M. J. STAULE, EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR.

OSTTYSBUMG, PA: MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 26, 1863.

ATTEMPTED BRIBERY AT HARRIS-

Simon Cameron had lought his man, as ment of Mr. Boyer, a member of the House, ter with no little interest. The statement and breakers of Abolitionism. That day out of the Union.

The graver phase will assuredly come, but we must bide our Mr. Duplap—My opinion is that they are still members of the Union. of truth in every line. The graver phase time, of the transaction is hardly seen until the reading is finished. Then the whole picture fills up, and the honest mind revolts. from the disgraceful scene. Read and tions of the day.

actors exposed.

The Harrisburg Telegraph and other Cameronian journals are smarting and wincing terribly under the denouement. But nothing will help their master now. burnt brandy won't save him.

ANOTHER VICTORY!

On Monday, both branches of the Legis-Tature met in Convention and elected Ww. V. McGRATH, Esq., State Treasurer, by one majority. The vote stood:

McGrath (Ben.) - - - - C5 votes. Moore (Abp.) - - - - 64

There were four absentees-two from each party-who had paired off.

. Notwithstanding the reign of terror in-Abolitionism, we have elected in Pennsyl-United States Senator, and a Democratic Frate Trensurer. Now for a Democratic Governor!

LEGISLATIVE.

- In the House, on Thursday week, Mr 1 Hopkins, of Washington, presented the following resolution, which was twice read and adopted:

WHEREAS, An act was passed, by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth, approved the 7th day of March, 1861, entitled What he now thinks will be learned from An Act for the commutation of tounage heletter, as follows: duties, by which a very large and annually increasing revenue was taken from the And whereas, The passage of said act was And whereas, The restoration of said revenue is decreed espential to meet the demands

Mr. Boyer offered the following resolution, which was laid over under the rules: limits of the State, and what are the charges against them, and by whose order the arrests were made.

On Tuesday, the House adopted a resolu-

In the House, on Thursday, Mr. Kaine State: Passed unanimously.

willing to go, except fugitive claves from loyal masters, who are to be returned.

On Tuesday evening, after the re McGrath, Dem., had been elected State against the Administration.

Treasurer, the Democratic drums were brought out, and our town was treated to some first-rate martial music. There were over, and when the tried and true Democrago into a thing of this sort, they do it with the roll. An act of grosser injustice, says a coa will.

our side of the house, it "was death" to envy and jealousy of the court and the maligthe Abolitionists, particularly the more nity of the administration. There will come a thin-skinned ones—those who, a year or day of retribution, when Abraham Lincoln and two ago, were so exceedingly anxious to all associated with him in iniquity will pay see Democrats gagged and mobbed-who dearly for their transgressions. "could have seen their houses burnt over their heads " with satisfaction-and would have justified any and every outrage upon New York, and edited by Comstock & Cassidy, elected in 1861. These men care only for the rights and property of their fellowbeing Democrate! These precious "patri-other able writers: We commend the Argus to Abolitionists. ots" were quite "put out" with the little all who desire a reliable and ably conducted jollification on Tuesday evening, and in- New York journal. Terms, $2 per annum; 3 the application of "Tory" to the Demoduiged in very ugly mouths and very hard

So be it, followers of the rail and Unioneplitting Abraham. Democrats have a right to "crow" over Democratic victories, and we shouldn't be at all astonished if they party put in a few "extra touches" upon the recollection of your attempted "tyranny over the minds of men" twelve or twenty months be neither Republican party, nor officeago. Our service, therefore, is, "take it holding Seward. easy-and if you can't take it easy, take it as easy as you can." The boys will crow whenever there is occasion—and occasion of his recent Annual Message. will frequently occur to do so over corrapt. biering sectional and disunion Abolition-

THE PROSPECT BRIGHTENS. The triumphant election of Mr. Bucka-

set political triumphs ever achieved in Penn- their hostility to the Union was undisguisylvania, and is the dawn of a better day ed. They spoke in the most contemptuous in our good old Commonwealth. Too long, terms of its advantages and benefits. For remarks the Lanconter Intelligencer, have the a time after the commencement of the war, CEN. CANERON'S OPERATIONS TO EFFECT people of this State been tyranzised over by however, they made loud professions in fa the ponderous car of this political Jugger- their real value by the true friends of the mut. The Democracy can now stand erect Union and Constitution, who fully underand point with pride to her position as stood their motives and purposes. Their soundly conservative. They can say, and Unionism was merely assumed to enable two years, "thus far shalt thou go, but no the guise of patriotism. and in the course of two or three years more drifting. that branch of the National Legislature will | During a recent debate in the National he fondly supposed. The PRICE was fixed, so, but we shall then have the Executive State: protection guaranteed—all the arrange—also, and peace, prosperity and union will Mr. Dunlap—Are not the second States—mante perfected. For details, see the state.

Let us learn to wait patiently for "the printed in this issue. So rare a bit of se-better day coming," when Democratic pi- Mr. Dunlap-Did the ordinance cret history the newspaper reader is seldom, lots shall be put on board the old Ship of sion take them out of the Union? treated to, and we are sure that he will folState, and the noble vessel released from backed by armed power, did take them out, his conduct was soon led to suspect that his backed by armed power, did take them out, his conduct was soon led to suspect that his low up incident after incident in this chap- her dangerous position among the shoals

SOUND DOCTRINE.

"We must grapple with the great ques-ions of the day. The truths of our financial ponder, good people of the Commonwealth, and military situation must not be kept back. THERE MUST, BE NO ATTEMPT A committee has been raised in the House PUT DOWN THE FULL EXPRESSION to investigate the affair. Let the foul busis OF PUBLIC OPINION. It muct be known ness be probed to the bottom, and all the and heeded to enable government to manage pubdesire among our people to learn their actual condition. They demand free discussion. We clip the above from Governor Seymour's Message, and there is a volume of truth and philosophy in the extract .-The people do not know their actual condition. They do not know the sentiments of one another. Thousands of timid people have not dared to express their opinions. for fear that some Abolition spy, or eavesdropper, or malignant neighbor, might be tile. Governor Seymour declares that this state of things shall no longer be tolerated. The fetters on public opinion must be taken off, and "free discussion" must henceforth

WHAT A SOLDIER SAYS.

The Providence Post publishes the following extract from the letter of a young clergyman who enlisted in one of the Rhode Island Regiments and fought at Frederickshis frankness, carnestness and patriotism; generously given of their blood and treasthe administration, believing that by fight- tution, have a right to know. - Special Times. it prudent at this state of the -proceedings

"Well, this war is a big institution. increasing revenue was taken from the private, 'treasonable' opinion is, that if the treasury for the benefit of a corporation; affuir continues to be managed in the same And whereas. The passage of said act was way and by the same men who have charge unmistakable symptoms of insanity. We you think you could have courage enough procured by the use of improper means; way and by the same men who have charge unmistakable symptoms of insanity. We you think you could have courage enough procured by the use of improper means; of it now, it will take about eight hundred should be serry to believe this, but would not to you for me?" I answered that it was a upon the treasury; therefore,

Resolved, That the Committee on the Judiciary be instructed to bring in a bill, at I looked upon the subject very much as alhordes of thieving contractors, and plenty circumstances we think congress should have and did not know exactly how to answer. Resolved, That the Governor of this State of ambitious officers, growing fat, while men fall on the field in heaps like-winnows, The requested to inform this House what mumber of citizens of this State have been mumber of citizens of this State have been arrested and confined in military prisons are damps of the United States, within the asked wight I thought of in the neighborhood of the was density of the United States, within the asked line on the reading of his special message approxing the asked line, whether he was density of the United States, within the asked line, whether he was density of the United States, within the asked line, whether he was density of the United States, within the line asked line, whether he was density of the United States, within the asked line, whether he was density of the United States, within the line asked line, whether he was density of the United States, within the land on the neid in neaps like winners and the same to the sum, He ever or graderin, and a non-respond to the sum, He ever or graderin, edness in high places; and call upon the God of Abraham to interpose in behalf of our common country. No matter if it be treason to say it, the majority of this army On Tuesday, the House adopted a resolu-tion to inquire whether beitery was used at difficulties under which we are laboring. the late U. S. Senatorial election. Commit- The army was never so disheartened and distee, Messrs. Wakefield, Pershing, Brown, gusted as at present, lying editors and correspondents to the contrary notwithstanding.

The Hon. James W., Wall, United offered a resolution that the Governor of States Senator elect from New Jersey, en route Pennsylvania demand of the Secretary of for Washington, arrived in Philadelphia on the interference and dictation of the President War, at Washington, that the sick and Monday, and took his quarters at the Girard was very general. The message fell on a very thin Senate. The principle of it was refused wounded soldiers from the State of Penn- House. In the evening the Girard House was sylvania be returned to hospitals in this filled with his particular friends. Shortly at ment took place in a greater and more general ter eleven o'clock a band arrived and stationed expression of resentment at what a distin-Mr. Bex has introduced in the House themselves in front of the building and ten- guished Sendtor called the President's growing amendments to the Constitution prohibit | dered the Senator a serenade. The scene in ing the immigration of negroes and mulattoes front of the building presented a brilliant asinto the State, and providing for the colon- pect. Innumerable Roman candles and sky ization of those already here, who may be rockets were discharged, together with other fireworks, during which cheers were given for Wall and McClellan. On being called for, Mr. Wall appeared on the balcony and spoke for some fifteen minutes, briefly reviewing nationception of the intelligence that Wm. V. al affairs and taking strong Democratic ground war, and we shall never get the Union

General Fitz John Porter, recently tried by military court martial on charges preferred by Gen. Pope, for disobedience of orders, &c., loud and earnest cheers over the gratifying has been found guilty on all the charges and result. It was felt to be worth rejoicing specifications and sentenced to be dismissed from the service. The President has approved ey of these parts make up their minds to the finding and ordered his name stricken from temporary, was never perpetrated. He was not But whilst the rejoicing "was fun" for convicted on the testimony, but to gratify the

THE NEW YORK-ARGUS .- This is a first-class Democratic paper, published in the city of ed from Ohio, the Legislature having been assisted by auch writers as Horatio Seymour, copies one year, $5; 8 copies $10; 20 copies $20. Address Comstock & Cassidy, New York.

Then and Now .- But for the labors of Mr. Seward, there would have been no Republican party. And now, if the Republican could have its way, there would be no Seward .- Louisville Journal. Yes, and if we had our way, there would

We return our thanks to His Excellency, Governor Curtin, for a pamphlet copy

An editor in Minnesota is determin Keep off the track when you hear ed to break up housekeeping and go boardwhistle-the Democratic locomotive is ing with his delinquent subscribers the remainder of his life.

A BLACK SECESSIONIST.

The Abolition party has always been a LEW to the U. S. Senate is one of the great- dis-union party. Before the war broke out farther." The elections of October and No. But latterly, some of the more bold vember have secured us two Senators in In. among them have thrown off the mack and after no misunderstanding or misrepresendisus, one in Pennsylvanis, one in Illinois, assumed their former position of hostility tation. Believing that there would be atone in New Jersey and one in Delawares to the Union, whither the whole party is be thoroughly purged of the foul party Congress, the following colloquy took place whose dominance in Congress has been so, between Mr. Dunlap, of Kentucky, and fatall to our beloved Union. And, not only the notorious Thaddeus Stevens, of this

Mr. Stevens-My opinion is they are and as far as that operated did take them

Mr. Stevens-They are not. Could there be a more emphatic endorsement of the doctrine of secession than is admits everything that the Secresionists course, left me no room to doubt the object ever claimed, and consequently is as black of his visit to the State Capital and to me. a Secessionist as Jeff. Davis himself.

the affinite with success. There is a yearning of the Union without the consent of the eron authorized him to come to me in this friends of the Union. The doctrine was to see any Democrat of the House or Senate, friends of the Union. The doctrine was and enter into the preliminary arrange-held to be subversive of all law and good ments to secure a vote for Cameron. I then government, and so it is.

ginning of this struggle was, that the sc. swered, "by getting three Democrats to ceded States were still in the Union and I then a Red h m what they would pay. that secession ordinances were as worthless. He said he was authorized by Cameron to as waste paper. Upon this theory the ad- offer $5,000. I told him the figures were ministration called upon the country for too low, and desired him to tell me who ready to have them transported to a Bas aid to crush out this monstrous attempt to to do at the time, but would try and get sever our glorious Union on the part of the permission of his principal to do so, He Southern States, and upon this theory was then left, and returnded in a short time. the call of the administration nobly re- and said that General Cameron wanted to But now we are informed by Mr. Stevens, not ninke the engagement, but would anaugurated by fanatical and over-bearing be the order of the day in these United who is in the confidence of the administra- swer him in one hour, and if I could get States. We say amen to the noble sentition and one of the recognized leaders of clear of another engagement I had made.

use upon the President has been too much for of the bank, and found Cameron there alone. his brain, and that he occasionally exhibits Headdressed me as follows :- "Boyer, do correspondent of the Tribune gives the following account As thereading of the document procedure, and that he felt in duty bound to take and riosity gave place to astonishment. The remaindation to Congress to adopt Secretary of the person that made him Senator after-commendation to Congress to adopt Secretary of the person that made him Senator after-wards, and, if he had so many to take care wards, and, if he had so many to take care and that he felt in duty bound to take care wards, and, if he had so many to take care tion to refer the measure to a special committee was speedily haid on the table by a vote of 62 to 20. While thus placing the document where the House could handle it to-morrow, by the few members present, and the adjourn habit of returning hills with his signature, accompanied with lectures to Congress for having passed them. With Peace, our political difficulties can all be settled. "But," say the Republicans, "do you mean by Peace, disunion?" Not at all. All the disunionists we have, or ever would have had, were caused by this again until we return to our constitutional duties. Let the States meet in National Convention, and the common sense of the people will restore to us the old Union, as it was, simply because it is a want both of the South and the North. It is only those who think the people are not espable of self-government, or the lunatics who care him, I asked him where Burns was? nothing for the war, except as it leads to told me he was sick. He then said, "Boyer, equality and amalgamation of the races. who are opposed to this simple, common sense, honorable and Christian manner of settling our difficulties.—Sunbury Democrat.

elected the "blood-letting" Chandler to would go down in the cars on the Lebanon the U.S. Senate. Massachusetts sends back the disunionist. Sumner. Wade is return-

The Harrisburg Telegraph suggests crats. Tory is one of the favorite titles used by the rebels, in regard to the Union men tions agree precisely in their use of terms.

There is a growing hostility in the great West to New England, which may some day become formidable.

The New Englanders are going to when he signed the document, were promised to Charles Sumner, who is to preserve for the admiration of future ages. — New Ha-their absence, Saturday evening was then the uttermost to satisfy

MOCCASIN TRACKS!

THE LEGISLATURE!

ASTOUNDING DEVELOPMENTS!

HIS ELECTION TO THE U. S. SENATE! Abolitionism-toolong have they been tied to yor of the Union. These were taken at STATEMENT OF T. JEFFERSON BOYER, MEMBER OF ASSEMBLY FROM CLEAR-

FIELD COUNTY! To the Elimes of the Patriot and Union ! As many rumors are affort in regard to say it with emphasis, to the tyrannical them, more effectually, to carry out their certain transactions which took place behordesof Abolitionism, who have been ruling fanatical and unconstitutional ideas about tween General Cameron and myself on sevthe country with a rod of iron for the last slavery. This they undertook to do under eral occasions previous to the late election of United States Senator, I think it my duty lo make a plain, unvarnished statement of the facts, so that there may beheretempts to bribe members in order to defeat the election of a Democrat, I conceived the project of putting myself in the way of the operators and trying how far they were dised to go in the matter. Once conceived. I determined to act upon it, and communicated my intention to several friends. The first opportunity that offered I embraced-like treaton,) and then we will hold the and here is the result:

I had been to Philadelphia, and on my control of the Government and I will be able to serve my friends;" and so we parted return, perhaps a week or more before the election. I met Mr. Wm. Bro'st, of Lewisagain, to dream of Southern Confederacie and Winnebagos for Senator. Patterson and burg, with whom I was acquainted, at the I then agreed to meet on Monday. Pennsylvania House, in Harrisburg, for the first time this winter, and noticed some business at Harrisburg was not of a very public character. In the afternoon he came to me and asked to see me privately, and we proceed at once to my room, where he very soon commented disparaging the several prominent. Democratic candidates for United States Senator, and conment of the doctrine of secession than is cluded by expressing his decided prefer-contained in the answers of Mr. Stevens, who ence for Gen. Sumon Cameron. This, of and I at once asked him whether that was the object of his visit. He said it was. The right of any State to take itself out reply to my question, whether (ieneral Camrest, has always been denied by all true way, he said he was authorized by Comeron overnment, and so it is.

The theory of the Government at the beabsent themselves on the day of the election. the other members were. This ho relised sponded to by a leval and patriotic people, the city that evening. I told him I could Abolitionism, we have elected in Pennsylvania a Democratic Auditor General, a Democratic Surveyor General, a Democratic Surv Union—that they have ceased to be memibers by their own acts. In other words, Brobst again and told him I would go. He told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in
told me he would have a carriage ready in told me he would have a carriage re of the administration? The loyal Union at any time. When the time arrived Dr. loving people of the country, whothere so Early and myself walked down to Herr's his frankness, carnestness and patriotisms are the maintain the Luion and the Constitution and had unbounded faith in the policy of latter than submit to ruin the elegtion, and I should come right down the Clipper of the 4th instant, contributed by a latter than submit to ruin the ment—to crush it by revolution. It is asking to need at the latter than submit to ruin the policy of latter than submit to ruin the elegtion, and I should come right down the latter than submit to ruin the policy of latter than submit to ruin the elegtion, and I should come right down the latter than submit to ruin the policy of latter than submit to ruin the elegtion, and I should come right down the latter than submit to ruin the policy of latter than submit to ruin the elegtion. The following we find in the Enion and the Constitution. not to manifest too much engerness, lest I THE PRESIDENT AND CONGRESS. I might defeat the object in view.) The next The Harrisburg Parriot & Union says:— day he (Brobst) called and said Cameron wanted to see me at the Spite Capital Bank.

I called, and was ushered into a back room vears to settle it. I left home with patri- be in the least astonished should it prove to be would decord and a lotic motive and called mon my friends and ofic motive, and called upon my friends and acquaintances to go and fight for the Union. I looked upon the subject very much as all most everybody at home looked upon it.—But now the fence is down, and I cen see.

But now the fence is down, and I cen see.

Due in the least astonished should it prove to be would depend very much an circumstances, unter Gen. Cameron (pointing to the old it will be all the prospin is to commend him would depend very much an circumstances. Unter the duties the reof and a would depend very much an circumstances. Winnelsage lying on the bed) it will be all the tited to their support.

To the Comeron (pointing to the old its use of gratitude prompts is to commend him to the good pebple of his new location as entired upon it.—Winnelsage lying on the bed) it will be all the tother support.

To the Comeron (pointing to the old its use of gratitude prompts is to commend him to the good pebple of his new location as entired to the good pebple of his new locati The beam is out of my eye, and I behold the weight they have forced upon him, than to cents." I answered him, rectainly." He get, or anything of that sort. We have week, we understand. He comes highly resonance they have forced upon him, than to cents." I answered him, rectainly." He made every provision to meet all danger." commended as a physician from many sources, it—is rejected by the administration, and formally commended as a physician from many sources, it—is rejected by the administration, and first the last scene in this strange farce of ambitious officers, growing fat, while men treated him in a more feeling and respectful but wished him to name the sum. He ever be grateful, and I hope he will, manner that they did the other day on the asked what I thought of $10,000, which It is proper here to say that during > absentee. He answered, "a vote," and that it would be very troublesome to get the men away, and besides he only regard of, it would embarrass him, but if he had but one he could do it well and profitably as long as we lived : and said besides, there would be no more danger in voting directly for him then in beingabsent, for they would make every provision for the protection of ended the interview, and we agreed to meet " Well. let's served:

figuring for Simon, went after him, and in Cameron then said, "Well, let's come to an understanding." for?" He answered, "In reference to the Senatorial question." I then said, "I must and wanted to know who I would prefer to arrange further interviews and do the financiering of the business. I told him my limited knowledge of his friends did not enable me to name that person. left, stating that he was going to Philadelphia to arrange another matter which he again to fix the compensation.

had in view, and would return on Saturday evening. This was on Wednesday. On Thursday I met John J. Patterson. He desired to see me, and asked me to call at his room at. Herr's Hotel. When I met the money will be all right." I asked him.
"What money?" He then said, "Oh, I know all about it; I saw Cameron," (I must not forget to state here that, to my meeting Patterson, Brobst told me Patterson wanted to see me on that busi-The Michigan Legislature has re-ness,) and, by Cameron's arrangement, he Valley road on Friday at 2 o'clock, and that we would go together and settle the entireaffair We met according to arrangement, and elected in 1861. These men care only for in the baggage spartment of the New York the negro. The Constitution and the Union cur, concluded the bargain for $20,000 for a citizens, for no other crime than that of Charles O'Connor, Samuel J. Tilden, and many are nothing in the eyes of such deep-dyed vote for General Simon Cameron for the office of U. S. Senator, with the agreement that no other member should b and that this should end the matter-provided Cameron would agree to the terms, and deposit the money in the hands of Patterson, to be paid to me immediately after of the South. The disunionists of both sec members (with whom Patterson said Cam- al constitution as a basis for a reconstruction meron was also in treaty) who were in the curs on their way to Philadelphia, should return on Saturday. We considered the agreement could not be consummated.-This statement seemed to determine his mind in favor of the arrangement. Patterson lay away the Emancipation pen as a curios went immediately to Cameron, who was this metropolis: the involves directly. The President has presented the pen, in the car, and returned in a few minutes, beda and Dundaik and other towns for want of which signed the proclamation, to George stating that although Cameron regarded employment, and the multitude in the south Livermore, of Cambringe, Massachusetts.— the price big, he would pay it in order to west and northwest that a late and insufficient. York, by which thirty persons were reported. The stockings in which Mr. Lincoln stood save further trouble, and would, therefore, barvest and a severe winter have reduced to to have been drowned, turns out to be a hoar. not say anything to the members then on their way to Philadelphia, and they might them, unwashed, in an air-tight glass case, return, and thus prevent any disarrange neous cry for food, fuel and clothing that it agreed upon as the time for the next interriew. I dopped at Reading; so did Patter terson, who returned that same evening to Harrisburg. (ameron went to Philadel-phia. I come up on Saturday evening, and found Cameron on the train, as well as at least one of the men who went to Philadelphia the day before, and I think both. At the depot at Harrisburg I met Patterson, who said the interview would be at Don Cameron's, Accordingly Patterson and myself went direct to the house, and found the General there ahead of us. He invited ne up stairs, and, by a dismal light, we s greed upon the price, viz: Cameron assen-ted to the bargain between Patterson and myself by agreeing to pay the $20,000—$5,000 of which was to be paid in hand -and would deposit it in Patterson's hands in inv presence at some future interview subject to my inspection. A little incident which occurred here it would be a pity to lose to the world. After the bargai concluded Simon straightened up on his chair, rubbing his legs, with his hands, say ing, "Well, that ends it. 'I will be Senstor and you shall never regret it"-(addressing himself to me)-"I will be the most powerful man in that Senate; the entire state of affairs of this Government will be changed:

nothing is more certain than that the South

We met at 5 o'clock, in Patterson's Here at fleri's, on M nday afternoon. Patterson told, me he had the $5,000 hand mbney locked up in a safe down stairs, but wanted me to see Simon again before paying it over to me. I insisted on the hand money. This I deemed necessary to keep up the delusion. We then parted to meet at the same place early the next morning. Immediately after breakfast on Tuesday, (the day of the election,) I met Patterson, according to agreement, at his room, Simon being present, lying on the bed, complaining of a disease of the howels. It was then desired that; I should see some Republican member of the Senate or House. who would be sent to me, and inform him of my willingness to vote for Cameron in case he was nominated. To this I made some pretended objection and demanded to know the necessity for it. Simon said it was this, that unless I did this they might think he just wanted their d-d nomination for effect, which was not true. He declared he would not have the nomination and a defeat for the whole Legislature. So, of course, I consented, and the coting price was voluntarily raised $5,000. Patterson said the gentleman who would wait on me there was Dr. Fuller, of the Senate, who would be present as soon as I killed, so we thise but few officers left. was ready to receive him. I said that was whole trouble lies in not being properly officer-all right, but must now be convinced that ed before leading Perusylvania. Governor the money was all right too. Patterson then hurriedly showed me a large bundle of bank notes, which he represented as being the amount of the final payment. He assured me the day before I should have the hand money, and again on Tuesday morning said I could have it. I told him I idue, should be forthcoming as soon as the election was over. (I may here state it did not come.) Cameron then said his carriage would be at the State Capitol Bank after awhile. This, of course, I agreed to do, prominent gentleman of that city; (but did not.)

Vaughn, the proprietor of the Pennsylvania was going en.

In one of my interviews with Patterson, on the cars going to Reading, he said in case there should any investigation grow out of the transaction he would be the only witness that knew anything about it, and he would swear falsely and put it through. In regard to the dates given in the above remarkable specimen of the product is said by statement, as I made no memoranda at the one of our exchanges to have been discovered time, I cannot be certain that they are correctly in Adams county. This was a white entering the presidential mansion and see less than twenty minutes returned with ing a small book that lay on the table, ob-

T. JEFFERSON BOYER

"Ah, this is the constitution." "Now mark my words," he said, "so long as we are sold by the Exceptor sto John Miller, of Mount-a young and virtuous people, this instrument will pleasant township, for $58 56 per acre—$9., though the Union; before the verpent of Aboli hind as together in mutual inverests, mutual wel- 3 0 and Chassint Lat. of said decoders in fare, and mutual has piness, but when we become corrupt, and men dirregard its sucred teachings, and trample it under foot, like the present Administration] it will bind us no longer.

Such were the prophetic words of Alexander Hamilton, says a writer, uttered half a century ago, and iff the very dawn of our existence as a nation. Let Americans write them in their books and treasure them in their hearts. Another half century, and they may be regarded as truths.

"The rebellion must be crushed."-

[Lincoln Paper.] going on. In due time, "the rebellion Philadelphia, Pa. will be crushed."

How They Sore the Union .- An Abolition writer in the Boston Commonwealth says: "Rather then see that institution re-appear in our National Congress, I would reoice in seeing not one stone left upon another of this proud fabric, which was reared, like Dahomey's throne, on human Constitutional Amendments.—A petition has been in circulation in York, Pa., for signathe election was over, and that the two tures, proposing amendments to the Federof the Union.

DISTRESS IN IRELAND .-- We take the following fact that, if they were sent off, the House would not go into an election, and our from a letter dated Dublin, Dec. 30: The weavers in Ballymacurret, Belfast; the operatives and room keepers in the poorer districts of this metropolis : the laborers driven into Drogmiserable destitution, are all raising a simulta-

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

charged the Grand Jury, and they retired to Adams county items: their room, after which the Court transacted a large amount of Orphan's Court and other Bank of Gettysburg, dividend tax ... $990 0. current business-and then adjourned until 3 o'clock, P. M.

At 3 P. M. the Court met and proceeded to COMMON PLEAS.

Henry Eppleman ve. Josiah G. Weaver .-Debt on Book Account .- After hearing all the testimony, and one counsel having addressed the jury, the Plaintiff amended his declaration and the jury was discharged. David Wesley Howard vs. Henry Beitler.

Action of Slanifer - Verdict for Defendant. MARTER REPRIORS Commonwealth vs. Valentine Warner .-Indictment for Assault and Battery .- Verdict,

Not Guilty, but Defendant to pay costs of prosecution. Commonwealth vs. Lodusky Haas. Indivi- Per J. F. Bailey, Prothonotary ... ment for fornication and bastardy .- Defendant will gain her independence, (this sounded for selling ligher without license. Ignored . by Grand Jury County to pay costs. Commonwealth vs. James Carver .-- Indictment for Largeny.-Ignored by Grand Jusy., County to Day costs, Commonwealth vs. J. Worley Jones .- Assault with intent to commit a rape. Verdict, John Gardner, shoes Guilty. Senterce, fire dollars fine and Imprisonment in the Penitentiary at Philadelphia for nfieen mouths, in solitary confinement, Abatement on State tax. at labor.

.There being no more businesss, the Court discharged the Jury at o o'clock, on Wednesday evening. The Grand Jury visited the Jail and Aims House. Their report will be found in another portion of our paper.

Capt. James A. Lashell, of the Anderson Troop, writes to his father here, that none of the Adams pounty boys were in the party; that refused togo into the fight at Murfrees the Abolition press to support the admini boro'. He say that while all from this county tration, on pain of being denounced as dibehaved well. cannot help saying that John foral. Marshall and Will. Crawford deserve the most tion? credit. He further remarks :

"I do not know what they will do with the regiment. It is very much demoralized. Col. Speacer is very ill and both of our Majors are body else is very much to blame.4

prisoners, including those from Capt. Hunter's company, have been exchanged, and are again ready to take the field.

elected officers of the Littlestown Railroad

Company:

Dutterer, Philip Kohler, Samuel G It, James W. Barr and Hanjamin Landis. The following we find in the Baltimore with the course, I agreed to do, promoten general and people to support an administration, the action of the chief of jeet of which, if we may judge if by Now, then, all things being arranged, Dr. he has disposed of his Unsiness in this circuits doctrines and actions, is to discupt the U. Fuller was ushered in by Patterson. The and we understand that it is his intention to introduction completed, I said: "Doctor, locate himself in Getty-burg, Pa., where he presume I understand the object of this will continue the practice of medicine. Havtter interview." He then said: "I am ing been our family bysician for a number of chairman of a committee appointed by the years past, we sheerely regret to beam of the loyal? on you to see contemplated departure of the Doctor, on we Republican caucus to wait on you to see contemplated departure of the Ductor, on we whether you would vote for Cameron." I have ever found him skilful in his profession.

ended. Simon assured me that he would and it is but reasonable to suppose that his the delusive hope is held out to us that fine abilities and long experience will soon smother Union, the nature of which we have him into a desirable practice. (the know not, but which we are told is to be a

Vaughn, the proprietor of the Pennsylvania: IALL STOILS.—A from encloses us in a machination that is calculated to pull doken.

House, in this city, were in the secret and following paragraph, clipped from a "news- to destroy—but not a single hely or loby Dr. Early, especially, knew constantly what paper." The tarn is too "steep" to have aspiration for the unity perpetuation, great originated in this region—at all events this is nessand glory of the country.

State: A SYAKE STORY .- Spakes are among the snake, about six feet in length, and was moving northward. But what seems the more remarkday he sent Brobst for med. I declined going to see him, but agreed to see him at my room, No. 15 Pennsylvania House.—
The illustrious Alexander Hamilton, once

The one-half moved after the other, in order to make his snakeship asked to be loval?

"May God do so unto us, and more also," > ceased, in Reading township, 160 acres, was the administration. While it conducte pleasant township, for $58 50 per acre. $9,- tioniam crept into its councils and dictated 3 0; and Chestint Lot, of said decedent, in its policy; while it held the Constitution in Huntington township. 5 acres and 94 perches, reverence, and showed a disposition to be to Daniel Hoover, for $40 per nore-$223 50.

sympathy with each other.

acres, at $3.400.

-This convenient and beautiful little Annual is sent free to any Superintendent or Teacher in the United States or British Provinces, on he says:
receipt of a stamp to prepay the postage. It 'The sovereignty of each State is as complete

Bros., of New York, are the sole importers .--The "Magic" is receiving the most flattering

LOCUSTS COMING THIS YEAR .- Joseph Harris

ance on the wing May 19th, 1846; on the 23rd they were all released without examination excommenced singing; on the 31st commenced cept Messrs. Rhodes and Campbell, who were

This year there will be locusts in abundance. with straw for 25 days, and you are safe, if you

The skating accident in Western New York, by which thirty persons were reported

And ----It is said that over seven hundred men of two Ohio regiments have, within a week past, deserted from Camp Chase, in that State.

ADAMS COUNTY AND THE STATE .- W. are indebted to Messrs. McSherry and Myers DOINGS OF COURT.—Court met on Mon- for copies of the Auditor General's Report for day morning at 19 o'clock. Judge Wierman 1862, from which we glean the following

MONIES PAID TO THE STATE. Gettysh'g & Petersh'g Turnpike co., York and Gettyshurg Turnpike Co. 12.54 Special Tax, Act May 16, 1861...... 2,189 85 Tayern Lirense. Per H. B. Danner, Treasurer 874 00 Jacob Troxel, late " Retailers' License. Per H. B. Danner, Treasurer.... 1.275 51 Jacob Trozel, late Tress. J. B. Danner, former Treas Pedlars' License. Per Il B. Danner, Treasurer .. J. B. Danner, former Treasure 368 87 Tax on Write, Wills, &c. 142 63

345 14 Accrued interest, per J. B. Danne 40 21 $22,553 27 MONIES RECEIVED FROM THE STATE. Levi Weaver, hauling John Gardner, shoes 987 00 Gettysburg R. R. Co., transp. troops 353 60 Capt. Henry Chritzman, mil. services 184 00 Pensions, Gratnities, &c 3.682 00 768 83 Merc. Appraiser, J. M. Walter, 1861.

SUPPORT THE ADMINISTRATION.

Half mill tax, per act May 16, 1861.....2,551 23

Valuation of Real and Personal Pro-

erty in Adams county.

Assessment of T: x.

Population ..

The Democratic party is called upon by

Why should we support the administration? There are many reasons who we should not why we counter and why we gett and support it. Is there one st onld? Li there is, no Abolition Journal, politician or priest has yet proclaimed it.

Forney has essayed to do it—so hye Beecher, Phillips, Sumner and Oreelybut they all have failed, and most of them have, on the contrary, given good reasons We learn that all the Harper's Ferry; why we should not. They have confounded the administration with the Government, and on that ground claimed support, alleging the duty eady to take the field.

of the cilizen, irrespective of party pro-A more permicious doctrine could not be enunciated, and we repudiate it,

The administration is but a single branch President—Ephraim Wyers.

Directors—Inoch Lefever, Edmund F. Shorb, Mr. Lincoln's undoubtedly has—it is the James H. Colchause, Isaac Scill, David-Schwartz, Joseph Barkel, William F. Crouse, William and admonition, if they can; and if they William and admonition, if they can; and if they compot, then to-weaken it by opposition to overthrow it at the billot box, and that fuling-rather than submit to ruin or enthral-recorde to support an administration, the nion, rain the country, change the form of government and enslave themselves.

And these men who ask us to be local in their sense of the term, to what are they we grant it-but to what is the administra-To the Constitution? No. That it has trampled upon and suppressed. To the Union? No. How can those who violate the Constitution be loval to the Union?

TALL STORY .- A friend encloses us the to the sword, to corruption, to every vide

the first we have heard of it. It must have: To this administration, which has trum started in an "Adams county" in some other pled under foot the rights of States and of citizens; which has old terated State lines, and created new Commonwealths in defi-A SNARY Strony.—Snakes are among the ange of the Constitution; which has nulli-productions of the soil of Fenn-ylvania, but a fied the decisions of the Supreme Court, recklessly squandered the money and lives of our people, bankrapted the Treasury annihilated one grand army and is rapidly destroying another—to this corrupt, lathless, arbitrary and imbecile administration.

if we are or ever can be.

There was a fime when the voice of the The Homestean Farm of John Miller, de- loyal States was unanimous in support of faithful to the great trust reposed in itthere was but one heart in the bosom of Mr. Samuel Lentz has sold his farm, in the people of the loyal States; they were Butler township, to Mr. Daniel Beitler-83 moved by one inspiration and spoke with one voice

But that time has gone by. The serpent THE SUNDAY SCHOOL TRACHERS MIN. has done its work—the people will yet do IATURE DIARY AND ALMANAC FOR 1863. theirs.—Patriot & Union.

INAUGURAL OF THE GOVERNOR OF NEW JERSEY. -TRENTON, Jan 20 .- Governer Parker was in-

is something new, useful and attractive; and and real in its sphere as the sovereignty of no teacher should be without it. Send for a the United States in its aphere." He argues that it is the duty of the States to assert and Well, the people of the free States com- no teacher should be written and the states of the free States com- no teacher should be written and the sovereignty. He refers to the manuain their sovereignty. He refers to the rebellion as a revolution and says there was As opportunity which seldem occurs, is duced by fanaticism of the North. Military now afforded those desiring a good Watch, at arrests, suspension of the babeas corpus, war a low figure. Read the advertisement of the power, and military necessity are denounced "Magic Time Observer," of which the Hubbard Bros., of New York, are the sole importers.—
The "Magic" is receiving the most flattering commendations of the Press.

Locusts Coning This Year.—Joseph Harris

Locusts Coning This Year.—Joseph Harris

ARRESTS AT HAGERSTOWN .- On the 10th inst. writes to the St. Clairsville (Ohio) Chronicle several citizens of Hagerstown, Md., were arthat the locusts will be on hand this year, it rested by the military. The parties were Anbeing the 17th since their last appearance.

Rhodes, John Campbell, Mr. Valentine, Alex'r. The Pharnoh locusts made their first appearing the guard-house until the next day, when boring the trees and laying eggs. June 6th, taken under guard, to Washington, it is sup-commenced dying: the males first. On the posed. It appears the charge upon which the 25th all dead. (Token from notes taken at the arrests were made was disloyally, but no one posed. It appears the charge upon which the arrests were made was disloyalty, but no one appearing to prosecute they were discharged. The "Press" alleges that "partizan malice" not "political necessity" led to the arrests. THE DIFFERENCE.—The Democracy are in favor of the government, but against its executive and legislative administration.

The Abolitionists are in favor of the administration, but against the government.
This is the difference in brief between the two parties. Jewelers should read J. A. Salisbury's advertisement in another column.