TYPE DECK

The Confrient is published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STARLE, at $1 75 per annum if paid strictly IN ADVANCE-$2 00 per annum if not paid in advance. No subscription discontinued, unless at the option of the publisher, until all arrearages are paid.

ADVERTISENENTS inserted at the usual rates. Jos PRINTING done with neatness and dispatch.

OFFICE in South Baltimore street, directly opposite Wamplers' Tinning Establishment -"CONFILER PRINTING OFFICE" on the sign.

PROPESSIONAL CARDS.

Wm. B. McClellan.

A TTORNEY AT LAW.-Office in West Mid-die street, one door west of the new Court House. Br H. J. STAHLE. i flouse. Gettysburg, Nov. 14, 1859. 43d Year.

A. J. Cover, A TTORNEY AT LAW, will promptly attend to Collections and all other business en-trusted to bim. Office between Fahnestocks' and Danner & Ziegler's Stores, Baltimore street, Sent 5 1859. Gettysburg, Pa. [Sept. 5, 1859.

Wm. A. Duncan,

TTORNEY AT LAW .- Office in the Northwest corner of Centre Square. Gettysburg, [Oct. 3, 1859. tf

Edward B. Buehler.

A TTORNEY AT LAW, will faithfully and promptly attend to all business entrusted He speaks the German language --Office at the same place, in South Baltimore street, near Forney's drug store, and nearly opposite Danuer & Ziegler's store. Gettysburg, March 20.

J. J. Herron, TIONEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. — Office on Baltimore street, nearly oppo-site Fahnestock Brathard' Store Fahnestock Brothers' Store. Gettysburg, Oct. 1, 1860. tf

D. McConaughy,

A TTORNEY AT LAW, (office one door west of Buehler's drug and book store, Cham-Parsons street.) Arrowsky and Soliciton For Parsons and Parsions, Bounty Land War-rauts, Back-pay suspended Claims, and mil other claims against the Government at Wask-ington, D. C.; also American Claims in Eugland, Land Warrants located and sold, or hought, and highest prices given. Agents engaged in lo-cating warrants in lowa. Illinois and other western States. Apply to him personally or by letter. Gettysburg, Nov. 21, '53.

J. C. Neely, A TT. DRNEY AT LAW, will attend to collec-tions and all other business intrusted to her care with promptness. Office in the S. E. cornsr of the Diamond. (formerly occupied by Wm. B. McClellan, Esq.) Gettysburg, April 11, 1859. if

Dr. A. W. Dorsey,

FORMERLY of Carroll county, Md., having permanently located in Gettysburg, offers his professional services to the citizens of the town and surrounding country in the practice of the various branches of his profession. Office and residence, Baltimore street, next door to The compiler office, where he may be found at all times when not professionally engaged.

UKPENESCES.	• •
Prof. athan B. Smith, Baltimore	, Md.
Roy. Augustus Webster, D. D., B.	itimore Md.
Dr. J. L. Warfield, Westminster,	Md.
Dr. W. A. Mathins, "	••
Jacob Reese, Esq., "	44
John K. Longwell, Esq., "	**
Geo. E. Wampler, Esq., "	"
Rev. Thomas Bowen, Gettysburg.
Oct. 25, 1858. 6m

J. Lawrence Hill, M. D.-AS his office one door west of the Lutheran church in Chambershurg street, and opposite Picking's store, where those wishing to have ony Dental

Che Muse.

THE BAINBOW.

Where is thy dwelling-place ?

Emblem of happiness !

'Twas nothing-a mere idle word From careless lips that fell, Forgot, perhaps, as soon as said, And purposeless as well.

- But yet, as on the passing wind
- Is borne the little seed, Which blooms unheeded, as a flower,

Or as a noisome weed----So often will a single word, Unknown, its end fulfil,

And bear, in seed, the flowers and fruit. Of actions good or ill.

LITTLE ANGELS.

There's many an empty cradle, There's many an empty bed, There's many a louely bosom, Whose joy and light are fled; For thick in every graveyard The little hillocks lie, And every hillock represents An angel in the sky.

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL.

"TECTH IS MIGHTY AND WILL PREVAIL."

GETTYSBURG, PA., MONDAY, NOV. 19, 1860.

pard or the fierce wolf that came to prey on the flocks of the valley. him her heart had chosen. But where is His cousin Jaleph was scarcely inferior to him in manly sports. They had grown up together, and loved each other like brothers. Arnette was dark—Jaleph fair. Arnette's "You k "I know not." black, clustering locks were like the raven's wing; Jaleph's shone like the golden sunshine on the sea. Arnette's dark eyes youth, grieved to the heart with the suspicion flashed out their fire under his deep brows; which these quick questions conveyed. Jaleph's reflected the hues of the cerulean Both were brave, and strong, and heroic.

the flocks of the valley.

If Arnette lad more strength and dignity, met." Jaleph had more skill and grace. One was statelier in his walk; the other more ærial in the dance. Both loved Tamar. In a thousand ways each told his love. Arnette presented her sod. with a gorgeous plume of the bird of para-dise. Jaleph wove for her a garland of He "What is that ?" cried Arnette. matchless beauty, made of shells and flow-ers. Arnette trained for her a horse fleet as the antelope ; Jaleph learned to play the melodies which filled her innocent slumber with enchanting dreams.

might be happy; I have found him, that thou mays he happy with him thou lovest. Let me be the brother of both." The time came when Tamar also saw and felt the noble cousins loved her with more The arms of both were twined around than brotherly love. Arnette, the more imhim. Who shall say that he was less happy "Tamar," he said, "beautiful Tamar, I in his generous self-sacrifice than they in their mutual love ?

Miscellancous.

stopped a moment in surprise at the dark brow of Arnette, and the tearful distress of Mr. Green, the famous diver, tells singular occasion over a bottle of wine with you, but stories of his adventures when making really I am too poor, even for that, just now; search in the deep watars of the ocean. He 'yet I trust we may meet again when this his beloved Tamar. He grew pale, as his heart told him the decisive hour had come. With frankness that belonged to the age of heroic innogenco-before centuries of selfshness, repacity, poverty, and crime with a state of contain which my divings search in the deep wstars of the ocean. He yet I trust we may meet again when this will not be so." The voyage to New York was successful. The voyage to New York was successful.

selfishness, reparity, poverty, and crime The banks of coral on which my divings as all had marred the bodies and deformed the were made are about forty miles in length, dent. souls of men—he held out one hand to his and from ten to twenty in breadth. On this and from ten to twenty in breadth. On this souls of cosh alorned. "I, too, hore you, beautiful Tamar." said the youth with the blue eyes and golden har. "Gol of our fathers, witness my deep-love! here we stand! Choose between us!" A pang shot through the heart of each is but they stood; each nobly resigned to the site that await dim. Tamar looked on each. So long had she loved both, with the puro love of saintly maidenhood, that the deeper love not sit is studded with coral col-word a myriad of pyramidical pendents. "I hope you got it in short order, the each of the more loffy sup-rest a myriad of pyramidical pendents. "I hope you works to get a shot with the port to see the souls of the more low with a frequent of the source of saintly maidenhood, that the deeper love note of saintly maidenhood, that the discreased her, port a myriad of pyramidical pendents, each maidenhood, that the prove of saintly maidenhood, that the performance is the prove of the more loffy sup-the to pyramidical pendents, each work a more than a prevent. The tops of the more loffy sup-the tops of the more lo

Robert Fulton, the Inventor. Among other anecdotes of the first experiments of Robert Fulton, the following from the pen of R. N. Haskins, of Buffalo, has been lately sent us; it was first publish

The confident of Jaleph came and whispe-red to Tamar that her lover had gone. The rose that had left her checks now fled from her ligs; she sank faintingly on the flower which at the time to publish what he Jake's "tile" from his head, and maliciousher lips; she sank faintingly on the flowery related, which, however, so far as I know, ly wafted it to the edge of the well, and in he has never done. I have several times it tumbled.

related the facts as they where told me, and ing ready to leave, and hearing that his with a mose, he concluded to save time by his lips upon her lovely forehead, and said ing ready to leave, and hearing that his with a noose, he concluded to save time by to her mother: "I will bring him to her or craft was to return to New York, I repair going down into the well himself. To aced on board, and inquired for Mr. Fulton.

"Yes. sir." "Do you return to New York in this boat?"

"We shall try to get back, sir." "Can I have a passage down ?" You can take your chance with us, sir."

"I inquired the amount to be paid, and after a moment's hesitation a sum, I think The Golden Age lives in dim traditions six dollars, was named. The amount, in little fun, so he quietly slipped up to the and poetic dreams. It lives, also, in every coin. I laid in his open hand, and with his horse, and unbuckling the bell-strap, apheart that is generous and noble. He who eve fixed upon it, he remained so long mo-proached with slow measured "ting-a-ling" can love without selfishness is a hero of the tionless that L supposed there might be a the edge of the well. GOLDEN AUE. "G-d dang that miscount, and said to him. "Is that right, "G-d dang that old blind horse!" said sir?" This roused him as from a reverie, Jake, "he's a-comin' this way sure, and

The Bottom of the Ocean-Interesting Revelations of a Diver. Mr. Green, the famous diver, tells simular occasion over a bottle of wine with you, but

Jake Willard and the Blind Horse---A Laughable Story. The Mobile Register is responsible for the following mirth-provoking incident : For twenty-three years, old Jake Willard has cultivated the soil of Baldwin county, ly indressed, was barring her out with all and drawn therefrom a support for self and wife. He is childless. Not long ago, Jake door far enough open to disclose the stat-

TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR.

Now Jake had always practiced the virtue complish this, he made fast one end of the In a week from that day the brave Arnette I was referred to the cabin, and I there found led his cousin to the cottage of Tamar, and a plain, gentlemanly man, wholly alone, on his way down the well. placing their hands together, said, "Take and engaged in writing. him. Tamar; he is thine! The fled, that I might be hannys. I have found him the the the the the the table, and the properties of the table to the table table to the table table to the table t to die, was lazily grazing within a short distance of the well. The devil himself or some other wicked spirit put it into Ned's cranium to have a

-d dang that old blind horse !" said and as he looked up at me the big tear was! ain't got no more sense than to fall in here. brimming in his eye, and his voice faltered | Whoa, Ball!" as he said, "Excuse me, sir; but memory | But the continued approach of the "ting-

"shin" it up the rope. "Great Jerusalem," said he, "the old dirt into it. "Oh, Lord!" exclaimed Jake, falling upon

On last Friday morning an athletic young farmer, in the town of Waynesham, took a fair girl, "all bathed in blushes," Front, her parents, and started for the first town across the Pennsylvania line to be married, where the ceremony could be performed without a license. The happy pair were accompan-ied by a sister of the girl—a tall, gaunt, sharp-featured female of some thirty-seven summers. The pair crossed the line, were married, and returned to Wellsville to pass the night. People at the hotel where the wedding party stopped observed that they conducted themselves in a rather singular manner. The husband would take his sis-ter-in-law, the tall female aforesaid, in one corner of the parlor and talk enmestly to ner, gesticulating wiklly the while. Then the tall female would "put her foot down" and talk to him in an angry and excited manner. Then the husband would take his fair young bride into a corner, but he would no sooner commence talking to her than the gaunt sister would rush in between them and angrily join in the conversation. The people at the botel ascertained what this NO. 7. neant by about nine o'clock that evening. There was an uproar in the room which had been assigned to the newly-married couple. Female shricks and maculine "swears" startled the people at the hotel, and they rushed to the spot. The gaunt female was pressing and kicking against the door of the room, and the newly married man mostly undressed, was barring her out with all

Rough Beginning of the House door far enough open to disclose the stal-wart husband in his gentleman Grock Slave apparrel. It appeared that the tall female insisted upon occupying the same room with the newly-wedded pair, that her sister was fav-orably disposed to the arrangement, and that the husband had agreed to it before the wedding took place, and was now indignantly repudiating the contract. "Won't you go away, now, Susan, peaceful ?" said the newly-married man, softening his voice. "No," said she, "I wont—so there." "Don't you budge an inch!" cried the

"Now, now, Maria," said the young man o'Now, now, Maria," said the young man to his wife, in a pitcous tone, "don't go to cutting up in this way: now dont!" "'I'll cut up's much's I wanter!" she sharp-by roplied ly replied, "Well," roared the desperate man, throwing the door wide open, and stalking out among the crowd, "well, jest you two wimon his way down the well. It is a fact, of which Jake was no less ob-livious than the reader hereof, that Ned Wells was in the dilepidated building afore-said, and that an old blind horse, with a bell on his neck, who had been turned out a direct in the dilepidated building afore-said, and that an old blind horse, with a bell on his neck, who had been turned out a direct in the dilepidated building afore-said, and that an old blind horse, with a bell on his neck, who had been turned out a direct in the dilepidated building afore-said, and that an old blind horse, with a bell on his neck, who had been turned out a direct interference and afore a building afore-to a hundred; bring can all here, and I'll and afore interference and afore a building afore-to a hundred; bring can all here, and will afore interference afore a building afore-and afore a building afore-building afore-and afore a building afore-and afore a building afore-building afore-and afore a building afore-a a buildin all slop together !" The difficulty was finally adjusted by the tall female taking a room slone. Wellwille and Plaindealer.

A country girl whose sisters had mar-ried badly was about to take the noose herself.

"How dare yet get married," asked a cousin of hers, "after having before you the unfortunate example of your sisters "

The young girl replied with spirit: "I choose to make a trial myself. Did you ever see a parcel of pigs running to a trough of hot swill? The first one sticks in his nose, gets it scalded, and then draws back and squeals. The second burns his nose and stands squealing in the same manner. The third follows suit, and he squeals too. But still it makes no difference with those behind. They never take warning of those before; but all in turn thrust in their noses, just as if they hadn't got burnt or squealed at all. So it is with girls in regard to matrimony—and now, cousin, I hope you are satisfied."

Operation performed are respectfully invited to Call. Rarganaces: Drs. Horner, Rev. C. P. Kranth, D. D., Hev. H. L. Bungher, D. D., Bar. Prof. M. Incobs, Prof. M. L. Stuver. Gettysburg, April 11, '53.

• Merchants' Hotel. C NORTH FOURTH STREET. PHILADELPHIA. C. M'Ribbin & Son, Proprietors. April 2, 1860. 15*

Lime Factory

farming community in particular, that they have erected two spacious LINE KILNS, at the corner advanced civilization. of Stratton street and the Railroad, and are dise. The mountains, whose glittering her daughter's falling tears. now burning, and will continue to burn, large quantities of the BEST LIME, which they will dispose of at the lowest living rates. Farmers and others are invited to give them a call. By supplying a good article, which they expect always to do, they canno: fail to give satisfac-Aug. 20, 1860. If

New Fall and Winter

CLOTHING, for Men and Boys, with every) article of wearing apparel in that line, together with Boo's, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Trunks, led the trees with purple clusters. The "arpet Sacks, Double Birrel Guns and Pistols. Revolvers, and a splendid article of the improved and celebrated Colt's Revolver, with all the necessary fixtures to it. Buffalo Robes and Nature, for the food of man. Over Shoes, India Rubber Over Costs and Leg ings, Hosiery, &c., Guiters, Fiddles, Flutes, and Fifes, Jewelry and Watches: together with Gettysburg, Oct. 15, 1860.

Furs! Furs! Furs!

TADIES' FANCY FUR EMPORIUM. FAREIRA & THOMPSON, Old Stand, No. 818 Market Street, above Eiglith, south side, Puiladelphia. We beg leave to call the attenof LADIES' & CHILDREN'S FANCY FURS.

confidently offer our new stock to the inspecdescription of American and European Furs. manufactured in the latest and most approved styles. Capes, Talmas, Victorines, Cloaks, Cuffs-embracing Sable, Mink, Stone Martin, Germ in Fitch, Siberian Squirrel, Freuch Sable, French Squirrel, American Fitch, aud Silver Martin.

rence.

sage.

"Thankful for the very liberal patronage heretofore extended to us, we hope to merit a continuance of the same, by furnishing a good article at the lowest Cash prices. FAREIRA & THOMPSON.

No. 818 Market street, Philadelphia. N. B .-- OLD FURS altered to fashiouable youth, had held the place now held by her [Uct. 6, 1860. 3m styles.

Second Arrival

THIS FALL -Irarger Stock than Ever! JACOBS & BRU, have just received their As she wandered along the romantic banks second purchase of Fall and Winter Goods, of the river, in the dewy morning, the blue second purchase of Fall and minter doods, of the river, in the dewy morning, and bruk which they offer cheaper than ever, having bought the most favorable rates. They ask the public to call in and see their large assort-and shrubs nodded their homage; the flowment, convinced that every taste can be grati-fied. Their CLOTHS, CASSIMERES, VESTexcelled for variety, and then the low prices at which they are offered are really astoniahing. Good made up at the shortest notice, in the be expected. Their establishment is in Cham-theibbirg street, a few doors below Buchler's trous white, and crowned with choicest Det. 15, 1860. Howers. tare she walked-its queen-robed in lus-ALL at TYSON & BRO'S gallery of. Phois the art, Gettysburg, Pa.

Story Book.

eweet flowers filled the air with fragrance, and all the melodious birds with song-was could be so no longer. The happy time had gathered one of those happy groups of fam- passed. ilies into which mankind were divided in splendors and vices and cruelties of more greet them. What is it, my children?" she asked, in The Vile of Roses glowed like a new para-love thee!

" Dear Arnette !" breathed from the open

Her lovely face, which had been radiant with happiness was clouded now with doubt and perplexity. Arnette saw, and asked again, in deep, subdued tones, "Ohenutirul one, wilt thou be mine?"

The queenly girl covered her face with her hands, and burst into tears.

Juleph that moment came upon them, holding in his hand an offering of flowers. He heart of the innocent maiden.

"Wilt thou be mine?"

peaks were like a jewcled crown, surrounded the valley, and shielded it from the cold 'Dear mother!" cried Tamar, "how can I choose between those I love ?" blasts of the Siberian wilds. Silver casoades The mother smiled; but the smile was dashed down the precipices, through ever-not free from sadness. green trees, flowering shrubs, and long, "My daughter," she replied, "there must pendant vines. The emerald green sward be one whom we love above all others." "Mother, mother !" said the poor girl, that sloped down to the river was beepan-"Mother, mother!" said the poor girl, gled with a thousand gay and odorous flow. as she buried her face in her bosom : "both greas: the clumps of shrubbery were filled me all my life, how can I hurt one or the with delicious berries ; and grape vines load- other !" Again the sad smile.

Come with me, my daughter : you, my choicest fruit grew spontaneculy, and the upland terraces were covered with wheat children, go. In seven days Tamar shall and barley, sowed by the lavish hands of answer you.

groups of rustic cottages-small, simple, weeping girl, and walked away hand in rude in structure, but so embowered with hand. There was no rancor or jealously in foliage and surrounded with spreading their noble hearts. It is true that each one many other useful articles, all of which will foliage and surrounded with spreading their noble hearts. It is true that each one at SAMSON'S, where every one can bur good that each old which with spreading felt the happiness of his life was at stake. horses neighed in the rich postures, and their rival pretensions left to the darkness attended by shepherds and shepherdesses, blood. dressed in simple but graceful robes, and Arnette and Jaleph were together, a crowned with flowers. With the lowing and ever, in their light labors and their manly open; ridiculous !" bleating of the herds, the softened roar of pastimes. Two days had passed, and they sion of the Ladies, to our large and varied stock the distant cascades, the murmur of the were swimming in the river. Whether exsummer breeze, the hum of bees, were min- hausted by exercise, or weakened by emo Having had great experience, and enjoying gled the melodies of rude shepherds' pipes, ition, Jaleph could not swim with his usual peculiar facilities in the selection of Furs, we and chorusses of happy children at play.— (strength. Soon his golden locks were seen The old p-ople-their venerable heads cov. to sink beneath the waves. His sinewy tion of the ladies, feeling assured that they will decide with us in its being unrivalled for be u-ty and variety, consisting as it does, of every of their youth, or relating the tradition of and the next moment plunged beneath the their ancestors, and the events of their own surface. In a few moments he hore him to early days, to the young people who gathe- the shore, where he soon recovered. red around them, tull of affection and reverence. In this happy village of the almost forgot-ten past, the wisest governed by his coun-nette pierced the fierce animal's heart and sels and the most broutful way owner, but it is rural from death form death from death from death for a large form death from death for a large form death for a large form death from death for a large form death from death for a large form death form death for a large form death form death for a large form death form d sela and the most beautiful was queen.saved his rival from death. Where all were lovely as perfect health, freedom from care, and innocence could spoken to Tamar. They had but seen her the owner much less expense, and a greater i make them. Tamar was the most beautiful, at a distance. Each had refrained from profit, according to the capital invested and a sher grandfather, Olm, was esteemed most every offering or sign of love. Their loyal

The mother of Tamar, who, in her hearts would not permit them to take advantage of each other. daughter. was esteamed for her virtue and On the eve of the seventh day, they met wisdom, as much as she had ever been ad- in the assembly that gathered to prepare penter, while engaged, recently, in pulling mired for her loveliness. The beautiful the morrow's festival. Tamar was beloved by all-old and young.

tioned in solicitude, declared for the golden- bitten by a rattlesnake. In a few moments Arnette, her appreciation of his noble quali- | tural size, and a red streak commenced runties, and her thankfulness to him for twice ning up his hand and wrist. A deadly look at him with such a glow of admiration dim, clearly indicating that the subtle poiers sent up their incense of perfume; the and gratitude, that Jaleph's heart sank with him. He went forth and wept. It seemed plain to him that the question edy was tried, merely by way of experiment, birds warbled their melodies for her delight:

Among all the youths who admired fair The first, Gettysburg, Pa. The first, Gettysburg, November 29th, The first, Gettysburg, November 29th, p'es now in ruins. There were countless varieties of diminua'arm, as she saw their sorrowful faces and tive trees, shrubs and plants in every crevice ent from plants I am familiar with that vegetate upon dry land. One in particular attracted my attention ; it resembled a sea fan of immense size, of variegated colors, and of the most brilliant hue.

Fanny Fern's " Acc" of a Husband .- A lady having remarked that awr is the most delicious feeling that a wife can hold toward her husband. Fanny Fern thus comments. trimmed, whose hair you have cut, whose Springfield Republican. They kissed the mother's hand held out cravat you have tied, whose shirt you have Nature, for the food of man. They kissed the mother's hand held out out out of the solution of have kicked into the closet, whose drewing (A distinguished candidate for an office of wood-pile, and a corresponding circus bill, a gown you have worn while combing your high trust in a certain State, who is "up to mile from here?"

hair, who has been down in the kitchen a thing or two," and has a keen appreciawith you at 11 o'clock at night to hunt for and Valid United For the provide the set of their love, however, was a mode of settling dresses, unlaced your bonnet: who has dential reasons: horses neighed in the rich pastures, and their rival pretentions in the two manness is the section is that of your product s. flocks of sheep and goats gave beauty and and ferocity of succeeding ages, when the admiration to the land-scape. These were earth should be stained with crime and blood. stood before your looking-glass with thumb

> Small Farms and Plenty of Manure .- H. P. Sloan, in the Rockford Register, talks right to the point, as follows: If a farmer has but forty or eighty acres to cultivate, and has a stock-yard or barn, to which he draws all his grain to thrash, and there lets his stock live through the winter, I will kiss an equal number of the handconverting all his straw into manure, he can make manure enough to keep the forty or Again they were hunting the leopard in the mountains. Jaleph fell, and the wild

Bite of a Ratilesnake Cured in Two Hours .-The Potersburg Express publishes the following from a reliable correspondent: A cardown an old house, and in removing some Tamar had decided. Her heart, ques of the rotten timbers near the ground, was naired musician. But her love and pity for his finger was swollen to four times its nataving the life of her chosen one, made her languor came upon him, and his vision grew near them; sweet-eyed gaselles approached of his hife was decided. He would not which, to the surprise of all present, acted her without fear. In this harmony of na- wait for the morrow. Revealing his plan like a charm, the component parts of which to one faithful friend he went forth into were onion, tobacco and salt, of equal parts, darkness, and bade adieu to the happy val- made into a poultice and applied to the wound, and at the same time a cord was

When the morrow came, Arnette repaired bound tightly about the wrist. In two Tamar, two of the worthiest aspired to favor to the lovely cottage of Tamar. She was hours afterwards he had so far recovered as of her love. Arnette was one of the bravest pale, but more than ever beautiful. As she to be able to resume his work. I knew an

The tavern keeper was fond of fun, and

They took drinks, when the stranger

he suffers a good deal with the Chicago dip-

"And what's that?" asked the todd-stick-

"It's when the truth settles so firm in a you think so-are you acquainted with him?'

"Why then do you come to such a conclu-

"'Cause, he takes ten neuespapers and pays for

A Constable pursued a thief who took efuge on a stump in a swamp, and pulled

Sightable-conversable-non est-comata

£4

"No. sir. I never saw him."

Inthe Factory illes into which mankind were divided in As the group stood, hand in hand, in the face of the water, as if those loftier columns and the mother of two children. The prin-a big raft, one of the regular old fashioned the face of the water, as if those loftier columns and the mother of two children. The prin-a big raft, one of the regular old fashioned were towers belonging to those stately tem-spectfully inform the public in general, and the subset and cruelties of more greet them. progressed and he prospered. One day a the raft was a mile long, and he said to himlady visited his editorial rooms to lay her self, "I will go forth and see this great won- "stripes signifying the union of thirteen of the coral, where the water had deposited modest contribution on his table in hopes der, and let my eyes behold the timbers the least earth. They were all of a faint of getting some remuneration for it. Her which the hand of man hath hewn." So hue, owing to the pale light they received, story was told briefly-her husband had he got on at the lower end, and began to although of every shade, and entirely differed come to mend his fortunes in the land of ambulate over the wood in pretty fair time. gold, and had died, and she was left very | But just as he got started, the raft started | acted by Congress that the United States fing poor, with her two children to support. too, and as he walked up the river, it walk-The editor looked at the lady a moment ed down, both traveling at the same rate. then handed her a doubloon. The astonish- When he got to the end of the sticks, he ed woman essaved to utter thanks, but was | found they were pretty near ashore, and in | for every new State, the addition to be made waved away. To shorten the story, the lady is given is one indication and walked on the 4th of July following the admission was his early love, and-he married her, straight into the bar-room he'd come out of. sold out his establishment, returned to New The general sameness of things took him a York, and is now enjoying as much felicity little aback, but he looked the landlord on the banks of the Hudson as it falls to steadily in the face, and settled it in his "Awe of a man whose whiskers you have the lot of few printers even to conceive .-- own way. "Publican." said he. "are you gifted with theria !"

that. "

sion ?'

them in advance."

er.

a twin brother, who keeps a similar sized tavern, with a duplicate wife, a comporting Kissing the Handsomest Girls.

tion of live beauty, when about to set off on | accordingly said it was just so.

you have seen asleep with his mouth wide, would promote my popularity, and so I have of the same he had. thought it would be a good plan for me to > public reception. Don't you think it would be a good idea ?" "Capital!" exclaimed the devoted wife.

> "and to make your election a sure thing, while you are kissing the handsomest girls, man that none of it ever comes out. Comsomest young men!" The distinguished candidate, we believe, mon doctors, of the catnip sort, call it lyeighty acres in a good condition for growing has not since referred to this pleasing means in'. When I left your brother's confectionery, there was a raft at his door, which he of popularity. swore his life to was a mile long. Well

How a Negro Came to Steal Turkeys .- A publican, I walked that rait from bill to t il story is told of Dick, a darkey in Kentucky, from his door to your's. Now, I know my Theseventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had fencing to make and keep in repair, leaving the seventh day approached. Neither had the owner much less expense, and a greater hood were charged to him. On one ool you ever did see. I always will a will a the seventh day approached to him. casion Mr. Jones, a neighbor of Dick's masexactly twenty minutes, on a good road, ter, called and said that Dick must be sold and I'll be busted with an overloaded Injir out of that part of the country, for he had gun if I've been moren' ten minutes comstolen all his (Mr. Jones') turkeys. Dick's ing here, steppin' over the blamed logs at master could not think so. The two, how-ever, went into the field where Dick was at work, and accused him of the theft: stole Mr. Jones' turkeys," said the master. "No, I didn't, massa," responded Dick.-The master persisted, however. "Well," at length said Dick, "I'll tell you, massa. I didn't steal dem turkevs: but last night when I went across Mr. Jones' pasture, saw one of our rails on de fence, so I brought home de rail, and, confound it, when come to look, dare was nine turkeys on de rail !"

the rail after him on which he went in. The "Tom, what's monomany ?" "Why constable made the following return:you see, Dick, when a poor man steals it is called larceny; but when it's a rich 'un, ble-in swampum-up stumpum-railo." the jury says it's monomany, and can't help it : that's it.'

Why is it that Louis Napoleon cannot insure his life? Because no one can be found to make out his policy. A bachelor editor who had a pretty sister, recently wrote to another bachelor equally fortunite, "pleme axchange."

THE COLDEN AGE.
In the far-off Golden Age, which historians and not set of the more lofty superised and distressed her.
In the far-off Golden Age, which historians and poets described in the poets described plump turkey served up for his dinner, and inquired of his servant how it was obtained ? The young men looked in each other's the way better the served up for his dinner, and saddened cyes, and each one felt that it could be so no longer. The happy time had passed. As the group stood, hand in hand, in the fence."

The Stars and Stripes .- Washington seems to have been the inventor of the thirteen This flag was raised in January, olonies. 1776, and was confirmed by Congress in 1777, with the addition of thirteen stars on a blue field. On the 4th of April, 1813, it was enshould consist of thirteen stripes, alternate ly white and red, with twenty stars, white on blue field, and that one star should be added of each State.

Bad Luck and Good Luck.-Bad luck is simply a man with his hands in his pockets and his pipe in his mouth, looking on ip see how it will come out. Good luck is a man of pluck with his sleeves rolled up and working to make it come right. 💦 👘

Infidelity and Showing.—A plantar on Black River, Louisiana, who had a very hard one Creole wife, recently employed to bing Kentuckian as an overseer. Having the second to suspect some lurking design on the part of the over-eer, he watched him and dis covered his wife in his embraces. The planter got a double-barreled shot min. and, seeing the gay Lothario coming out of his wife's room kissing her, he blazed away at the Kentuckian, killing him on the spot. kies a number of the handsomest girls in said, "Publican, that twin brother of your's He leveled the other barrel at the guilty every place where I may be honored with a is a fine young man-a very fine man, in- woman, but missed, and she made good her deed. But do you know, I'm afraid that escape.

-----Growth of Pennsylvania .- The Philadelphia American estimates that the present census will show an increase in population of eight or nine hundred thousand, and that the total population will be not far from three millions.

Fire Thousand Bushels of Wheat on One Farm. -The Monks of La Trappe, at Malleray, near Dubuque, have raised upward of five housand bushels of wheat on their farm this year. This is but one item, and not the largest of their products.

Two thin shoes make one cold ; two colds one attack of bronchitis ; two attacks of bronchitis one mahogany coffin.

Flying Childers." He performed fours. miles and three hundred and eighty yards was honest and intelligent. What makes in seven minutes and a half, which is at the rate of over thirty-three miles per honr.

> Mrs. Burdell Cunningham was married but a few months since, in Galifornia, and her new husband, it is said, has already left her a widow.

rar We must not undervalue physicians. Perhaps the fabric of society would full without them. They are its pillers.

A punster passing by the shop of Mr. Taswell, observed that his name would be spelt As well without the T.

-----Picture of despair-a poor pig with Tor In Warren county, N. C., a man is its nose through a garden fence, almost touching a cabbage stalk. now residing whose mother was sixty years old at the time of his birth

We aked ours, the other day, what following in its notices to contained the following in its notices to contained