"When You is About, We is."—The Booneville correspondent of the Cincinnati Daily Commercial writes: These Missouri niggers know a great deal more than the white folks give them credit for, and whether Missouri goes for the Confederacy or for the Union, her slaves have learned a lesson too much to ever make them useful as slaves. I was struck with the apt reply of one of a crowd who came from a big house to the road to see us pass the other day. Says I, "Boys, are you all for the Union?" "Oh, yes, massa, when you's about we is." "And when Price comes you are Secesh, are you?"—"Lord, yes, massa, wo's good Secesh then. Can't allow de white folks get head niggers in dat way." The darkey understood the whole question and the game played.

"The mother clasps the enfeebled form and watches night and day its agony, with fears and cries; but there's a hand more strong than her despair, that rends it from her bosom."

Oh, death! Thou hast torn from the embrace of fond parents their eldest and much loved daughter. She was a beautiful and interesting girl. She who but a short time ago, we beheld full of life and vigor; whose cheek was flushed with the warmth and beauty of childhood, and whose sweet manners attracted the attention and commanded the praise of all who knew her—is no more to be seen by those whose hearts are now bleeding o'er the destruction of the fondly cherished hopes which her early promise could not have failed to inspire. She suffered much during an illness of eleven days, and great was the interest excited for her and for her parents, in those who witnessed her sufferings. All the efforts of medical skill and kind neighbors could not save her from the destroyer's grasp. She spoke of death; she told her friends she was dying, and that she wanted to go to heaven. But she will no more feel pain; she has left the pale clay and gone to the bosom of her Savior—He, who when on earth, took little children in his arms and blessed them; and said "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not: for such is the kingdom of heaven."

Thy will, Almighty God, be done,
Methinks the parents cried.
As mournfully they gazed upon
Their cold and lifeless child.
Thy sweet and silvery tones are mute,
And thy fair glossy hair
Is shrouded in thy narrow bed,
Which thou hast gone to share.
Shall we repine that thou hast fled
From all life's ills below?
And that its little griefs and cares
Thy spirit ne'er can know?
Oh! no, oh! no, 'twere better far,
In this thy early bloom,
With thy young heart all happiness,
To sink into the tomb. M. J. B.

Sister, sister, why dost thou not answer?
Say, has thy spirit forever fled,
And left this world of care and trouble,
To mingle with the glorious dead?
Oh, we would not call thee back again,
To walk life's thorny road;
But leave thee to enjoy thy slumbers
And reap what thou hast sow'd.
Farewell, sister, fare thee well,
We will not weep for thee;
For we know that all is well,
And long to be in heaven with thee.

Dearest Johnny, here we miss thee,
Miss thee from thy childish play;
But thou art with the angels,
And thy pains are washed away.
We miss thy sweet and gentle smile,
That gave us joy while here;
But thou art now with God in Heaven,
Removed from pain and death and fear.

LINES ON THE DEATH OF OUR FRIEND J. A. REED.

Farewell to thee, our love was thine,
Though thou from us wast torn,
The sighs of grief which fill our mind,
Shall ne'er to thee be told.
We'll think of thee, when absent long,
By death's strong fatal blow,
We'll breathe at times the mournful song,
O'er him whose head lies low.
There shall the long and green grass grow
And shade his narrow bed,
And there the silvery moon light show
Its beams upon his head.
Thy kindred hearts doth yet a sigh
Of pungent sorrow know,
Thy pallid form doth meet our eyes
And cause our cheeks to glow.
And when young hearts beat high with hope,
And thought to gain his love,
Just then a voice was heard to say,
We love him here above.
Who then in unkind words could say,
He was no friend of mine;
The meek and gentle smile he bore
Spoke hidden things divine.
Then let us live in godliness,
To-morrow's not our own,
That when we're parted here on earth,
We may meet around God's throne.

☞Earl Russel, in a late letter to Sir Charles Wyke touching the late rumor that the Archduke Maximilian would be called to the throne of Mexico, says: "If the Mexican people, by a spontaneous movement, place the Austrian Archduke on the throne, there is nothing in the Convention to prevent it. On the other hand, we could be no parties to forcible intervention for this purpose."

Assessors.—The Revenue System of the State will be remodelled this winter, with the view of meeting the unexampled condition of the country. It is, therefore, important that at the approaching township elections special care should be taken in selecting persons to serve as Assessors.

Special Notices.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla is a concentrated extract of Para Sarsaparilla, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an effective antidote for diseases Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is surely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove of immense service to this large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on many of the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:—

Scrofula and Scrofulous Complaints, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases, Ulcers, Pimples, Blotches, Tumors, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Syphilis and Syphilitic Affections, Mercurial Diseases, Dropsy, Neuralgia or Tic Doloreux, Debility, Dyspepsia and Indigestion, Erysipelas, Rose or St. Anthony's Fire, and indeed the whole class of complaints arising from Impurity of the Blood.

This compound will be found a great promoter of health, when taken in the spring, to expel the foul humors which fester in the blood at that season of the year. By the timely expulsion of them many rankling disorders are nipped in the bud. Multitudes can, by the aid of this remedy, spare themselves from the endurance of foul eruptions and ulcerous sores, through which the system will strive to rid itself of corruptions, if not assisted to do this through the natural channels of the body by an alterative medicine. Cleanse out the vitiated blood whenever you find its impurities bursting through the skin in pimples, eruptions, or sores; cleanse it when you find it is obstructed and sluggish in the veins; cleanse it whenever it is foul, and your feelings will tell you when. Even where no particular disorder is felt, people enjoy better health, and live longer, for cleansing the blood. Keep the blood healthy, and all is well; but with the pabulum of life disordered, there can be no lasting health. Sooner or later something must go wrong, and the great machinery of life is disordered or overthrown.

During late years the public have been misled by large bottles, pretending to give a quart of Extract of Sarsaparilla for one dollar. Most of these have been frauds upon the sick, for they not only contain little, if any, Sarsaparilla, but often no curative properties whatever. Hence, bitter and painful disappointment has followed the use of the various extracts of Sarsaparilla which flood the market, until the name itself is justly despised, and has become synonymous with imposition and cheat. Still we call this compound Sarsaparilla, and intend to supply such a remedy as shall rescue the name from the load of obloquy which rests upon it. And we think we have ground for believing it has virtues which are irresistible by the ordinary run of the diseases it is intended to cure.

DISEASES OF THE LIVER.—You may always know when your liver is out of order, or when you are what is called bilious, by any of the following symptoms: pain in the side and back, dizziness, dull headache, a bad taste in the mouth in the morning, sallow-colored complexion; yellowish tint in the eyes, costiveness, or diarrhœa of slimy dark color, low spirit and dismal forebodings. It is acknowledged by all physicians and others who have seen their action, that JUDSON'S MOUNTAIN HERB PILLS are a perfect cure for all bilious affections. So pleasantly do they search out and drive away the seeds of disease, that all persons living in a country where Fever and Ague, and all other bilious diseases are prevalent, will find they should never be without them. From two to four Pills each night on going to bed, will in a short time drive away the sickly yellow look of bilious persons, and bring to their cheeks a beautiful glow of perfect health. Judson's Mountain Herb Pills are sold by all Dealers in Medicine. [Feb. 24. 1m

GREAT DISCOVERY!—Ample tests, both by able practitioners and chemical analysis, have demonstrated the great value of Prof. De Grath's beautiful combination, called "ELECTRIC OIL," for the relief and cure of pain.—But the people themselves are rendering their verdict in a manner both unmistakable and satisfactory. More than two million bottles have been sold in a very short time—a great proportion of those who heard others recommend it, who had tried it. That it's a splendid discovery is every where acknowledged, and nothing like it was ever before prepared. The only genuine Electric Oil is Prof. De Grath's, which is to be had at all the respectable Druggists in the cities, and at wholesale and retail, at the proprietors' prices of the agent here. Colonel of the Fifty-Seventh.—The Governor has appointed Colonel Charles Campbell Colonel of the Fifty-seventh regiment, vice Colonel Maxwell, resigned. Colonel Campbell is the man who raised the First Regiment of Artillery, attached to the Reserve Corps, but which was afterwards disbanded as a regiment and the batteries divided among the different divisions of the Reserves, in consequence of which he was rotated out of office. We are glad to record the early recognition of his claims by the Governor, as he is among the best military men in the State.

Col. Ziegle's Regiment.—The regiment of Col. Thomas A. Ziegle has been filled up by consolidating with it the skeleton regiments of Colonels Longanecker and McAllen. Colonel Longanecker having already been provided for, the supposition is that Colonel McAllen will be the Lieutenant Colonel. The regiment will be among the best in the service, and before the week is over will be on its way to Dixie.—Patriot & Union.
