GLOBIOUS NEWS! Capture of New Orleans. THE FLEET PASS FORT JACKSON.

GREAT CONSTERNATION.

All the Steamboats and Cotton Destroyed.

FORTRESS MONROE, April 27 .--- To-the Hon Edwin M. Staunton, Secretary of War :-- A fu-guive black, just arrived from Portsmouth, brings the Petersburg Express of yesterday, which contains the following despatch:

"Monsue, April 26.—The enemy pussed Fort Jackson at 4 o'clock yesterday morn-When the news reached New Orleans ing. the excitement was boundless. Martial haw was put in full force and business was completely suspended. All the cotton and steamboats, excepting such as are necessary to tran-port coin, sumunition, Le., were des troyed.

At one o'clock to-day, the telegraph operators bade us good-bye, saying that the ener my had appeared before the city. This is the last we know regarding the fall. We will send you the particulars as soon as they can be had."
