Further Attempt to Disorganize the Demovratic Party.-The traitor Forney does not appear to be satisfied with his efforts so far defeat and destroy the Democratic Party-Two years ago, he was busy in his efforts to defeat the party in this State. To do this he called his Altoona State Convention. That was done to defeat the State ticket. Then he exerted his influence to deteat as many Conpressmen as he could throughout the State.— In this Congressional district he openly advocated the election of John Wood, and the result was the defeat of the Democratic candidate. He has contributed his share to bring about the disruption of the party at Baltimore and rejoiced when he saw the thing was accomplished. Now, he is directing all his efforts to prevent the union of the Democratic party upon a single electoral ticket BECAUSE TIE IS REALLY IN FAVOR OF THE ELECTION OF Lincoln, and he know that Lincoln's chances will be best promoted by keeping up a schism in the Democratic party.
