Now as no one supposes that the Southern people will ever make slaves of us at the North, it follows that the intention of this party is, that Northern freemen shall leap over the oundaries of the Constitution and make free the slaves of the South." We hope that Ifeaven will commend this sound advise to the conscience of all Caristains and law-revering men.

The Crisis.

A correspondent of the New York Herald, has recently made a visit to the flon. Alexander II. Stephens, and conversed with him freely upon the probable results of Lincoln's election, at the South. Mr. Stephens' answer to the direct question : What course would be pursued at the South on the happening of such an event ? is given as follows :

at seconsion and revolution. I have viewe with painful apprehension the approaching orisis for years past. Fifteen years' experience in Congress has qualified me to become somewhat intinately acquainted with the tem-per and feeling of our people ; and I am satisfied beyond a doubt that, in the event of Lincoln's election, there will be at least an

And yet this not of Van Lilism was left for a Wilkes-Barre Wide Awake to consummate! Oa Fridiy evening last, the Democrats held a nmbia county, Stanley Woodward and E. B. Chase, Bsqs., of Witkee-Burre. The meeting was well attended, and all its doings were characterized by good order. A flig waved from the speakers' stand, which was sliowed to remain there when the meeting adjourned. The Wilkes-Barre Wide Awake Club, which had paraded the streets early in the evening, went to Scranton, and returned about one or two o'clock in the morning. As these worthies approached the Square, one of them was manaurs, was signing there one day with a los seen to walk up to the stand where the flag of boon companions, when the Methodist was uniled, and deliberately applying his torch to it, burned it from the pole.
