The boast was frequently made before the election, that Edward McPherson, the Black Republican candidate for Congress, would sweep this county, being a native and a resident of it, by at least 300 majority, and the most extraordinary efforts were put forth to reach that figure. But the result, instead of increasing, pulls his majority of 126, in 1858, down to 84! Certainly not a very complimentary endorsement of his course by his more immediate fellow citizens.
