The Executive Committee again congratulate the Board upon the prosperous condition of the Company. Although it has been in operation over eleven years, no assessment has ever been iniade—all losses and expenses having been paid from current receipts, leaving at this time on hand a cash capital of $3,779 22, and an additional capital of $92.370 37 in Premiun Notes. The only outstanding indebtedness o the Company is $285, balance due to Wm. II McCreury, on recent loss of barn by fire. A. HEINTZELMAN, JACOB KING,
