Cleanse the Blood.—With corrupt, disordered or vitiated Blood, you must be sick all over. It may burst out in Pimples, or Sores, or in some active disease, or it may merely keep you listless, depressed and good for nothing. But you cannot have good health while your blood is impure. Ayer's Sarsaparilla purges out these impurities and stimulates the organs of life into vigorous action, restoring the health and expelling disease. Hence it rapidly cures a variety of complaints which are caused by impurity of the blood, such as Scrofula or Kings' Evil, Tumors, Ulcers, Sores, Eruptions, Pimples, Blotches, Boils, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Cancer or Cancerous Tumors, Sore Eyes, Female Diseases, such as Retention, Irregularity, Suppression, Whites, Sterility, Syphilis or Venereal Diseases, Liver Complaints and Heart Diseases. Try "Ayer's Sarsaparilla," and see for yourself the surprising activity with which it cleanses the blood and cures the disorders.

"Ayer's Cherry Pectoral" is so universally known to surpass every other remedy for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Influenza, Hoarseness, Croup, Bronchitis, Incipient Consumption, and for the relief of Consumptive Patients in advanced stages of the disease, that it is useless here to recount the evidence of its virtues.—The world knows them.

Communicated.

On the Death of ROBERT M. BRENIZER, who departed this life on the 17th of September, 1862, aged 5 years and 4 days.

They tell me, Robert, thou art dead,
That we thy face no more shall see,
Thy rosy colors all have fled
And naught remains of thee.

Alas! and can it be
That thou should'st die so soon—
So early sink to death a prey,
And drop into the tomb.
Oh! I had thought it ne'er could be
When first beside thy cot I stood,
But soon I sorrow'd much to see,
Death's shadow o'er thee brood.
But, Robert, thou art gone,
Thy spirit's winged its flight
To that eternal bourne,
Unveiled by shades of night.
And though our loss we all deplore,
One consolation yet is given,
That we shall meet to part no more,
And strike glad hands in Heaven.

FRANCIS W. HUGHES.

This gentleman, the able and incorruptible Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, is made the target for all the malicious falsehoods and misrepresentations that can be concocted in the fertile brains of JOHN W. FORNEY and the leading Abolitionists. A more loyal man does not live than Mr. H., notwithstanding the infamous charge trumped up against him by the lying crew of being a sympathiser with the South in their treason. His only offence is, that he favored the compromise of Mr. CRITTENDEN as a settlement of our National difficulties; and the charge that he ever prepared or intended offering a resolution in the Democratic State Convention, "that Pennsylvania secede from the Union, and join herself with the South," is pronounced infamously false, in letter and spirit, over his own signature, in a letter which we regret is too lengthy for our columns this week.

Had the counsels of such men as Messrs. CRITTENDEN and HUGHES prevailed, we should not now have a bloody and interminable war on hands, nor should the country be overwhelmed with an immense debt which will be an incubus on our National prosperity for ages to come.

BE WARNED!

Let the people of the county be warned in time. A little knot of Abolition leaders are caucussing here nightly. For what purpose the public are not advised, but as they are known to be a tricky set of demagogues, it is proper to infer that their secret meetings bode no good. Beware of eleventh-hour tricks—lying handbills and "confidential" circulars!

Let Them Appeal to Heaven for Forgiveness!

In spite of all the efforts of the Abolitionists, all their lies, and all their MONEY; we intend to elect the State officers, most of the Congressmen, and a decided majority of members of the Legislature; and after that is done, we want no retractions on their part of the foul lies they have uttered, no death-bed repentence, no hanging around for favors, no advice, no suggestions as to what course we should pursue.

As they have lied, intentionally and maliciously lied, we advise them to appeal to Heaven and those they have deceived for mercy and forgiveness. Knowing them to be unmitigated liars, unyeiling sycophants, corrupt plunderers, advocates of negro freedom, including the et ceteras of social and political equality with the whites, violators of the Constitution and contemners of the Union, we shall neither pray for them nor against them. If they get through safe, it will be as Jacob Schneider did, by a "tam tight squeeze."—[Patriot and Union.

☞Democrats and Conservative Republicans! The hope of the country is in you. Therefore, do your duty, fully and fearlessly, on Tuesday next.

WHO DID IT?

The position of the Cabinet on the President's emancipation proclamation is now pretty well ascertained. Mr. Chase was the leader in urging the emancipation policy. Mr. Stanton and Mr. Welles seconded his views throughout, though with less warmth. Mr. Seward and Mr. Blair were very decided against it. Caleb Smith was somewhat less so, and Judge Bates perhaps still less. The majority, however, were against the proclamation. The President, as usual, acted on his own responsibility.—Phila. Press.

To the Free and Independent Voters of Adams County.

The Sheriff having in his Proclamation for the General Election to be held on the 14th inst., called for the election of Prothonotary, I hereby announce myself as an Independent Candidate for the office of Prothonotary of Adams county. I do so with feelings of great and unaffected reluctance—the call having been made in the absence of any knowledge or evidence of the death of my son J. Finley Bailey, the present Prothonotary, and while it is not known what has been his fate, whether he is the inmate of a rebel prison, or a rebel hospital, or whether he has died a patriot soldier's death fighting for his country. The last information I have had of him is, that after having with his company successfully attacked the enemy and brought off a number of prisoners, he was seen leading a gallant bayonet charge.

I have yielded to the many urgent importunities of fellow citizens, irrespective of party, who have insisted that my name should be brought before the people, or otherwise there being but one candidate who has announced himself, under the circumstances, there will be no opportunity for an expression by the people of their will or choice.

Voters have pressed upon me as a reason for my consent, that it has always been customary, on the happening of the death of a public officer, that his family should have the benefit of the residue of his term. I yield to their request, still hoping that I may yet rejoice in the return of my son, and that I may have secured for him and he may enjoy, the remainder of the full term of office to which the people elected him.

I have an abiding sense of the patriotism and generosity of the people of Adams county. A native of the county, the bones of his ancestry resting beneath its sod, one of whom bore a brave and honored part in the revolutionary war, it was not strange that when his country called, my son Finley promptly responded, and went with his life in his hand, ready to freely offer it for her defence. But of his patriotism, and bravery, and fearlessness in battle I have nothing to say myself, but only refer you to the gallant men of Company K, in the 1st Regiment of P. R. Volunteers.

If my son be dead, (which may God forbid) he died bravely and nobly in our defence, my fellow citizens, and for his Country's cause; and I am sure that the generous men of the County will delight to honor his brave deeds, and to reward his valor and patriotic devotion. In the present state of uncertainty and suspense, I should feel most deeply such an expression as you can give of the popular heart and judgment. I should know that, sore as may be my loss, my fellow citizens were not ungrateful for the self-sacrifice of my son.

WILLIAM BAILEY.
October 7, 1862.

Card of Jacob Bushey.

Should I be elected to the office of Prothonotary on Tuesday next, and should Capt. J. F. Bailey return alive to his friends, I hereby pledge myself to pay over to him the profits of the office accruing from the time I shall enter upon its duties until the expiration of the term for which he was elected Prothonotary.

JACOB BUSHEY.

Fancy Furs!

JOHN FARRERA, No. 718 Arch St., below Eighth, south side, Philadelphia, importer and manufacturer of and dealer in all kinds of FANCY FURS, for Ladies' and Children's wear. I desire to say to my friends of Adams and the surrounding counties that I have now in store, one of the largest and most beautiful assortments of all kinds and qualities of FANCY FURS, for Ladies' and Children's Wear, that will be worn during this Fall and Winter.

My Furs were purchased in Europe previous to the rise in Sterling Exchange, and the New Duty imposed on all Furs, imported since the first of August.

I would also state, that as long as my stock lasts, I will offer it at prices proportionate to what the goods cost me: but it will be impossible for me to Import and Manufacture any more Furs, and sell them at the same prices, owing to the unsettled state of the affairs of the Country.

☞Remember the name, number and street.

JOHN FARRERA,
718 Arch Street, Philad'a.
