

The Compiler.

OUR FLAG!

The Union of Lakes—the union of lands—The Union of States none would sever!

H. J. STABLE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

GETTYSBURG, PA.

MONDAY MORNING, SEPT. 29, 1862.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL, HON. ISAAC SLENKER, OF VASCO COUNTY.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

Gen. A. H. COFFROTH, Somerset co. Senator. WILLIAM McSHERRY, Esq., Littlestown. Assembly.

Get Assessed!

FRIDAY NEXT will be the last day on which ASSESSMENTS can be made in time for the October Election.

THE TICKET COMPLETE.

The Democratic County Convention re-assembled at the Court-house on Saturday last, for the nomination of candidates for Prothonotary and Coroner.

STATE SENATOR.

WM. McSHERRY, Esq., of Adams county, was nominated by the Senatorial Conference for State Senator.

WM. McSHERRY, ESQ.

The Fulton Democrat says: The choice of Wm. McSherry, Esq., of Adams county, for State Senator, we regard as most excellent.

ADAMS COUNTY.

There is no mistaking the temper of the army of McClellan. Officers and men have the most unlimited confidence in him, and have nothing but curses for those hide-bound demagogues and fanatics who are constantly finding fault with and denouncing him.

ADAMS COUNTY.

Now that President Lincoln has issued a negro emancipation proclamation, let Greeley trot out his "twenty millions," and Gov. Andrew commence forming his line "from Boston to Washington!"

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

GEN. A. H. COFFROTH.

From the Fulton Democrat we take the following: We think the Democracy of this Congressional district have reason to congratulate themselves on the nomination of Gen. A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, as their candidate for Congress.

Gen. Coffroth at home, and the fact that he is recognized as the leader of the Democracy there, is sufficient evidence of his capacity and fitness to fill the position for which he has been nominated.

At the time when delegates were being selected to represent the Democracy in the National Convention at Charleston, he took a bold stand in favor of Mr. Douglas and succeeded in securing a position as a delegate in spite of the strong opposition of many of the leading men of the county.

At Charleston and Baltimore he adhered to the fortunes of his favorite, and stood boldly by him during the campaign. But while he did this on principle, it is on principle that he still clings fast to the old landmarks of Democracy as the only hope of our distressed country.

Gen. Coffroth he sent to represent this district at Washington, it would do much to ward checking the fanatical and ruinous course which has been persisted in by the Republican majority in the present Congress.

The Philadelphia Democratic Ledger says: A. H. Coffroth, of Somerset, is being nominated by the Democrats of his district for Congress.

ADAMS COUNTY.

There is no mistaking the temper of the army of McClellan. Officers and men have the most unlimited confidence in him, and have nothing but curses for those hide-bound demagogues and fanatics who are constantly finding fault with and denouncing him.

ADAMS COUNTY.

Now that President Lincoln has issued a negro emancipation proclamation, let Greeley trot out his "twenty millions," and Gov. Andrew commence forming his line "from Boston to Washington!"

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

ABOLITION OPPOSED TO UNION VICTORIES.

The Chicago Tribune is the organ of the Abolition Republican party in the West and Northwest. It is ably edited, and has the confidence and support of that party in all sections of the Union.

A great victory by the army under General McClellan will set the seal of permanence to the reign of Gen. McClellan. Every great man can see what Government, by the grace of West Point, means "Fidelity," said a distinguished Western man, "the virtues of McClellan are not as a person, but as a general, the blow which will stop the rebellion, will set us back six months." We have lost that much time in four days.

The meaning of all this opposition to Union victories, unless gained by well known Abolition Generals, such as Hunter or Fremont, is perfectly plain—they will set the Abolition Republican party against the Union back, not six months, but for all time to come. But in the country prepared to bear patiently this tampering with the honor of the nation and the lives of tens of thousands of its best citizens, by the Abolition Republican enemies both of the Union and the gallant young leader of its forces?

The Republican leaders must take "J. B." (John Bushey) in charge. Another "card"—so muddy, ill-tempered and undignified, so decidedly Buffaloesque—and he is ruined. His greed for office blinds him, as venom does the snake. Probably the leaders see this—probably they try to curb him—and, probably, they find they have caught what is an unreasonable, willful and bad-humored creature. We say, "prohibit. We don't know." But those who know him will have their guess.

Bushey is exceedingly anxious to get rid of Abolition odium—seeing, as he does, that the im is not popular with the people. But he puts a bad face on it. Did he not vote for John Rose, an Abolitionist turn-out, for Speaker of the House, against Col. William Hopkins, an earnest and able Douglas Democrat?

Did he not vote for Henry D. Moore, prominent in the Abolitionist opposition and the great leader of the Know Nothings in Philadelphia, for State Treasurer, against Wm. V. McGrath, a prominent Douglas Democrat?

ADAMS COUNTY.

There is no mistaking the temper of the army of McClellan. Officers and men have the most unlimited confidence in him, and have nothing but curses for those hide-bound demagogues and fanatics who are constantly finding fault with and denouncing him.

ADAMS COUNTY.

Now that President Lincoln has issued a negro emancipation proclamation, let Greeley trot out his "twenty millions," and Gov. Andrew commence forming his line "from Boston to Washington!"

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

DRAFT POSTPONED.—The Draft has been postponed until the 10th of October. The following is the amount to be drafted from each township in Adams county. It will be seen that Gettysburg has a surplus of 20—therefore no draft will take place in the Borough:

Table with columns: Township, No. to be drafted, No. to be exempted, No. to be deferred, No. to be exempted from, No. to be deferred from, No. to be exempted from, No. to be deferred from.

The Clerks of the above was put in type, one of the Clerks of Col. Swope, the Commissioner, has handed us the following official table, giving the number of those subject to draft, &c. It will be found interesting:

Table with columns: Township, No. to be drafted, No. to be exempted, No. to be deferred, No. to be exempted from, No. to be deferred from, No. to be exempted from, No. to be deferred from.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRES.—The most destructive fire that ever occurred in Gettysburg, broke out, about 12 o'clock, on Thursday night last. The flames were first observed issuing from the stable of Mr. George Codori, on the alley between Chambersburg and West Middle and Baltimore and Washington streets.

Were not all his votes of this character in the organization of the House? Did he not vote for Henry D. Moore, prominent in the Abolitionist opposition and the great leader of the Know Nothings in Philadelphia, for State Treasurer, against Wm. V. McGrath, a prominent Douglas Democrat?

Did he not vote for John Rose, an Abolitionist turn-out, for Speaker of the House, against Col. William Hopkins, an earnest and able Douglas Democrat?

Did he not vote for Henry D. Moore, prominent in the Abolitionist opposition and the great leader of the Know Nothings in Philadelphia, for State Treasurer, against Wm. V. McGrath, a prominent Douglas Democrat?

ADAMS COUNTY.

There is no mistaking the temper of the army of McClellan. Officers and men have the most unlimited confidence in him, and have nothing but curses for those hide-bound demagogues and fanatics who are constantly finding fault with and denouncing him.

ADAMS COUNTY.

Now that President Lincoln has issued a negro emancipation proclamation, let Greeley trot out his "twenty millions," and Gov. Andrew commence forming his line "from Boston to Washington!"

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

THE EMANCIPATION PROCLAMATION.

President Lincoln has issued a Proclamation setting free all the slaves in the States in rebellion on the first of January next. We believe this movement, calculated to have so important a bearing upon the industrial relations of the whole country, to be highly inopportune, and we are confident, be questioned by all men not utterly Abolitionist. We annex a few extracts from conservative Republican and Democratic journals:

[From the National Intelligencer.] With our well known apt of repeated views respecting the inutility of such proclamations, it can hardly be necessary for us to say that, where we expect no good, we shall be only too happy to find that no harm has been done by the present declaration of the Executive.

[From the New York World.] President Lincoln is a very Blodkin in his elevated political balancing. When in the alert position a portion of the balancing pole is thrown out on the left side, he leflly shifts the weight of it on the right. Thus he maintains his equilibrium. While he was humoring the radicals in the process of degrading General McClellan, he withheld the proclamation for which they so loudly clamored.

[From the N. Y. Journal of Commerce.] Mr. Lincoln has yielded to the radical pressure and issued a proclamation. It is, in the words of the document, "and we have no inclination to-day to discuss its wisdom, or the probabilities of the effect it will produce in rebellion." We have only anticipations of evil from it, and we regard it, as will an immense majority of the people of the North, with profound regret.

[From the Pittsburgh Post.] This twice, unconstitutional and impolitic movement on the part of President Lincoln, has cast a deep gloom over the spirits of all the real friends of the Union and the Constitution. They see in it the first step toward the destruction of the Constitution, and they are determined to be guided, and plunge boldly and manly into the boundless ocean of Abolition fanaticism by which he is surrounded.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] All these things are known to the President, and yet in the very moment when the tide of war is turning in favor of the Union forces, he is issuing an ultra Abolition manifesto, to disgust the army, dispirit the friends of the Union in the free States, destroy those that remain in the slave States, and give fresh hope, courage and confidence to the rebels in arms against the Federal authority.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The President has yielded to the radical pressure and issued a proclamation. It is, in the words of the document, "and we have no inclination to-day to discuss its wisdom, or the probabilities of the effect it will produce in rebellion." We have only anticipations of evil from it, and we regard it, as will an immense majority of the people of the North, with profound regret.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The President has yielded to the radical pressure and issued a proclamation. It is, in the words of the document, "and we have no inclination to-day to discuss its wisdom, or the probabilities of the effect it will produce in rebellion." We have only anticipations of evil from it, and we regard it, as will an immense majority of the people of the North, with profound regret.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The President has yielded to the radical pressure and issued a proclamation. It is, in the words of the document, "and we have no inclination to-day to discuss its wisdom, or the probabilities of the effect it will produce in rebellion." We have only anticipations of evil from it, and we regard it, as will an immense majority of the people of the North, with profound regret.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

COMMUNICATED.

Mr. Eboroz:—Webster's unabridged and Mr. Wm. Bolles, the highest authorities extant, give no signification to the word "Buncombe." This word seems to have been brought into popular use in the following manner: An Honorable M. C. from North Carolina, who was the distinguished representative of Buncombe county, began a lengthy and prosy speech. The members generally vacated their seats, when in a high state of excitement he exclaimed: "The members may leave their seats, but I am speaking for Buncombe," (of course meaning his constituents of Buncombe co.)

The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

[From the Richmond Dispatch.] The only word found in Mr. Bolles' Phonographic Dictionary that would at all meet the case, is the word "Bum," signifying a loud report. Now, if I were to compile a Phonographic Dictionary, with correct significations of words, I would insert the word "Buncombe," with the signification—"Capt. Edward McPherson, the Representative of the 16th Congressional district. A capital ad caltem."

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.

ARMY LETTER.

Wheeler, Taylor co., Va., Sept. 16, 1862. Dear Compiler:—I was gratified on arriving from town to receive the number of the "Compiler" since leaving New Creek, Aug. 22. It was with me during a long and tedious trip, and I never stopped its perusal until I had scanned every column and devoured its contents and then handed it away.

It was also my glorious privilege to take by the hand my long absent friend, Captain James Adair, who was a member of a court martial at Cumberland, and who met us at this point on his way to rejoin the Regiment. He has a pleasant face, and was hailed with delight by the many warm personal friends he has among the boys.

Lieut. Norris is still at Beverly quite sick. Dr. McCurdy, our estimable Surgeon, informs me this morning he does not consider him dangerous, though quite ill. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point. On Friday evening we received a despatch from Gen. Kelly ordering the evacuation of Fort Elkwater without delay and to destroy our tents and all other property that we could not take with us, and retreat to this point.

ADAMS COUNTY.

The New York papers are agitating the question of the removal of the National Capital to that city.