THE CABINET IMBROGLIO.

The latest intelligence from Washington leads to the belief that there will be no change in the Cabinet, at least for the present. Messrs. Seward, Chase and Blair, who, we were informed, had tendered their resignations, have; at the request of the President, re-considered their action, and, it is said, will continue in office. The Abolition Senators, it is reported, are unanimous in desiring the removal of Stanton; against their dictation, will not probably act upon their advice. It is said, also, that leck and Burnside, we may look for a few the country !

- Christmas came on Thursday. An old tradition, published many years ago, and nowin the keeping of the British Museum, contains the following as to the matters to transpire the year succeeding a Christmas on Thursday :

If Christmes on Thursday be,' A windy winter you shall see. Windy weather in each week. And hard tempests, strong and thick. The summer shall be good and dry, Corn and beast: shall multiply; That year is good for lands to till? Kings and Princes shall nie by skill. If a child born on that day shall be, It shall happen right weel for thee. Of deeds, he shall be good and stable, Wise of speech and reasonable. Whose that day goes thieving about, Shall be punished without w doubt. And it sickness that day betide, It shall quickly from thee glide.
