

Wonderful! We have been informed of an occurrence which took place in Stewartstown, in this county, on Saturday, May 20th, which belongs to the records of the "wonderful." Our informant is ready to vouch for the truth of the statement, which we present to our readers on his authority:

An Albino, or white negro, living with Mr. Able Kirkwood, fell from the effects of an epileptic fit, from the stoop of the house, where he was sitting on a chair, down to the distance of some ten feet. There he lay struggling in spasms for the space of half an hour, when he turned as black as the ace of spades. By Tuesday, the 22d, he was able to walk about town, and complained of nothing save a few bruises, occasioned by the fall, and the ebony hue which still shined his once fair face. Four fellow, he was quite loath to part with the resemblance he bore to a white man, in exchange for his present shaggy pliz as a black. What is more remarkable, is that while his face is as black as Egyptian darkness, his hair is perfectly white; thus forming a most beautiful and striking contrast. The name of the man who has undergone this remarkable transformation is Nicholas Bilhingly, and he is about twenty-two years of age. The affair has quite mystified the good citizens of Stewartstown, as doubtless it will all others who read or hear of it. —York Republican.

Flora Temple beaten.—The second trial of speed between the renowned trotting horses George M. Patchen and Flora Temple came off over the Union Course, on Long Island, on Tuesday, and resulted in the triumph of Patchen. Two successive two-mile heats were won by Patchen, in 4 min. 58 sec. and 4 min. 57 sec. The butters on time, which ranged from 4 min. 44 sec. to and not exceeding 4 min. 52 sec. had of course lost, and the public (says the Times) are surprised that Flora and Patchen (at the late race) in 2 min. 21 sec., could not do better. Opinions were freely expressed that if Flora was all right the driving was all wrong. The race was for $1,000, and it is stated that Mr. McDonald, the owner of Flora, offered to trot the same race over again for $5,000. Another match, however, is expected to be made between Patchen and Flora.

To Cook a Husband.
Many good husbands are spoiled in the cooking; some woman go about it as if they were bladders and blow them up; others keep them constantly in hot water, while others freeze them by con-jugal coolness; some smother them in hatred, contention and variance, and some keep them in pickle all their lives. Flora is always a good husband, but with tongue saucer. Now it cannot be said good if managed in this way; but on the contrary, very delicious when managed as follows: Get a large jar called the jar of faithfulness, (which all good wives keep on hand,) place your husband in it, and set him near the fire of conjugal love, let the fire be pretty hot, and especially let it be clear, but above all, let the heat be constant.—Cover him with affection, kindness and submission, garnished with modest, becoming familiarity, and spiced with pleasantry, and if you add kisses and other contentions, let them be accompanied with a sufficient portion of secrecy, mixed with prudence and moderation. We would advise all good wives to try this recipe and realise what an admirable dish a husband makes when properly cooked.—Haral Register.

The fellow who opened an argument didn't find much inside of it.

CUMBERLAND TWP., May 10, 1860.
Messrs. SHADDS & BECKER.—Gentlemen:—Having perused and used your Reaper and Mower, the New Jersey Reaper and Mower, I desire to add my testimony to that already given, as to its value and efficiency as a combined machine. For good work either in grass or in grain, it has no superior. All I can say in grass is unhesitatingly say it is far better than any other machine, and for lightness of draft it is certainly better than any machine I have yet seen. The objection to other machines, that they rest heavily on the horse's neck, is obviated in the New Jersey, by the weight on the horses being light or nothing.
Yours, &c., JOSEPH WALKER.
In addition to the above certificate, we refer the reader to J. W. MOSES, Esq., of Liberty township, and Mr. J. H. BOYD, Esq., of Cumberland township, whose testimony to the efficiency and value of the New Jersey Reaper and Mower will be cheerfully given. S. & B. SHADDS & BECKER are also Agents for the celebrated Kirby Reel and Mower.

THE PUBLIC BLESSING which is now universally admitted to exist in Moffat's Liver Pills and Phebic Bitters, is every day demonstrated by the increasing efficacy in the cases which they are announced to cure. All complaints of the stomach and bowels, weakness of the digestive organs and of the system generally, bilious and liver affections, neuralgia, head aches, piles, constipation, indigestion, rheumatism, impurity of the blood, or blotched and sallow complexion, soon yield to their curative properties. A single trial invariably secures them the title of the best family medicine now before the public. For sale by the proprietor W. B. HOPKINS, at his office, 235 Broadway, N. Y., and by S. B. Forney, Agent, Gettysburg. (Feb. 13, 1y)

The Ohio Preparation
HAVING PROVED SO STRONG AND DIRECT AS TO EXPEL THE DOUBTS OF ALL.—For Stagesman, Judges, Editors, Physicians of the oldest schools as well as new, give it their unqualified approval, as a cure for all diseases of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore. Head the following:
O. J. Wood—Dear Sir:—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Restorative a trial.
During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the roadside, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of trouble, which terminated in the loss of the scalp and brain; but all who have used it, unite in testifying that it will preserve the hair from being gray, and from falling to any age, as well as restore.
