr. Lincoln is a tariff man, Mr. Hamlin is a free trader.

Such an incongruity between candidates on the same ticket is consistent with Republicanism, though with nothing else.

Seward's term in the Senate expires March 4th, 1861.

His most bitter enemy, Horace Greeley, proposes to step into the place. Henry J. Raymond, according to Greeley, is the latter's competitor.

Gen. Webb predicts that the Tribune circulation will diminish 80 per cent. in consequence of the Greeley and Seward feud.

The Two Candidates for Governor—The Contrast.

There is a marked contrast just now, says the York Gazette, between the doings of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania.

How They Were Made.

The country was somewhat astonished that delegates were reported present at the Republican Convention from several southern States—Texas among the number.

The Corvode Committee.

Starting Discharges. Showing that John Corvode and his Associates refuse to Investigate Charges of Republican Corruption!

The Record of Abraham Lincoln.

He takes sides against his country at the Washington Constitution. This discourse upon the Congressional history of Abraham Lincoln!

LOCAL NEWS.

Avail Tornado in Iowa and Illinois.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A terrible tornado swept over Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois last night, which has caused more destruction of life and property, especially at Clinton, Iowa, than any similar visitation remembered.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HANOVER RAILROAD.

It is our painful duty to record this week the occurrence on last Monday morning of a terrible accident on the Hanover Branch Railroad, by which Mr. CHARLES TRONE, a much esteemed young citizen of this Borough, lost his life.

Hamilin's Record.

Hannibal Hamilin was a member of the Democratic Convention in 1848, which nominated Lewis Cass; in that convention he voted against a protective tariff; in that convention he opposed a system of internal improvements; in that convention he favored the Mexican war; now he professes to favor a tariff; how he is a candidate on the same ticket with Lincoln, who denounced the Mexican war as an unjust and unconstitutional war!

Why Lincoln was Nominated.—Geo. A. Corvode, one of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Chicago Convention, on his return to Philadelphia, in giving an account of the convention, said:

"Private consultations were held by the delegates from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, and an interchange of opinion revealed this fact, that in order to DEFEAT THE NOMINATION OF MR. SEWARD, these four States should rally upon Lincoln."

How to Save the Union and the Constitution.

The New York Tribune, in answer to Mr. Toombs' declaration that "the greatest danger of the South is that the Union will survive the Constitution," proclaims that the true way to save both together is, by electing Lincoln and Hamlin!

The Democracy "sneer at ABRAHAM LINCOLN as a rail splitter."

No they don't! They only sneer at a set of jackasses who go round in the hot sun with rails on their backs, thinking they thereby glorify a man who followed the reputable and honest business of splitting rails.

The report is that while Mr. Lincoln is a tariff man, Mr. Hamlin is a free trader.

Such an incongruity between candidates on the same ticket is consistent with Republicanism, though with nothing else.

Seward's term in the Senate expires March 4th, 1861.

His most bitter enemy, Horace Greeley, proposes to step into the place. Henry J. Raymond, according to Greeley, is the latter's competitor.

Gen. Webb predicts that the Tribune circulation will diminish 80 per cent. in consequence of the Greeley and Seward feud.

The Two Candidates for Governor—The Contrast.

There is a marked contrast just now, says the York Gazette, between the doings of the two candidates for Governor of Pennsylvania.

How They Were Made.

The country was somewhat astonished that delegates were reported present at the Republican Convention from several southern States—Texas among the number.

The Corvode Committee.

Starting Discharges. Showing that John Corvode and his Associates refuse to Investigate Charges of Republican Corruption!

The Record of Abraham Lincoln.

He takes sides against his country at the Washington Constitution. This discourse upon the Congressional history of Abraham Lincoln!

LOCAL NEWS.

Avail Tornado in Iowa and Illinois.

Great Loss of Life and Destruction of Property.

CHICAGO, June 4.—A terrible tornado swept over Eastern Iowa and Northern Illinois last night, which has caused more destruction of life and property, especially at Clinton, Iowa, than any similar visitation remembered.

FATAL ACCIDENT ON THE HANOVER RAILROAD.

It is our painful duty to record this week the occurrence on last Monday morning of a terrible accident on the Hanover Branch Railroad, by which Mr. CHARLES TRONE, a much esteemed young citizen of this Borough, lost his life.

Hamilin's Record.

Hannibal Hamilin was a member of the Democratic Convention in 1848, which nominated Lewis Cass; in that convention he voted against a protective tariff; in that convention he opposed a system of internal improvements; in that convention he favored the Mexican war; now he professes to favor a tariff; how he is a candidate on the same ticket with Lincoln, who denounced the Mexican war as an unjust and unconstitutional war!

Why Lincoln was Nominated.—Geo. A. Corvode, one of the Pennsylvania delegates to the Chicago Convention, on his return to Philadelphia, in giving an account of the convention, said:

"Private consultations were held by the delegates from Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Illinois and Indiana, and an interchange of opinion revealed this fact, that in order to DEFEAT THE NOMINATION OF MR. SEWARD, these four States should rally upon Lincoln."

How to Save the Union and the Constitution.

The New York Tribune, in answer to Mr. Toombs' declaration that "the greatest danger of the South is that the Union will survive the Constitution," proclaims that the true way to save both together is, by electing Lincoln and Hamlin!

The Democracy "sneer at ABRAHAM LINCOLN as a rail splitter."

No they don't! They only sneer at a set of jackasses who go round in the hot sun with rails on their backs, thinking they thereby glorify a man who followed the reputable and honest business of splitting rails.

The report is that while Mr. Lincoln is a tariff man, Mr. Hamlin is a free trader.

Such an incongruity between candidates on the same ticket is consistent with Republicanism, though with nothing else.

Seward's term in the Senate expires March 4th, 1861.

His most bitter enemy, Horace Greeley, proposes to step into the place. Henry J. Raymond, according to Greeley, is the latter's competitor.

Gen. Webb predicts that the Tribune circulation will diminish 80 per cent. in consequence of the Greeley and Seward feud.