

Virginia Legislature—The "Gun Question." The Senate on Friday week, adopted the following resolutions as a substitute for those from the House on the same subject: Whereas it has come to the knowledge of the Legislature that a large number of heavy guns, manufactured at Fort Mifflin, near the capital of Virginia, under an order of the Ordnance Department at Washington, D. C., have been ordered to Fort Monroe, where they are not only needed for the purpose of intimidation and menace to Virginia at present, and of actual hostilities in a certain contingency, that may change her future relations to the federal government and the non-slaveholding territory it represents;

Special Notices. THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.—For years medical science has been laboring with the discovery of a remedy for the disease known as Dyspepsia, which is a most distressing ailment, and which has long been a scourge to the human race. No medicine existed which would speedily, permanently, effectually, and radically cure and expel these diseases from the system until Dr. Green made his discovery of THE OXYGENATED BITTERS.
