The Republican papers snap up and and publish with immense gusto any what source they apprehend danger .-They fear union, and therefore they oppose it with all their might. They encourage disunion, because it plays directly into their hands. Particularly do these Opposition papers publish with satisfaction every treasonable word coming from their beloved friend and pensioned agent, Forney. Col. Forney says this, and Col. Forney says that in the Press, is to be found in every Republican and Abolition paper that we open. Col. Forney is an authority—a high Republican authority. And why not? It is perfectly proper that Col. Forney first evidence of Republican devotion to his interests.
