

THE COMPILER.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 17, 1860.

OUR FLAG.

THE DEMOCRATIC STATE ELECTORAL TICKET!

- SENATORIAL ELECTORS: Hon. George M. Keim, Hon. Richard Vaux, Hon. C. Patterson, Hon. D. Jackson, Hon. J. C. Crockett, Jr., Hon. J. A. Hill, Hon. J. G. Brener, Hon. J. B. Danner, Hon. G. W. Jacoby, Hon. J. R. Crawford, Hon. C. Kelly, Hon. J. B. Howell, Hon. D. Schall, Hon. N. B. Fetterman, Hon. J. L. Leary, Hon. Samuel Marshall, Hon. S. S. Barlow, Hon. W. M. Book, Hon. T. H. Walker, Hon. D. H. Hamlin, Hon. S. W. Wickes, Hon. G. D. Church, Hon. J. A. Landach.

FOR GOVERNOR, HON. HENRY D. FOSTER, OF WESTMORELAND.

FOR CONGRESS, HON. WILLIAM P. SCHELL, OF BEDFORD COUNTY.

ASSEMBLY: HENRY J. MYERS, of Tyrone township. SAMUEL WOLF, of Berwick borough. HENRY A. PICKING, of Straban township.

PROSECUTORS: EDWARD McINTIRE, of Liberty township. JOHN EICHOLTZ, of Butler township.

COMMISSIONERS: WILLIAM B. GARDNER, of Huntingdon twp. HENRY DYBERT, of Germany township.

DIRECTORS: JACOB MILLER, of Reading township, 3 years. ISAAC FROUTZ, of Hamilton twp., 2 years.

Hon. Wm. P. Schell. This gentleman has received the nomination of the Democratic party of this district for Congress.

Democrat of Adams, you have a first-rate ticket—better in every particular than that of the Opposition.

To fill his columns week after week with fabrications of various grades—small and large—smooth and rough—as the editor of the Sentinel does; and then to brag in almost every issue, of his truth-telling qualities, as he is in the habit of doing, is a species of egotism so utterly cool and barefaced as to be beyond our reach of description.

The Sentinel, whilst it says that Mr. Samuel Wolf may be a "worthy man," seeks to stab him in a dastardly manner—thus:

"So many evidences have been given to us of his action towards men upon his own ticket, who were members of the Catholic Church, that we cannot shut our eyes to the effect of such action recurring upon himself."

"Tell us so!" And yet, in the face of the entire truth of such a malignant falsehood, the editor, week after week, repeats it, shielding himself behind the plea, "they tell us so!"

In Favor of Union.—We have a list of seventy-one Democratic papers in this State, that have declared in favor of the union of the party in support of one Electoral Ticket, upon the basis of the recommendation of the State Executive Committee.

The Tariff Cheat.

It may be interesting for the tariff men of Pennsylvania to know that the head of the New York Republican ticket is William C. Bryant, the editor of the Evening Post, and for forty years an unchanging Free Trade man.

The twelfth of these resolutions is called in some of the journals an approval of a higher tariff of duties. The Tribune seems to have fallen into the same mistake when it calls it a resolution in favor of a protective tariff.

While Mr. Curtis is holding up this same twelfth resolution as pledging the Republican party to a protective tariff, the head man on the New York electoral ticket flatly contradicts all his assumptions.

Voltaire Newton, a resident of Syracuse, New York, who, prior to 1856, was a prominent Whig, and always an admirer of the talents and integrity of Henry Clay, handed to the Union the following sentiment of that gallant Kentuckian:

"Whenever the Whig party shall become merged into a miserable sectional abolition party, I will renounce it forever, and in future wars with that party, regardless of its name, which stands by the Constitution and the Union, I will be its enemy."

The editor of the Sentinel, notwithstanding all his talk about "good old Whig times," supports an Abolitionist for President—one who was among the very first to strike down Henry Clay in 1848.

The Star managers, having failed in their Know Nothing experiment upon this county, are now—indeed, have been for the past several years—engaged in the up-hill work of coaxing and hugging into the support of their tickets the very classes of citizens whom they before so bitterly sought to proscribe, denouncing them with every term, no matter how unjust or opprobrious, which in their opinion was calculated, by working upon religious prejudices, to help the dark lantern cause.

But, cautious as they are, their old hatred will "strik out" occasionally. It must have vent, or they would explode. And as an instance of this, we need but refer to the Star of Friday week, in which the managers make the sweeping charge in regard to Gen. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, that he has "got the Catholic priests to work for him."

The slander is but a continuance of one of the Star's old games, and will have about the same effect. Its purpose to arouse an anti-Catholic feeling is easily perceived, and we allude to it only to show that the Star managers have not abated a tittle of their old dark lantern animosity toward a large and respectable body of our citizens. The public will "make a note of it."

The Star gives currency to a story that certain New York gentlemen have subscribed "one hundred thousand dollars," to carry this State for Gen. Foster.

But, cautious as they are, their old hatred will "strik out" occasionally. It must have vent, or they would explode. And as an instance of this, we need but refer to the Star of Friday week, in which the managers make the sweeping charge in regard to Gen. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, that he has "got the Catholic priests to work for him."

The slander is but a continuance of one of the Star's old games, and will have about the same effect. Its purpose to arouse an anti-Catholic feeling is easily perceived, and we allude to it only to show that the Star managers have not abated a tittle of their old dark lantern animosity toward a large and respectable body of our citizens. The public will "make a note of it."

The Star gives currency to a story that certain New York gentlemen have subscribed "one hundred thousand dollars," to carry this State for Gen. Foster.

But, cautious as they are, their old hatred will "strik out" occasionally. It must have vent, or they would explode. And as an instance of this, we need but refer to the Star of Friday week, in which the managers make the sweeping charge in regard to Gen. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, that he has "got the Catholic priests to work for him."

The slander is but a continuance of one of the Star's old games, and will have about the same effect. Its purpose to arouse an anti-Catholic feeling is easily perceived, and we allude to it only to show that the Star managers have not abated a tittle of their old dark lantern animosity toward a large and respectable body of our citizens. The public will "make a note of it."

The Star gives currency to a story that certain New York gentlemen have subscribed "one hundred thousand dollars," to carry this State for Gen. Foster.

But, cautious as they are, their old hatred will "strik out" occasionally. It must have vent, or they would explode. And as an instance of this, we need but refer to the Star of Friday week, in which the managers make the sweeping charge in regard to Gen. Foster, the Democratic candidate for Governor, that he has "got the Catholic priests to work for him."

The slander is but a continuance of one of the Star's old games, and will have about the same effect. Its purpose to arouse an anti-Catholic feeling is easily perceived, and we allude to it only to show that the Star managers have not abated a tittle of their old dark lantern animosity toward a large and respectable body of our citizens. The public will "make a note of it."

The Star gives currency to a story that certain New York gentlemen have subscribed "one hundred thousand dollars," to carry this State for Gen. Foster.

"That Ball!"

The Sentinel attempts to "puff" the Black Republican meeting in this place, on Tuesday evening, into immense proportions.

The meeting came far short of what was anticipated by its getters-up. Extraordinary efforts had been put forth, privately and publicly, to make it a "telling" demonstration.

It is said, too, that there was a larger proportionate turn-out of our colored population than of whites—a fact which must have greatly pleased the more radical, or "Simon Pure," Lincolnites.

Without public notice, a large number of the Democracy of Berwick township met at the house of Mr. Henry Lawrence, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., for the purpose of forming a Democratic Club.

Col. Henry Wolf was called to the chair; Samuel Miller and Samuel Hare were appointed Vice Presidents; Joseph Wolf and Jeremiah Cahoon acted as Secretaries.

By the way, why did not our split those rails? It may have even superior qualifications as a rail-splitter to the Abolition candidate for President, and if so, should certainly be properly honored.

Morton McMichael, Esq., of Philadelphia, made the speech. He indulged in a long apology for his absence, and then set in to abuse a better man than himself—the President of the United States.

Mr. McMichael, if he lives a dozen years, will be slow to acknowledge the language he used on Tuesday night in regard to James Buchanan. The speaker devoted considerable time to this matter, but failed to state that the Tariff was reduced in Congress by the votes of the New England and North-western Republican members.

We cannot undertake to refute one-half of the fabrications which the Sentinel is now so industriously engaged in hatching out. It is even trying to head-off the Star, and with no little prospect of success.

Among the Sentinel's last, we refer to the following, in regard to Hon. W. P. Schell, the Democratic candidate for Congress:

"At present, the Democrats do not know what kind of political principles he holds, and where he will stand. The result is, that the Douglas Democrats have no confidence in him, and the Breckinridge portion are a little afraid, and feel very strongly inclined not to go to the election at all."

The editor of the Sentinel need not bother himself about Mr. Schell's "political" principles, nor will he be his candidate any more, by penning such glaring and baseless falsehoods as he has crowded two into the above half-dozen lines. Democrats may differ upon the Presidency, but they do not, and will not, differ in reference to the duty of supporting so sound a Democrat and so able a man as Hon. W. P. Schell. The Sentinel may hope and strive for division among the Democracy, but cannot procure it—and least of all by untruths so palpable as those we quote.

We call attention to the address of the Hon. Wm. H. Wilson, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, which will be found in today's Compiler. For a document of importance it is brief, and exhibits in a lucid style and nervous language, the peculiar position of the Democratic party at the present time, the duty which every Democrat owes to his country in the crisis, and the only means in the use of which we shall be able to rescue our beloved Commonwealth and the whole Union from the hands of the "Philistines," which are against the rights and interests of our common country.

We heartily commend this address to all Democrats, and earnestly solicit them to reflect calmly on the advice contained in it, and to use the means which it suggests.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

Congressional Conference.

The Democratic Conference of this Congressional District met in the Court-house at Chambersburg, on Tuesday last, for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress.

On motion, Hon. Wilson Reilly was chosen President, and C. M. Barton Secretary. The following Conference were present: Adams—W. R. White, Robert McClarf and Frederick McIntire.

The Conference then proceeded to vote, and the Hon. Wm. P. Schell was declared duly nominated on the first ballot.

Without public notice, a large number of the Democracy of Berwick township met at the house of Mr. Henry Lawrence, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., for the purpose of forming a Democratic Club.

Col. Henry Wolf was called to the chair; Samuel Miller and Samuel Hare were appointed Vice Presidents; Joseph Wolf and Jeremiah Cahoon acted as Secretaries.

By the way, why did not our split those rails? It may have even superior qualifications as a rail-splitter to the Abolition candidate for President, and if so, should certainly be properly honored.

Morton McMichael, Esq., of Philadelphia, made the speech. He indulged in a long apology for his absence, and then set in to abuse a better man than himself—the President of the United States.

Mr. McMichael, if he lives a dozen years, will be slow to acknowledge the language he used on Tuesday night in regard to James Buchanan. The speaker devoted considerable time to this matter, but failed to state that the Tariff was reduced in Congress by the votes of the New England and North-western Republican members.

We cannot undertake to refute one-half of the fabrications which the Sentinel is now so industriously engaged in hatching out. It is even trying to head-off the Star, and with no little prospect of success.

Among the Sentinel's last, we refer to the following, in regard to Hon. W. P. Schell, the Democratic candidate for Congress:

"At present, the Democrats do not know what kind of political principles he holds, and where he will stand. The result is, that the Douglas Democrats have no confidence in him, and the Breckinridge portion are a little afraid, and feel very strongly inclined not to go to the election at all."

The editor of the Sentinel need not bother himself about Mr. Schell's "political" principles, nor will he be his candidate any more, by penning such glaring and baseless falsehoods as he has crowded two into the above half-dozen lines. Democrats may differ upon the Presidency, but they do not, and will not, differ in reference to the duty of supporting so sound a Democrat and so able a man as Hon. W. P. Schell. The Sentinel may hope and strive for division among the Democracy, but cannot procure it—and least of all by untruths so palpable as those we quote.

We call attention to the address of the Hon. Wm. H. Wilson, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, which will be found in today's Compiler. For a document of importance it is brief, and exhibits in a lucid style and nervous language, the peculiar position of the Democratic party at the present time, the duty which every Democrat owes to his country in the crisis, and the only means in the use of which we shall be able to rescue our beloved Commonwealth and the whole Union from the hands of the "Philistines," which are against the rights and interests of our common country.

We heartily commend this address to all Democrats, and earnestly solicit them to reflect calmly on the advice contained in it, and to use the means which it suggests.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

LOCAL NEWS.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.—The Annual Commencement exercises of the institutions in this place come off this week.

Baccalaureate Sermon yesterday, by Rev. Dr. Haugher; Alumni Address of the Theological Seminary, Tuesday evening, by Rev. Mr. Albert, of Germantown; Exhibition of Junior Class, Wednesday morning; Biennial Oration, before the Philomathean Society, Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. C. P. Knauth, D. D.; Address before the Linnean Association on the same afternoon, by Hon. Wm. Jessup, L. L. D.; Address before the Alumni of College, Wednesday evening, by Rev. J. B. Bittinger; Exercises of Graduating Class, Thursday morning.

EXAMINATION.—The Summer Session of the Gettysburg Female Institute closed on Friday week, by a public examination of the Young Ladies connected with the Institution. We regret that we could not, on account of other engagements, accept the invitation to be present, as these public exercises are always interesting and pleasant.

For the Compiler.—The good editor of the Star is shocked almost out of his self-possession at the treatment his ward, the Honorable Mr. Reilly, receives at the hands of his political adversaries; and particularly at the part you have taken in the play.

Without public notice, a large number of the Democracy of Berwick township met at the house of Mr. Henry Lawrence, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., for the purpose of forming a Democratic Club.

Col. Henry Wolf was called to the chair; Samuel Miller and Samuel Hare were appointed Vice Presidents; Joseph Wolf and Jeremiah Cahoon acted as Secretaries.

By the way, why did not our split those rails? It may have even superior qualifications as a rail-splitter to the Abolition candidate for President, and if so, should certainly be properly honored.

Morton McMichael, Esq., of Philadelphia, made the speech. He indulged in a long apology for his absence, and then set in to abuse a better man than himself—the President of the United States.

Mr. McMichael, if he lives a dozen years, will be slow to acknowledge the language he used on Tuesday night in regard to James Buchanan. The speaker devoted considerable time to this matter, but failed to state that the Tariff was reduced in Congress by the votes of the New England and North-western Republican members.

We cannot undertake to refute one-half of the fabrications which the Sentinel is now so industriously engaged in hatching out. It is even trying to head-off the Star, and with no little prospect of success.

Among the Sentinel's last, we refer to the following, in regard to Hon. W. P. Schell, the Democratic candidate for Congress:

"At present, the Democrats do not know what kind of political principles he holds, and where he will stand. The result is, that the Douglas Democrats have no confidence in him, and the Breckinridge portion are a little afraid, and feel very strongly inclined not to go to the election at all."

The editor of the Sentinel need not bother himself about Mr. Schell's "political" principles, nor will he be his candidate any more, by penning such glaring and baseless falsehoods as he has crowded two into the above half-dozen lines. Democrats may differ upon the Presidency, but they do not, and will not, differ in reference to the duty of supporting so sound a Democrat and so able a man as Hon. W. P. Schell. The Sentinel may hope and strive for division among the Democracy, but cannot procure it—and least of all by untruths so palpable as those we quote.

We call attention to the address of the Hon. Wm. H. Wilson, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, which will be found in today's Compiler. For a document of importance it is brief, and exhibits in a lucid style and nervous language, the peculiar position of the Democratic party at the present time, the duty which every Democrat owes to his country in the crisis, and the only means in the use of which we shall be able to rescue our beloved Commonwealth and the whole Union from the hands of the "Philistines," which are against the rights and interests of our common country.

We heartily commend this address to all Democrats, and earnestly solicit them to reflect calmly on the advice contained in it, and to use the means which it suggests.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

LOCAL NEWS.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.—The Annual Commencement exercises of the institutions in this place come off this week.

Baccalaureate Sermon yesterday, by Rev. Dr. Haugher; Alumni Address of the Theological Seminary, Tuesday evening, by Rev. Mr. Albert, of Germantown; Exhibition of Junior Class, Wednesday morning; Biennial Oration, before the Philomathean Society, Wednesday afternoon, by Rev. C. P. Knauth, D. D.; Address before the Linnean Association on the same afternoon, by Hon. Wm. Jessup, L. L. D.; Address before the Alumni of College, Wednesday evening, by Rev. J. B. Bittinger; Exercises of Graduating Class, Thursday morning.

EXAMINATION.—The Summer Session of the Gettysburg Female Institute closed on Friday week, by a public examination of the Young Ladies connected with the Institution. We regret that we could not, on account of other engagements, accept the invitation to be present, as these public exercises are always interesting and pleasant.

For the Compiler.—The good editor of the Star is shocked almost out of his self-possession at the treatment his ward, the Honorable Mr. Reilly, receives at the hands of his political adversaries; and particularly at the part you have taken in the play.

Without public notice, a large number of the Democracy of Berwick township met at the house of Mr. Henry Lawrence, on Monday evening, the 10th inst., for the purpose of forming a Democratic Club.

Col. Henry Wolf was called to the chair; Samuel Miller and Samuel Hare were appointed Vice Presidents; Joseph Wolf and Jeremiah Cahoon acted as Secretaries.

By the way, why did not our split those rails? It may have even superior qualifications as a rail-splitter to the Abolition candidate for President, and if so, should certainly be properly honored.

Morton McMichael, Esq., of Philadelphia, made the speech. He indulged in a long apology for his absence, and then set in to abuse a better man than himself—the President of the United States.

Mr. McMichael, if he lives a dozen years, will be slow to acknowledge the language he used on Tuesday night in regard to James Buchanan. The speaker devoted considerable time to this matter, but failed to state that the Tariff was reduced in Congress by the votes of the New England and North-western Republican members.

We cannot undertake to refute one-half of the fabrications which the Sentinel is now so industriously engaged in hatching out. It is even trying to head-off the Star, and with no little prospect of success.

Among the Sentinel's last, we refer to the following, in regard to Hon. W. P. Schell, the Democratic candidate for Congress:

"At present, the Democrats do not know what kind of political principles he holds, and where he will stand. The result is, that the Douglas Democrats have no confidence in him, and the Breckinridge portion are a little afraid, and feel very strongly inclined not to go to the election at all."

The editor of the Sentinel need not bother himself about Mr. Schell's "political" principles, nor will he be his candidate any more, by penning such glaring and baseless falsehoods as he has crowded two into the above half-dozen lines. Democrats may differ upon the Presidency, but they do not, and will not, differ in reference to the duty of supporting so sound a Democrat and so able a man as Hon. W. P. Schell. The Sentinel may hope and strive for division among the Democracy, but cannot procure it—and least of all by untruths so palpable as those we quote.

We call attention to the address of the Hon. Wm. H. Wilson, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, which will be found in today's Compiler. For a document of importance it is brief, and exhibits in a lucid style and nervous language, the peculiar position of the Democratic party at the present time, the duty which every Democrat owes to his country in the crisis, and the only means in the use of which we shall be able to rescue our beloved Commonwealth and the whole Union from the hands of the "Philistines," which are against the rights and interests of our common country.

We heartily commend this address to all Democrats, and earnestly solicit them to reflect calmly on the advice contained in it, and to use the means which it suggests.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

The Star and the Sentinel both fail to mention an important occurrence at the Republican meeting on Tuesday evening. A balloon had been prepared, with the name of the Opposition candidates thereon, to be sent up immediately preceding the organization.

SAD ACCIDENT.

A sad accident, of a most distressing character, happened in South Washington street in this place on Saturday evening last. Matthew, son of Mr. Estlin Z. Little, whilst in the act of getting off of a two-horse wagon, loaded with wood, missed his footing, upon the double-tree, and fell to the ground, the front wheel passing over his body, and so seriously injuring him, in the spine and otherwise, as to cause his death in less than an hour's time. The lad was aged about 10 years. His remains were interred in Ever Green Cemetery yesterday evening, followed to the grave by a large concourse of mourning relatives and friends.

One of the largest Owls ever saw was captured, alive, one day last week, by a son of our friend DAVID HEMEN, of Mountpleasant township. The bird was somewhat disabled before it was taken, but is all right now. It is an owl as it was owl.

An Appalling Calamity.

The steamer Lady Elgin, which left Chicago on Saturday night week, with three hundred and fifty persons on board, including several military and fire companies, was run into by a schooner, and sank in twenty minutes in three hundred feet of water. Three hundred of the three hundred and fifty persons on board were lost.

The Roomfort committee have announced a straight-out Douglas electoral ticket for this State. They strike eleven names from the regular ticket made by the State Convention and substitute others. The ticket and Union says: "There is little doubt that the good sense of the persons placed on this disorganizing ticket will lead them to withdraw, if not, immediately, certainly before many weeks."

MARRIED.

In Gettysburg, on Tuesday, 11th inst., by Rev. J. H. W. GEORGE JOHNS to Miss LUCETTA HALDEMAN, both of Adams co. On the 8th ult., at Mr. Anglin's Hotel, in Carlisle, by the Rev. G. E. Adams, Mr. JOSEPH LANGLER to Miss SALLIE S. PLANK, both of Berks county, Adams co.

DIED.

Yesterday, in this place, Mrs. CATHARINE HERBST, widow of Jacob Herbst, deceased, in her 71st year. Funeral at 9 o'clock to morning. (Funeral) morning, both of Adams co. On the 30th ult., at the residence of her grand-mother, (Mrs. J. E. Neely), near Hampton, N. N. GOLDSBROUGH, daughter of Dr. Goldsborough, aged 6 months.

Special Notices.

WISTAR'S BALM OF WILD CHERRY.—This balm has been celebrated by the community for its relief of all kinds of rheumatism, neuralgia, and curing the most obstinate, painful and long standing cases of Cough, Cold, Influenza, Sore Throat, Diphtheria, Whooping Cough, Croup, Bronchitis, Indigestion of the Lungs; while, even Consumption itself has yielded to its magic influence when all other means have failed. Its whole history proves that the past has produced no remedy of equal value, as a cure for the numerous and dangerous pulmonary affections which prevail all over the land.

THE REV. JACOB SCHELLER.

Well known and much respected among the German people of this country, makes the following statement for the benefit of the afflicted: HANOVER, Pa., Feb. 10, 1859. Messrs. Seth W. Fowler & Co., Boston.—Dear Sir:—Having read in my family important benefits from the use of your valuable preparation—Wistar's Balm of Wild Cherry—it affords me pleasure to recommend it to the public. Some eight years ago one of my daughters, a child of five years, was afflicted with Rheumatism of the Neck, and throughout the hopes of her recovery were entertained. I then procured a bottle of your excellent Balm, and before she had taken the whole of the contents of the bottle there was a great improvement in her health. She was cured, and has since made frequent use of your valuable medicine, and has always been benefited by it. I would, however, caution the public against imitations, because there is a good deal of spurious Wistar's Balm in circulation, and it is not the same as the original. I have used your Balm, and it has cured me of the Rheumatism of the Neck, and I can testify to its efficacy. J. SCHELLER.

THE GREAT ENGLISH REMEDY.—SIR JAMES CLARKE'S CELEBRATED FEMALE PILLS.—Prepared from a prescription of Sir J. Clarke, M. D., Physician Extraordinary to the Queen. This invaluable medicine is unerring in the cure of all those painful and dangerous diseases to which the female constitution is subject. It moderates all excess and removes all obstructions, and a special cure may be relied on. Married Ladies it is peculiarly suited. It will, in a short time, bring on the monthly period with regularity. Each bottle, price One Dollar, bears the Government Stamp of Great Britain, to prevent counterfeits.

CAUTION.—These Pills should not be taken by females during the first three months of Pregnancy, as they are sure to bring on Miscarriage, but at any other time they will succeed. In all cases of Rheumatism and Spinal Affections, Pain in the Back and Limbs, Fatigue on slight exertion, Palpitation of the Heart, Hysteria and Whites, these Pills will effect a cure when all other means have failed, and do not contain iron, calomel, antimony, or any thing hurtful to the constitution. Full directions in the pamphlet around each package, which should be carefully preserved. Sole Agents: United States and Canada, JOB MOSS, (Late I. C. Baldwin & Co.) Rochester, N. Y. N. B.—$1 and 50 cent postage stamps enclosed on any authorized Agent, will insure a bottle, containing a copy of the Pills, by return mail. June 11, '60. 1859.

GETTYSBURG—SATURDAY, SEPT. 17.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Superfine Flour, Rye Flour, White Wheat, Red Wheat, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Timothy Seed, Flax Seed, Plaster of Paris, Linseed ground, per bag.

BALTIMORE—FRIDAY, SEPT. 15.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Flour, Rye Flour, White Wheat, Red Wheat, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Timothy Seed, Flax Seed, Plaster of Paris, Linseed ground, per bag.

PANUYAN—THURSDAY, SEPT. 14.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. Includes Flour, Rye Flour, White Wheat, Red Wheat, Corn, Oats, Potatoes, Timothy Seed, Flax Seed, Plaster of Paris, Linseed ground, per bag.