THE DEMOCRATIC COLUMN OF 1862!

SOMEBODY HURT!

The Old Keystone State, Ohio and Indiana set the example in October. New York, New Jersey, Delaware and Illinois gloriously responded in November. Behold the glorious column of Democratic triumphs in 1862:

OHIO,
INDIANA,
NEW YORK,
NEW JERSEY,
ILLINOIS,
DELAWARE,
PENNSYLVANIA.

What it Means.—The Albany Argus concludes an article on the result of the late elections as follows:

"What is the meaning of this great revolution? It means that the people believe that the affairs of the country are placed in the hands of men incapable of conducting war against the seceding States or administering government among the loyal States—that their counsels have tended only to lead our armies to defeat, our treasury to bankruptcy, and our country to disruption and ruin. And they demand a change of rulers!"

Singular Prophecy.—According to a translation from Michael Nostradamus' "Seven Centuries of Prophecy," it appears that he not only prophesied the death of Charles I. of England, the establishment of the French Republic, the deaths of Henry IV. and Louis XVI. of France, giving the date of each, but that a war should arise in a country beyond the seas, that many would perish, that there would be the most intense hatred manifested, that the war would last four years, when both parties would be utterly prostrated and almost ruined, and then would embrace each other with great joy and love. Nostradamus died in 1565. So far as known he appears to have been a true Prophet.

☞The State Educational Convention which met at Harrisburg last August adopted a resolution—"That ministers of the Gospel throughout the State be requested to preach, on the first Sunday in December, 1862, a sermon on popular education."

Special Notices.

Ayer's Pills.—Are you sick, feeble and complaining? Are you out of order with your system deranged and your feelings uncomfortable? These symptoms are often the prelude to serious illness. Some fit of sickness is creeping upon you, and should be averted by a timely use of the right remedy. Take Ayer's Pills, and cleanse out the disordered humors—purify the blood, and let the fluids move on unobstructed in health again. They stimulate the functions of the body into vigorous activity, purify the system from the obstructions which make disease. A cold settles somewhere in the body, and obstructs its natural functions.—These, if not relieved, react upon themselves and the surrounding organs, producing general aggravation, suffering and disease. While in this condition, oppressed by the derangements, take Ayer's Pills, and see how directly they restore the natural action of the system, and with it the buoyant feeling of health again.—What is true and so apparent in this trivial and common complaint, is also true in many of the deep-seated and dangerous distempers.—The same purgative effect expels them. Caused by similar obstructions and derangements of the natural functions of the body, they are rapidly and many of them surely cured by the same means. None who know the virtues of these Pills will neglect to employ them when suffering from the disorders they cure; such as Headache, Foul Stomach, Dysentery, Bilious Complaints, Indigestion, Derangement of the Liver, Costiveness or Constipation. As a Dinner Pill they are both agreeable and effectual.

He gained a new birth.
He's gone from our circle,
His soul's with his God—
But the form of our darling

He's gone from our circle—
We must we go too;

Though his earth life's run,
We pray, mid our weeping,
O Thy will be done.

Consumption.

DR. SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP,
FOR THE CURE OF COUGHS, COLDS AND CONSUMPTION.

DR. SCHENCK'S SEA WEED TONIC,
FOR THE CURE OF DYSPEPSIA AND ALL DEBILITATED CONDITIONS OF THE STOMACH.

DR. SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS,
FOR DISEASES OF THE LIVER, OR TO ACT AS A GENTLE PURGATIVE.

All of these three medicines are often required in curing Consumption, though the Pulmonic Syrup alone has cured many desperate cases.—The Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills assist in regulating the stomach and liver, and help the Pulmonic Syrup to digest and search thro' the blood vessels, by which means a cure is soon effected.

These medicines are conscientiously offered to the public as the only safe, certain and reliable remedies for Pulmonary Consumption, and for all those morbid conditions of the body which lead to that fatal disease. Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia are often forerunners of Consumption, and when they manifest themselves they require the most prompt attention.

The Pulmonic Syrup is a medicine which has had a long probation before the public.—Its value has been proved by the thousands of cures it has made through a period of more than twenty years, in all of which time its reputation has constantly increased and the most obstinate skepticism can no longer doubt that it is a remedy which may be used with confidence in all cases which admit of a cure.

If the patient will perseveringly follow the directions which accompany each bottle, he will certainly be cured, if his lungs are not too much wasted to make a cure possible. Even in cases supposed to be incurable, when friends and physicians have despaired, the use of this medicine has saved the life of the patient and restored him to perfect health.

Dr. Schenck himself was cured in precisely such circumstances, and many others have been equally fortunate by judiciously making a timely use of Dr. Schenck's remedies.

Dr. Schenck does not say that all cases of Pulmonary Consumption are within the reach of medicine, but he emphatically asserts that often, when patients have the most alarming symptoms, such as a violent cough, creeping chills, night sweats and general debility, even to such a degree that they are obliged to lie in bed, and when they are given up by their physicians, they may still be cured. No medical treatment can create new lungs, but when the lungs are very sadly diseased, and to some extent destroyed, a cure may be effected by Schenck's medicines.

Also, in Scrofulous diseases these medicines are equally efficient. Dr. Schenck has photographs of a number of persons who have been nearly covered with running sores, and now all healed up. This shows its healing properties, which must be done to heal cavities in the lungs.

In the treatment of Consumption it is of the utmost importance to give vigor and a healthy tone to the system. Hence, it is necessary to strengthen the appetite of the patient, and to improve the digestion. Proper nourishment is required, together with such means as will make the food easily digestible. The articles most suitable for the diet of consumptive patients are designated in Dr. Schenck's pamphlets, which are distributed gratuitously. In general, the most highly nutritious articles are to be preferred, but the digestive organs must be strengthened in order to make either food or medicines serviceable. This requirement is met by the Sea Weed Tonic, and for this purpose it was designed.

When the digestive powers are put in good order, the food has its proper effect, the system of the patient is invigorated, and the lungs begin to exercise their functions in a normal and healthy manner. Then the healing powers of the Pulmonic Syrup will complete the cure.

Pulmonary Consumption is almost always complicated with Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint. Schenck's Mandrake Pills are intended to remove obstructions from the liver and to restore its healthy action. They have all the efficiency which is ascribed to calomel or "blue mass," and are warranted not to contain a particle of any mineral poison. These pills cure the most obstinate costiveness, sick headache, piles, bilious affections, and all other diseases which arise from a torpid or obstructed condition of the liver. One box of these pills, valued at 25 cents, will prove the efficacy of the medicine.

In Consumption, the Sea Weed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are invaluable auxiliary medicines. They relieve the sufferings of the patient, and assist the Pulmonic Syrup in effecting a cure. They have been found useful in advanced stages of Consumption, where the lungs were almost entirely destroyed, and all symptoms, according to the judgment of the physicians, indicated speedy death. The livers of patients who were actually in a dying condition have been preserved for months by the use of Dr. Schenck's three great remedies.

Dr. Schenck pledges himself to effect a cure if the patient will apply to him before his case is altogether desperate; that is to say, before the vital organs are too far gone to admit of ANY cure, except by a miracle.

Dr. J. H. Schenck is the inventor of that celebrated instrument called "Schenck's Respirometer," with which he makes examinations of the lungs, with the certainty of discovering their true condition. The charge for an examination with the Respirometer is three dollars.

As stated above, Dr. Schenck himself was cured of Consumption, in one of its most hopeless stages, by the use of the Pulmonic Syrup. Experienced physicians declared that he could not live a week; yet now, after a lapse of twenty-five years, he is in perfect health, and weighs more than two hundred pounds.

Satisfactory evidence of all these statements is exhibited at Dr. Schenck's office, in Philadelphia, No. 39 North Sixth street. For particulars, see the pamphlet, which is supplied, without charge, to all applicants, at Dr. Schenck's office.

Dr. J. H. Schenck can be consulted at his principal office No. 39 North Sixth street, Philadelphia, every Saturday; and at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every Monday; at No. 444 Eighth street, Washington, D.
