ber On Wednesday week, by agreement between Gommodores Farragut and Divis, an attempt was made to capture the Confederate iron clad steamer Arkansas, lying off Vicksburg. The two fleets were to shell the upper and lower butterics, while the gunboat Essex and the ram Island Queen of regiments. were to attack the Arkansas, and, if possible, to tow her out. In consequence of a misunderstanding only a few shells were fired from the lower mortars, which had no effect to divert the fire from the Essex.-This vessel attacked the Arkansas and fired three heavy shot, but being unsupported, withdrew. The Island Queen then 'ran against the Arkansas twice, but it would appear did more harm to herself than to her antagenist. The engagement then ceased.
