The "Compiler" will be furnished from this time until after the October Election at 25 Cents!

PERSONAL.—We need money badly, and will be a very great relief to our friends and patrons who furnish us with a little of the "useful" without delay. If they cannot pay all, let them at least give us a part of that to which we are justly entitled, in order to relieve us from our embarrassments. We think we have been very indulgent, and therefore hope to meet with a ready response to what we exercise to be a reasonable request. Persons at a distance can remit by mail, at their risk. Come, friends, give us a little without delay. We must have money to keep the wheels of the old Compiler in motion.

REGIMENTAL REVIEW.—Saturday last was a grand military day here. Early in the forenoon, the uniformed companies composing this brigade (Adams county) began to arrive, and as they did so were properly received by the town company. Men, women and children also came pouring in, altogether making up one of the largest crowds ever seen in this place. After all the companies had arrived, a parade through the principal streets was had, the line presenting a most attractive appearance. We give a list of the several officers:

Brigade Major, (Cavalry) Capt. Florence; Major Home Guards, Capt. Collins; Independent Johnsen, A. Reynolds; Capt. Plank.

Major Blanks, Mount Rock, Capt. Miller; Independent Blues, Gettysburg, Capt. Buehler; Zouaves, Gettysburg, Capt. Sumwalt; Adams Rifles, Gettysburg, Capt. McConaughy.

College Guards, Gettysburg, Capt. McCrory; Fairfield Zouaves, Lieut. McNeill's commanding.

National Guards, New Oxford, Capt. Pfeiffer; Scott Zouaves, Abbottstown, Capt. Royal; Bendersville Home Guards, Capt. Walter; The Blues' Band.

At 3 o'clock, the grand parade, or regimental review, came off—under the command of Lieut. Col. H. Buehler, Capt. Frank Herz, Major A. A. Duncan and Capt. C. B. Haines. Adj.-Lieut. E. G. Fahnestock acting Adjutant. The review was a very gratifying sight to the throng of spectators, and the degree of efficiency generally shown was much admired. The companies looked well and drilled well. This closed one of the liveliest days in the history of Gettysburg.

The Independent Blues, having returned to their homes, rested, sent their friends and arranged their business, are about re-organizing and re-enlisting for the war. Most of the old members will return, but as the complement for each company is now 101 instead of 77 men, quite a number of new recruits will be needed to fill up the company. The company will be joined to a regiment now forming in York and Adams counties for the special service of guarding the railroad lines and such other property as the government may take under its protection. Those wishing to enlist for the war, and to be assigned a pleasant position, ought not to hesitate in joining Capt. BUEHLER's company. They will be going under one of our best Captains in the field.—Star.

Capt. JOHN HORSER, of Mountjoy township, is about raising a Cavalry Company, for three years or during the war—to be attached to the Brigade authorized to be raised by Ex-Gov. Thomas, of Maryland. We understand that the ranks are fast filling up. Application should be made immediately.

Miss CAROLINE SHEADS will open a Boarding School in this place on the 2d of September. Miss S. is admirably qualified, by experience and education, to make a successful principal, having been for several years connected with one of the best female academies in the country. Her card will be found in another column.

The Frederick (Md.) Herald says that Thomas H. D. Neal, Esq., of that city, who was recently arrested by Federal authority, has been released on his parole.

SABBATH SCHOOL CELEBRATION.

On Monday last, the Methodist Episcopal Sabbath School of New Oxford, had a very interesting celebration in the beautiful grove on the Cowwage, near that town. The number of children present was large, and in the course of the day the grove was visited by many spectators not connected with the school. The following order for the celebration was observed: At the appointed time the members of the school and friends who meant to accompany them, met at the church, from which, after religious exercises, the wagon started for the grove. The exercises there were introduced by the singing of a hymn and offering of a feeling and appropriate prayer. The children were then questioned by their Superintendent, Dr. Hendrix, and this was followed by an able address by Rev. Mr. Koehlan, which closed the morning exercises. An excellent and plentiful repast was then served by the friends of the school and ample justice was done to the acceptable viands. The exercises of the celebration were all of a religious character, but abounded with interest, and it is a fact worthy of mention and entitled to commendation, that during the day there was not the slightest breach of decorum. The school returned about five o'clock in the afternoon, and was dismissed. Much praise is due those who originated, arranged and superintended the celebration, for the excellent order which characterized it, the complete success which attended it, and the unqualified satisfaction afforded all who participated in it.—Haver Post.

Two wagon loads of drugs and other contraband goods were seized on Friday by the pickets of Captain McPherson's company. First Pennsylvania Regiment, at Phillips' Cross Roads, en route for Pope's Creek, whence they were to be taken into Virginia. A detachment from the troops stationed at Annandale Junction were sent out in command of Captain Barton, and arrested Mr. Drummond, of Baltimore, who had the goods in charge, together with the drivers. All were taken to the Junction, and the prisoners detained for the present.—Sentinel.

Mr. MICHAEL FRET, of Cumberland township, a few days ago, sent us a pair of splendid Peaches, one of them measuring 9 inches strong in circumference. The fruit grown by Mr. Fret will compare with any other grown in the county. The specimens placed before us are very "hard to beat."

Zachariah Myers, Esq., has bought out Samuel Herch's Livery, and will go into partnership with Nicholas Weaver. The firm of Weaver & Myers will have the largest stock ever had by any livery here. We hope for them the liberal encouragement of the public.

J. J. HENRICK, Esq., has resigned the Second Lieutenantcy in Capt. McPHERSON'S company, which has been accepted.

Capt. Diller, of Hanover, who was in the three months' service, is engaged in raising another company for the war. He has already met with gratifying success.

The work of the reunion of the Democratic party in New York is progressing. The Mozart Hall committee had a meeting on Monday night, when resolutions endorsing the call of the State committee for a convention of the Democratic party, and extending the olive branch of peace to Tammany, were unanimously adopted. A committee was appointed to confer with the German Democratic central committee relative to a complete union of the party.—Good!

Dr. H. E. Howell, of New York, says that the most effectual remedy to improve the tone and energy of the stomach is the "Ovenated Bitters." For Dyspepsia and Indigestion these Bitters are unparalleled, as testify numerous cures.

The Duties and Rights of Citizens.—The Government owes every citizen protection—protection of life, property and liberty. In return for this protection every citizen owes the Government obedience. He may question the wisdom of laws, but he has no right to refuse to obey them. His personal property, his possessions, even his life, constitute part of the resources of Government, upon which it may draw in cases of necessity. In despotic governments not only is this power over persons and property unlimited, but rulers endeavor to exercise supervision over the thoughts and opinions of their subjects. Men seldom say what they think or think what they say. A word uttered in opposition to the conduct of the government, or the policy of the ruler, is liable to imprisonment and punishment. He may faithfully perform all his duties as a subject, but he ventures to express an opinion against the ruler, he is treated as a rebel.

Either the one or the other must give way, and arbitrary power always suppresses freedom of speech and opinion. But the freedom of opinion does not include the right to force one's opinions upon others, or to exercise supervision over the thoughts and opinions of their subjects. Men seldom say what they think or think what they say. A word uttered in opposition to the conduct of the government, or the policy of the ruler, is liable to imprisonment and punishment. He may faithfully perform all his duties as a subject, but he ventures to express an opinion against the ruler, he is treated as a rebel.
