

TERMS:

The Compiler is published every Monday morning, by Henry J. Stahl, at $1.75 per annum...

THE COMPILER.

A Democratic, News and Family Journal.

By H. J. STAHL.

"TRUTH IS MIGHTY, AND WILL PREVAIL."

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

42ND YEAR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.: MONDAY, JUNE 25, 1860.

NO. 36.

POETS' CORNER.

BEAUTIFUL STANZA.

Leaf by leaf the roses fall, Drop by drop the spring run dry; One by one, beyond recall, Summer beauties fade and die...

MISCELLANEOUS.

"Honesty is the Best Policy."

It was one cold November day, that a poor tailor, with his wife and children around him, sat busily at work in his shop...

Dr. A. W. Dorey.

Formerly of Carroll county, Md., having permanently located in Gettysburg, offers his professional services to the citizens of the town and surrounding country...

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D.

Has his office on the corner of the old Union church in Chambersburg street, and opposite Pickens's store...

The Old County

CHILDREN, known by every man in the county, and no doubt many a one wished that he never had been such a place...

Just in Season!

GETS A CALL!—The undersigned have just received from the cities an immense stock of READY-MADE CLOTHING...

How to be a Man.

When Carlyle was asked by a young person to point out what course of reading he thought best to make him a man, he replied in his characteristic manner...

Removals.

THE undersigned, being the authorized person to make removals into Ever Green Cemetery, hopes that such as contemplate the removal of the remains of deceased relatives or friends...

Removal.

THE subscriber has removed his Plough and Machine Shop from the Foundry building to Railroad street, opposite Tate's Blacksmith shop...

Gas! Gas! Gas!

THE subscriber has laid in a large stock of Gas, and is prepared to supply the citizens of Gettysburg...

Disposing of Old Stock.

A pedlar of tin-ware, who had been traveling from plantation to plantation, in one of the Southern States, with his cargo of "notions," found but a limited sale for his lanterns...

Rare in Arabia.

Rarely, the horse-tamer, has been spending some time among the Arabs and their horses. In Jerusalem he literally "astonished the natives" in subduing the ferocity of the Paclia's stud...

A Star Destroyed by Fire.

The Russian correspondent of the London Telegraph writes thus: At Moscow a physical phenomena has been recently observed, such as would have given rise to the creation of a whole crop of fantastic myths in the times of the world's infancy...

Were Our Soldiers Murderers?

When resolutions of thanks to General Taylor were introduced into the House, Jan. 3, 1848, George Ashmun, the President of the late Chicago Convention, moved to add an amendment...

Practical Instruction.

A gentleman not long since took up an apple to show a niece, sixteen years of age, who had studied geography several years, something about the shape and motion of the Earth...

How the Japanese Fish.

In walking along the banks we came upon a man fishing in a most peculiar way. He was perched on a low bridge leading over a stream that joined the canal...

The Heaviest Taxes.

The taxes are indeed heavy, said Dr. Franklin on one occasion, and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them...

Rudolph Wilkins killed his step-father in Prussia, because of his cruelty to his mother, and then fled to this country to avoid pursuit.

He sought in the wild excitement of the chase forgetfulness of his crime. One day he found the elk and buffalo, he was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years...

Kesiah Gamber, a girl of seventeen, living with her widowed mother in Cincinnati, had lately been receiving the attentions of a young man...

She was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years. While living with them, the grace of his person attracted the attention of the young daughter of the Indian Chief, and he married her, and in this wedlock they had a son and daughter...

The late Daniel Fainshaw, of New York, bequeathed a large part of his property to religious and philanthropic societies.

A codicil to his will gives a son an additional legacy of five lots of land, provided he shall abstain from the use of tobacco for a period of six months before the testator's death, and if after he gets possession of the lots, he should resume the habit of using tobacco, said property is to be taken from him and devoted to building a home for superannuated sober printers.

A woman in Detroit has brought an action against her husband to recover wages as a domestic.

It seems he procured a divorce from her eight months ago. She knew nothing about it, and lived with him, performing domestic duties, &c. One bright morning, she awoke, she speaks to him, much exasperated, she speaks to him, "Queer place out West, isn't it?"

The Prince of Wales will be accompanied to New York not only by a Secretary of State as representing the Crown, but by Her Majesty's first great officer of the household, and one who has been a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland...

thus to a certain extent representing the Queen herself, and adding an additional importance and dignity to the visit of the Prince. Tompey said he once worked for a man who raised his wages so high that he could only reach them once in two years.

The widow of Ossawatimie Brown has received $30,000 from her colored sympathizers in Hayti.

A high rent—a hole in the crown of your bad hat. Great minds have purposes; others have only wishes.

Disposing of Old Stock.

A pedlar of tin-ware, who had been traveling from plantation to plantation, in one of the Southern States, with his cargo of "notions," found but a limited sale for his lanterns...

Rare in Arabia.

Rarely, the horse-tamer, has been spending some time among the Arabs and their horses. In Jerusalem he literally "astonished the natives" in subduing the ferocity of the Paclia's stud...

A Star Destroyed by Fire.

The Russian correspondent of the London Telegraph writes thus: At Moscow a physical phenomena has been recently observed, such as would have given rise to the creation of a whole crop of fantastic myths in the times of the world's infancy...

Were Our Soldiers Murderers?

When resolutions of thanks to General Taylor were introduced into the House, Jan. 3, 1848, George Ashmun, the President of the late Chicago Convention, moved to add an amendment...

Practical Instruction.

A gentleman not long since took up an apple to show a niece, sixteen years of age, who had studied geography several years, something about the shape and motion of the Earth...

How the Japanese Fish.

In walking along the banks we came upon a man fishing in a most peculiar way. He was perched on a low bridge leading over a stream that joined the canal...

The Heaviest Taxes.

The taxes are indeed heavy, said Dr. Franklin on one occasion, and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them...

Rudolph Wilkins killed his step-father in Prussia, because of his cruelty to his mother, and then fled to this country to avoid pursuit.

He sought in the wild excitement of the chase forgetfulness of his crime. One day he found the elk and buffalo, he was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years...

Kesiah Gamber, a girl of seventeen, living with her widowed mother in Cincinnati, had lately been receiving the attentions of a young man...

She was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years. While living with them, the grace of his person attracted the attention of the young daughter of the Indian Chief, and he married her, and in this wedlock they had a son and daughter...

The late Daniel Fainshaw, of New York, bequeathed a large part of his property to religious and philanthropic societies.

A codicil to his will gives a son an additional legacy of five lots of land, provided he shall abstain from the use of tobacco for a period of six months before the testator's death, and if after he gets possession of the lots, he should resume the habit of using tobacco, said property is to be taken from him and devoted to building a home for superannuated sober printers.

A woman in Detroit has brought an action against her husband to recover wages as a domestic.

It seems he procured a divorce from her eight months ago. She knew nothing about it, and lived with him, performing domestic duties, &c. One bright morning, she awoke, she speaks to him, much exasperated, she speaks to him, "Queer place out West, isn't it?"

The Prince of Wales will be accompanied to New York not only by a Secretary of State as representing the Crown, but by Her Majesty's first great officer of the household, and one who has been a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland...

thus to a certain extent representing the Queen herself, and adding an additional importance and dignity to the visit of the Prince. Tompey said he once worked for a man who raised his wages so high that he could only reach them once in two years.

The widow of Ossawatimie Brown has received $30,000 from her colored sympathizers in Hayti.

A high rent—a hole in the crown of your bad hat. Great minds have purposes; others have only wishes.

Disposing of Old Stock.

A pedlar of tin-ware, who had been traveling from plantation to plantation, in one of the Southern States, with his cargo of "notions," found but a limited sale for his lanterns...

Rare in Arabia.

Rarely, the horse-tamer, has been spending some time among the Arabs and their horses. In Jerusalem he literally "astonished the natives" in subduing the ferocity of the Paclia's stud...

A Star Destroyed by Fire.

The Russian correspondent of the London Telegraph writes thus: At Moscow a physical phenomena has been recently observed, such as would have given rise to the creation of a whole crop of fantastic myths in the times of the world's infancy...

Were Our Soldiers Murderers?

When resolutions of thanks to General Taylor were introduced into the House, Jan. 3, 1848, George Ashmun, the President of the late Chicago Convention, moved to add an amendment...

Practical Instruction.

A gentleman not long since took up an apple to show a niece, sixteen years of age, who had studied geography several years, something about the shape and motion of the Earth...

How the Japanese Fish.

In walking along the banks we came upon a man fishing in a most peculiar way. He was perched on a low bridge leading over a stream that joined the canal...

The Heaviest Taxes.

The taxes are indeed heavy, said Dr. Franklin on one occasion, and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them...

Rudolph Wilkins killed his step-father in Prussia, because of his cruelty to his mother, and then fled to this country to avoid pursuit.

He sought in the wild excitement of the chase forgetfulness of his crime. One day he found the elk and buffalo, he was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years...

Kesiah Gamber, a girl of seventeen, living with her widowed mother in Cincinnati, had lately been receiving the attentions of a young man...

She was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years. While living with them, the grace of his person attracted the attention of the young daughter of the Indian Chief, and he married her, and in this wedlock they had a son and daughter...

The late Daniel Fainshaw, of New York, bequeathed a large part of his property to religious and philanthropic societies.

A codicil to his will gives a son an additional legacy of five lots of land, provided he shall abstain from the use of tobacco for a period of six months before the testator's death, and if after he gets possession of the lots, he should resume the habit of using tobacco, said property is to be taken from him and devoted to building a home for superannuated sober printers.

A woman in Detroit has brought an action against her husband to recover wages as a domestic.

It seems he procured a divorce from her eight months ago. She knew nothing about it, and lived with him, performing domestic duties, &c. One bright morning, she awoke, she speaks to him, much exasperated, she speaks to him, "Queer place out West, isn't it?"

The Prince of Wales will be accompanied to New York not only by a Secretary of State as representing the Crown, but by Her Majesty's first great officer of the household, and one who has been a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland...

thus to a certain extent representing the Queen herself, and adding an additional importance and dignity to the visit of the Prince. Tompey said he once worked for a man who raised his wages so high that he could only reach them once in two years.

The widow of Ossawatimie Brown has received $30,000 from her colored sympathizers in Hayti.

A high rent—a hole in the crown of your bad hat. Great minds have purposes; others have only wishes.

Disposing of Old Stock.

A pedlar of tin-ware, who had been traveling from plantation to plantation, in one of the Southern States, with his cargo of "notions," found but a limited sale for his lanterns...

Rare in Arabia.

Rarely, the horse-tamer, has been spending some time among the Arabs and their horses. In Jerusalem he literally "astonished the natives" in subduing the ferocity of the Paclia's stud...

A Star Destroyed by Fire.

The Russian correspondent of the London Telegraph writes thus: At Moscow a physical phenomena has been recently observed, such as would have given rise to the creation of a whole crop of fantastic myths in the times of the world's infancy...

Were Our Soldiers Murderers?

When resolutions of thanks to General Taylor were introduced into the House, Jan. 3, 1848, George Ashmun, the President of the late Chicago Convention, moved to add an amendment...

Practical Instruction.

A gentleman not long since took up an apple to show a niece, sixteen years of age, who had studied geography several years, something about the shape and motion of the Earth...

How the Japanese Fish.

In walking along the banks we came upon a man fishing in a most peculiar way. He was perched on a low bridge leading over a stream that joined the canal...

The Heaviest Taxes.

The taxes are indeed heavy, said Dr. Franklin on one occasion, and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them...

Rudolph Wilkins killed his step-father in Prussia, because of his cruelty to his mother, and then fled to this country to avoid pursuit.

He sought in the wild excitement of the chase forgetfulness of his crime. One day he found the elk and buffalo, he was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years...

Kesiah Gamber, a girl of seventeen, living with her widowed mother in Cincinnati, had lately been receiving the attentions of a young man...

She was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years. While living with them, the grace of his person attracted the attention of the young daughter of the Indian Chief, and he married her, and in this wedlock they had a son and daughter...

The late Daniel Fainshaw, of New York, bequeathed a large part of his property to religious and philanthropic societies.

A codicil to his will gives a son an additional legacy of five lots of land, provided he shall abstain from the use of tobacco for a period of six months before the testator's death, and if after he gets possession of the lots, he should resume the habit of using tobacco, said property is to be taken from him and devoted to building a home for superannuated sober printers.

A woman in Detroit has brought an action against her husband to recover wages as a domestic.

It seems he procured a divorce from her eight months ago. She knew nothing about it, and lived with him, performing domestic duties, &c. One bright morning, she awoke, she speaks to him, much exasperated, she speaks to him, "Queer place out West, isn't it?"

The Prince of Wales will be accompanied to New York not only by a Secretary of State as representing the Crown, but by Her Majesty's first great officer of the household, and one who has been a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland...

thus to a certain extent representing the Queen herself, and adding an additional importance and dignity to the visit of the Prince. Tompey said he once worked for a man who raised his wages so high that he could only reach them once in two years.

The widow of Ossawatimie Brown has received $30,000 from her colored sympathizers in Hayti.

A high rent—a hole in the crown of your bad hat. Great minds have purposes; others have only wishes.

Disposing of Old Stock.

A pedlar of tin-ware, who had been traveling from plantation to plantation, in one of the Southern States, with his cargo of "notions," found but a limited sale for his lanterns...

Rare in Arabia.

Rarely, the horse-tamer, has been spending some time among the Arabs and their horses. In Jerusalem he literally "astonished the natives" in subduing the ferocity of the Paclia's stud...

A Star Destroyed by Fire.

The Russian correspondent of the London Telegraph writes thus: At Moscow a physical phenomena has been recently observed, such as would have given rise to the creation of a whole crop of fantastic myths in the times of the world's infancy...

Were Our Soldiers Murderers?

When resolutions of thanks to General Taylor were introduced into the House, Jan. 3, 1848, George Ashmun, the President of the late Chicago Convention, moved to add an amendment...

Practical Instruction.

A gentleman not long since took up an apple to show a niece, sixteen years of age, who had studied geography several years, something about the shape and motion of the Earth...

How the Japanese Fish.

In walking along the banks we came upon a man fishing in a most peculiar way. He was perched on a low bridge leading over a stream that joined the canal...

The Heaviest Taxes.

The taxes are indeed heavy, said Dr. Franklin on one occasion, and if those laid on by the government were the only ones we had to pay, we might more easily discharge them...

Rudolph Wilkins killed his step-father in Prussia, because of his cruelty to his mother, and then fled to this country to avoid pursuit.

He sought in the wild excitement of the chase forgetfulness of his crime. One day he found the elk and buffalo, he was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years...

Kesiah Gamber, a girl of seventeen, living with her widowed mother in Cincinnati, had lately been receiving the attentions of a young man...

She was made a prisoner by a tribe of Indians, who kept him with them three years. While living with them, the grace of his person attracted the attention of the young daughter of the Indian Chief, and he married her, and in this wedlock they had a son and daughter...

The late Daniel Fainshaw, of New York, bequeathed a large part of his property to religious and philanthropic societies.

A codicil to his will gives a son an additional legacy of five lots of land, provided he shall abstain from the use of tobacco for a period of six months before the testator's death, and if after he gets possession of the lots, he should resume the habit of using tobacco, said property is to be taken from him and devoted to building a home for superannuated sober printers.

A woman in Detroit has brought an action against her husband to recover wages as a domestic.

It seems he procured a divorce from her eight months ago. She knew nothing about it, and lived with him, performing domestic duties, &c. One bright morning, she awoke, she speaks to him, much exasperated, she speaks to him, "Queer place out West, isn't it?"

The Prince of Wales will be accompanied to New York not only by a Secretary of State as representing the Crown, but by Her Majesty's first great officer of the household, and one who has been a Lord Lieutenant of Ireland...

thus to a certain extent representing the Queen herself, and adding an additional importance and dignity to the visit of the Prince. Tompey said he once worked for a man who raised his wages so high that he could only reach them once in two years.

The widow of Ossawatimie Brown has received $30,000 from her colored sympathizers in Hayti.

A high rent—a hole in the crown of your bad hat. Great minds have purposes; others have only wishes.

Keep it before the People.

That Abraham Lincoln the Republican candidate for President, is the author of the "Irrepressible conflict" doctrine, and in the contest between himself and Judge Douglas for the Senate in Illinois, in 1858, he declared that free and slave States cannot exist together in the same Union.

Keep it before the People, That Abraham Lincoln was nominated by such men as Giddings, Greeley, Stevens, and Wilmot, men who hate the South and her institutions, and that an endorsement by these agitators fixes upon Lincoln the same sectionalism and disloyalty to the Union with which they stand convicted at the bar of public opinion.

Keep it before the People, That Abraham Lincoln, when in Congress, constantly opposed the Mexican war, and voted against furnishing our brave soldiers with the necessary supplies to keep them from starvation while nobly battling in the defense of the rights and honor of our country.

Keep it before the People, That when two sovereign States were called at the Convention which nominated Lincoln, they were hissed, and the word NATIONAL was on motion indignantly struck from the name of the party, thus acknowledging that they hate the South, and that the Republican party is a sectional party.

Keep it before the People, That the "People's Party" of Pennsylvania nominated and are now sustaining the Associated Republican candidate, and advocating his election.

Keep it before the People, That the "People's Party" of Pennsylvania, pretending to be the friends of protection to American industry, voted for a platform at Chicago which does not have the word protection in it, and that the Republicans now stand upon this platform.

Keep it before the People, That Hannibal Hamlin, the Republican candidate for Vice President, is in favor of FREE TRADE.

Keep it before the People, That the National Administration with fraud and corruption, voted unanimously, with one exception, for Mr. DeForest, of Indiana, for Printer of the House, who promised to the Republican caucus to set apart half the profits of the office as a political fund to carry the coming Presidential election for the Republicans.—York Gazette.

A Bitter Disappointment.

Mr. Charles Sumner's conscience seems to have admonished him that his late disgraceful speech in the Senate deserved some sort of punishment, for he prepared himself to endure another hearing, and is greatly disappointed that no energy was shown to step forward to inflict the anticipated flagellation. Mr. Sumner evidently calculated that his speech would create a sensation, and that another "outing" would follow it similar to the Brooks affair which would make his name familiar throughout the civilized world and inure to the immense advantage of the Republican party.

Colic in Horses.—A correspondent of the Southern Field and Fiveline says: "I notice in the last number of your paper a cure for colic in horses, contained in a letter from Mr. Thurmond, of Athens. Permit me, sir, to give you one much more simple and convenient. It is simply to pour cold water on the back of the animal for fifteen or twenty minutes. Pour the water on to the weather of the loins, so as to run profusely over sides and stomach. I have seen it tried in fifty instances. It will give almost entire relief in one hour."

The Troy Budget understands that John Morrissey, the pugilist, is to go immediately into training at the "Abbey," with a view of fighting Heenan in August. He has left New York, and expresses his determination to vanquish the Champion of the World, notwithstanding he (Morrissey) is threatened with consumption.

A wealthy young lady from the North came to Petersburg, Va., about four weeks ago, and, after vainly endeavoring to hide her shame, entered the poor-house, where she gave birth to a black child. She died soon after, in the institution where the child was born.

The New York Commercial Advertiser says Landy Franklin is about to visit this country, and that the North Atlantic Steamship Company have generously proffered her a free passage for herself, her niece and maid, in their magnificent steamship Adriatic, on her next trip from Southampton to New York.

Joseph Grimsley of Lawrenceburg, Indiana, hung himself a few days since, because a brother of his, after recovering from a trance, said he had been to Heaven, and it was revealed to him that all his relatives would go there except his brother.

Geo. W. Scott, a highly respectable citizen of Toledo, and said to be worth $60,000, and did not owe a dime, committed suicide a few days ago, by drowning himself through fear that he should come to want.

Why do men who are about to fight a duel generally choose a field for the place of action? For the purpose of allowing the ball to graze.

A short time ago a man became so completely "wrapped in thought" that he was tied up, labelled, and sent off on the "train of ideas."

The light in the world comes principally from two sources—the sun and the student's lamp. Physician's prescriptions are now called "death warrants in Latin."