THE NEW YEAR'S ADDRESS The Carrier of The Compiler.

Jan. 1, 1981. KIND PATRONS : I am here again this morning— Is the Carrier "all forlora,"— To give you all fair warning That another year is born.

I am weary, very weary, And my heart is almost broken;

Ah! this world is very dreary Without a friendly token. I have come again to greet you, And to drive your cares away, And, my friends, I hope to meet you

In a brighter, happier day. But there is a certain matter

That pains me very much ; Just present me with a Quarter, And my feelings you will touch.

All hail ! all hail! auspicious day! Thou day of joy and gladness! Thou hast returned to chase away Our sorrow and our sadness.

Without thee, what were life on earth But one grand scene of trouble? Without thee, all our moral worth Were but an empty bubble.

Another twelvemonth has gone by Since last we had a New Year ; Another season has drawn nigh When we should make good cheer.

Said one of old-and he well knew,-"There is a time for all things;" So let us then our duty do,

And condescend to small things.

O, how many weary journeys Has the Carrier made through town, With his brief for lean Attorneys, And his nonsense for the Clown.

With his "Markets" for the Merchant And his "Married" for the single ; With his "Deaths" for skillful Doctors, And his Stories a la Cringle.

In return for this great favor It is meet that you should buy An Address from this young shaver,

And light up his youthful eye. In the year that's just departed, Oh, how many tics were riven:

Oh, how many plans were thwarted And how many farewells given ! The deed is done! let angels weep,

And clothe themselves in mourning; Our blessed Union now is rent,--Let tuture States take warning.

Distracted are the councils now

He may (or not) shed copious tears, And see about his pay. He doubtless will spit out a few

Harangues for sake of show. 'Twas said that Becker could not fail The Sheriff to become; But Samuel Wolf was sent to jail, And Becker staid at home

We can't with safety say :

Old Metzgar said that he would bet That Wolf said so and so, By which he thought some votes to get,

But it was all no go. Though Bailey and Martin outrun Gentlemen of high desert,

We Eicholtz and Gardner won. Miller, Pfoutz and Dysert.

The field of November was gained By Abe and his "Wide Awake" force-The Union, thus struck at and maim'd, Is stopp'd in its onward course.

Let patriots pause-think and pause! By justice let peril be stayed-In fairness and love let the laws, obscure our political, social and financial atmosphere, is the earnest wish of THE CARRIER.

In fairness and love let the laws, ALL, be fully obeyed. So now, my friends, I leave you, I leave you with regret; May naught occur to grieve you, O'r in any manner mar the pleasures not only of this testal day, but also of the year upon which we have just entered. Through the evil actions and still worse counsels of a certain dare-devil party of the North, ren-dered desperate by the desire of plunder, our once glorious country, purchased by the blood of many of Freedom's gallant sons, is now rent in twain. That kind Heaven may avert the dangers that now menace us, and dis-perse the black and ominous clouds which obscure our political, social and financial stmosphere, is the earnest wish of THE (LARRIER.

At Lyons, when that city became the the-atre of daily executions, a woman learned by chance that her husband's name was on that the nails were sold as he bought them in shipping the goods;' but he answered that the North, who will be sent South-men of the North, who will be sent Souththe the nais were sold as he bought them men of the vorth, who will be sent south, who will be sent south, avert the impending destruction by secur-ing his immediate flight. Curious Geological Fact .- In a field, the property of Mr. Renton, situate a short distance from the point where the Leeds and Liverpool canal is crossed by the Midland Company's Railway, at Idle, near Bradford, is a considerable hill, or piece of rising ground, which has been noticed to be gradual v attaining greater elevation during a peiod extending over the last thirty years.-There are even young men who remember the field being quite level, whereas now there is a high mound near the middle of it. The cause of this singular elevation has given rise to much speculation. Some per-sons suppose that it is owing to the upward pressure of water in the bowels of the earth.
