It is recommended by the leading medical authorities and is highly approved by all who storatire; and persons who lead a sedentary life will find their nervous and general system strengthened and improved by its use.

The great object of this medicine is: First. To purify the system of all morbid matter, and impart to the blood such properties as to make it new, pure, SECOND. To cleanse the stomach and howels of acrid humors, scidity, and all mucus matter, which cause so many and fatal diseases. To soften and relieve stricture of the skin, and thus establish a healthy and natural flow of the "insensible perspiration.'

To impart tone and strength to the digestive organs, and give great vigor nd vitality to all the organs of the body. To cradicate all diseased, impure, and poisonous particles from the blood, fiesh, and bones, and effect their complete expulsion from the body.
To counteract the ill effects produced by the use of mercury, and to remove all scorbutic eruptions, arising from whatever cause. Ask for Sands' Sarsaparilla and take no other. Prepared by A. B. & D. SANDS. Dragists, 100 Fulton St., cor. of William, N. Y For sale by A. D. BURHLER, Gettysburg, Pa. Sept. 24, 1850. 1m
