All Sorts.

BLINDNESS AND BLASPHEMY.

When the President replied to the committee of progressive Quakers that perhaps God's way was not their way, he said a wise thing, but not incomprehensible to them. They were evidently staggered, but not convinced. It was something that probably had never struck them before, and they could not at once perceive how it was possible that there should be any difference of opinion between the Almighty and themselves in regard to the immediate emancipation of Southern slaves, either by proclamation or the bayonet, or by both. Such is the blindness and folly of fanaticism—of that false philanthropy which, for the purpose of changing the condition of the negro, would trample upon the Constitution, rend the Union asunder forever, and deluge the country in fraternal blood. For years past, instead of following closely and humbly in the footsteps of the Redeemer, they have been seeking to give laws to the very Majesty of Heaven by the propagation of dogmas which they assert God would be unjust and Heaven no Heaven should it disapprove. A set of infamous blasphemers from the first, they have grown bolder as they have grown stronger, and, wrapped in their imagined sanctity and infallibility, they denounce Church and State, law and reason, the Constitution and the Bible, the happiness and prosperity of civil republican government—nay, the prospective joys of Paradise, unless they can press to their bosoms and hug in their embrace, now and hereafter, their idea and their idol, the negro, who has only been cursed by their vain and senseless efforts.—Patriot & Union.

ABOLITIONISM IN BLAIR COUNTY.

The "Republican" county committee of Blair county called a People's Convention to nominate a county ticket on the 17th inst. Two delegates from Gaysport were refused admission because some who voted for them claimed to belong to the People's party, but did not call themselves Republicans. S. S. Blair, the present member of Congress, an Abolitionist, was declared the choice of Blair county for re-election. Considerable bad blood has originated between the different branches of the family, but as it is none of our funeral we shall leave the happy family to fight it out among themselves.—Lewistown Democrat.

WHITE HOUSE.

A great deal has been said about the "White House," in Virginia, which gives a name to the place where troops and supplies are landed for Gen. M'Clellan's army. Many people suppose it to be a very spacious establishment, whereas it really contains only about five rooms, all of moderate size. It stands on a site of a former residence of the wife of Washington, and its owners, (some of the Lee family) on leaving it, at the approach of the Union army, posted on the door a request that it might not be occupied. In compliance with this request, and as a mark of respect for the memory of Washington and his family, General M'Clellan had a guard placed over it. He might, if he had been selfish, or had thought especially of his own comfort, have taken it for his own quarters. But instead of that, while the army was at that point, he lived in a tent.

The White House has continued under a guard, and would have continued longer, but for a violent clamor made by the men who have all along been trying to destroy Gen. M'Clellan, and who would not regret much to see his whole army sacrificed, provided he himself was forever put out of the way. They insisted that the White House was needed for thousands of sick and wounded of the army. Congress took it up, and at last Secretary Stanton, after correspondence with Gen. M'Clellan, issued a peremptory order to have the building converted into a hospital. It was while Gen. M'Clellan was in the midst of his mighty preparations for the capture of Richmond, that the Secretary thought fit to bother him about this petty matter of accommodation for about twenty-five patients, for that is really all that the White House will hold. His enemies feel very much elated at their success in this business. It will almost reconcile them to a victory for M'Clellan before Richmond.—Phila. Evening Bulletin.

☞ An anti-slavery organization has been formed in the City of New York, at the head of which is the editor-in-chief of the Evening Post, WILLIAM CULLEN BRYANT, the poet, which announces as one of its fundamental principles the dogma that "no State now in rebellion shall be again recognized as a member of the Union except on condition of emancipation." What treason is this! The association is called the "Emancipation League," and addresses have been delivered before it at the Cooper Institute by Senator JIM LANE, Kansas, and OWEN LOVEJOY, the fanatical M. C. from Illinois. It is intended, if possible, to engraft this treasonable principle upon the platform of the Republican party, and convert the war at once into an anti-slavery crusade.—Lane. Intel.

RECKLESS EXTRAVAGANCE.—The Cincinnati Commercial, a Republican paper, is much alarmed at the various propositions before Congress for the expenditure of the public money—charging canals, building air line railroads, &c., &c.,—and says the expenditures of the war are so great that Congress seems to assume that a few millions or hundreds of millions more are small matters. This idea, and the policy which is its outgrowth, savors too much of the reckless extravagance which is the forerunner of bankruptcy, to be acceptable to the people, who have a vivid appreciation of the fact that they must put their hands deep in their pockets to foot the bills.

☞ When the facts of history come to be made up, it will appear beyond all dispute, that the Democrats of the North have given a firmer support to the conservative policy upon which the war was commenced, and to all Constitutional acts of Mr. LINCOLN's Administration, than his own party, and far more so than the radicals, who profess to be his warm supporters.

What the Angel of the Lord said to a Slave.—The following is from that spicy sheet, the Logan Gazette:

You will find what the angel said in Genesis xvi., 9:

"And the angel of the Lord said: Return to thy mistress and submit to her hands."

This shows the difference between a modern abolitionist and an angel of the Lord. The Abolitionist (to adopt the suggestion of the Wooster Democrat) would doubtless call the angel of the Lord a "slave catcher." What would Sumner say to the celestial doughface.—Ohio Statesman.

BROWN'S BRONCHIAL TROCHES

A Slight Cold, Cough, Hoarseness, or Sore Throat, which might be checked with a simple remedy, if neglected, often terminates seriously. Few are aware of the importance of stopping a Cough or Slight Cold in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if not attended to, soon attacks the lungs.

Brown's Bronchial Troches were first introduced eleven years ago. It has been proved that they are the best article before the public for Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Catarrh, the Hacking Cough in Consumption, and numerous affections of the Throat, giving immediate relief.

Public Speakers and Singers, will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers in Medicine, at 25 cents per box.

Something New!

ON THE PRESERVATION AND CULTURE OF FRUIT AND ORNAMENTAL TREES.

COPIES are being published, which contain many magnificent Engravings, such as Trees and various kinds of fine Fruit and Fruit Trees, some of the finest specimens that have ever been put on paper. The Fruit Trees are set with abundant burdens of fruit, similar to that which nature presents in proper season. The trees are represented as having their roots running through the soil in a natural position, and the Engravings of Trees are beautiful and grand. It also contains a fine Engraving which represents the innumerable thread-like roots of a vigorous tree running through and over the soil. The Root Engraving covers ten inches in diameter on paper, and also forms a magnificent engraving, which cannot help but prove gratifying to the eyes of all who may behold it. Such an engraving has never been printed on paper before. The engraving of roots not only proves admirable to the sight of the eye, but is designed to prove of great importance to all who take an interest in the cultivation of fruits and how to treat fruit trees properly.

A COPY contains Twenty-five different Engravings of Trees, Fruits, etc., composed of Evergreens, Forest, Apple, Peach, Dwarf Pear and Pear and Cherry Trees, &c. The Fruit Engravings comprise Raspberries, Gooseberries, Blackberries, Currants, Grapes, Plums, Apricots, Pears, Peaches, Apples, etc., and are all colored by hand to represent the natural fruit, and are accompanied with printed matter of great importance, and forms a copy in size 32 by 42 inches, on map paper, with muslin back and face varnished.

A COPY, with its numerous engravings, will be gratifying to the eye, and form an admirable ornament for the wall of the parlor, and will richly beautify any apartment with horticultural matter of much importance and finery. These copies are published at a very heavy expense. Twenty-five dollars have been paid to a man of the artist for forming the plates of single engravings of trees, roots, etc. But in order that many can obtain such copies at a trifling figure, the price for a copy will be made so low, that fifteen persons can now obtain copies for the sum that has been paid for single engravings of trees, etc.

A COPY contains printed matter of much importance and great value. It will tell how to treat all kinds of Fruit Trees to render them very vigorous and productive, even in unfavorable seasons. It will tell how to prepare the soil without inconvenience before putting the trees in, to strengthen trees much in vigor, and to prove the productiveness of abundant crops, even in unfavorable seasons or locations, with proper and easy after treatment.

A COPY will tell how to procure and plant all kinds of Fruit and Evergreen Trees, so as to prove successful, with scarcely ever proving a failure in a lot of many trees when properly treated as directed. It will tell how to train and plant Dwarf Pear Trees. It contains the most successful treatments for the culture of the Plum. It will tell how to train and cultivate the Grape.

A COPY will tell how to cultivate and treat Strawberries, Currants, Raspberries, Blackberries, Gooseberries, etc.

A COPY will tell how to treat Peach trees, to restore their roots healthy from the disastrous effects of worm insects. It will tell how to make use of an application over the soil surrounding the tree to protect the Peach and other tender fruits from the effects of being winter-killed in the bud. The same application also restores Peach trees from taking the yellows. The application has the beneficial effects to present the foliage of the trees healthy and the tree vigorous, and proves to the productiveness of luscious fruits. The application to be applied is not expensive. All have sufficient materials on their plantations.

A COPY will tell how to Preserve all kinds of Fruits with little or no sugar. It will tell how to keep Apples with much success. It will tell how to treat and manage Pears to mature perfectly, and to attain to the highest flavor.

A COPY presents its numerous pictures all at a glance, and forms such an ornament for the wall as will be admired by all lovers of art, drawn from nature's products.
