

The Compiler is published every Monday morning, by HENRY J. STAHL, at $1 75 per annum if paid strictly in advance...

Fancy Furs! JOHN FAREIRA, No. 718 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa. My Furs were purchased in Europe, previous to the rise in Sterling Exchange...

New Goods—Large Stock! RICHARD TAILORING, JACOBS & BRO. We have just received from the cities a large stock of goods for Gentlemen's wear...

CASIMIRE, VESTINGS. Cassimire, Jeans, &c., with many other goods for spring and summer wear.

Restaurant. CHAMBERS STREET RESTAURANT, (formerly Becken's), is now conducted by the undersigned...

Town Property. PRIVATE SALE. The undersigned offers at Private Sale the Property in which he now resides...

Piano Tuning. PROF. BURR, of Littleton, a Practical Piano Tuner, informs his friends and the musical public in general...

O Yes—O Yes—O Yes. THE undersigned would most respectfully announce to the people of Gettysburg and its vicinity...

Lancaster Book Binder. GEORGE WIANT, BOOK BINDER AND BLANK BOOK MANUFACTURER, LANCASTER, PA.

Coopering. JOHN CRISMER is residing on the Coopering Business in all its branches, in York Street, Gettysburg...

New Fall and Winter Goods. A SCOTT & SON has in store a large and well assorted stock of goods...

Ready-made Clothing. GEORGE ARNOLD has now got up his fall and winter stock of clothing, consisting of Over Coats, in great variety, very cheap...

Disolution. PARTNERSHIP. The partnership heretofore existing between the undersigned, in the practice of Medicine, has this day been dissolved...

QUEENSWARE. IF you want anything in the QUEENSWARE line call at A. SCOTT & SON'S, where you will find the best assortment in town.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. VIOLINS, ACCORDIONS, PIANOS, &c., for sale at A. SCOTT & SON'S.

DOMESTIC PRIZES. A. SCOTT & SON'S, 718 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

A DEMOCRATIC AND FAMILY JOURNAL. TWO DOLLARS A-YEAR. No. 20. GETTYSBURG, PA., MONDAY, FEB. 23, 1863.

Prospectus of "THE AGE." A NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC NEWSPAPER, to be published Daily and Weekly in the City of Philadelphia.

"The Age" will advocate the principles and policy of the Democratic party, and will, therefore, necessarily favor the restoration of the Union as it was, and defend the Constitution of the United States...

TERMS: Per annum, $5 00; Six Months, 3 00; Three Months, 1 50; Copies delivered at the counter, and by Agents and Carriers, 2 Cents each.

Second Arrival. MORE MEN CALLED FOR!—5,000 A BLEB BOILED MEN AND BOYS WANTED!

General McClellan. EXPECTED IN GETTYSBURG. Everybody who respects the undersigned would most respectfully invite the attention of the citizens of Gettysburg and its vicinity to call and examine his well selected stock of goods...

QUEENSWARE. IF you want anything in the QUEENSWARE line call at A. SCOTT & SON'S, where you will find the best assortment in town.

MUSICAL INSTRUMENTS. VIOLINS, ACCORDIONS, PIANOS, &c., for sale at A. SCOTT & SON'S.

DOMESTIC PRIZES. A. SCOTT & SON'S, 718 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.

Miscellaneous. FRAUDS UPON THE GOVERNMENT. Corruption and Perjury Revealed. THE WAR DEPARTMENT IMPLICATED. Basality in the Transport Service.

We commence to-day the publication of an exposition, by an Abolition Investigating Committee of the Senate, of the gross corruption and mismanagement at least one of the Departments of the Government.

The committee appointed in pursuance of the resolution of Dec. 22, 1862, to inquire into and report to the Senate the facts, including brokerage, in regard to the chartering of transport vessels, for the Banks expedition, the seaworthiness of such vessels, and the character of the men employed to navigate them.

CHARLES COBLENS AND JOHN P. PICKRELL, OF BALTIMORE. Among the extraordinary developments of this investigation are the facts relating to the business relations with the Government, fraud, bribery and perjury...

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

value. Mr. Coblenz affirms that repairs were put on the steamer Patapsco amounting to $2,500; but the testimony of Captain William Rice, of Baltimore, an experienced steamboatman, and familiar with the Patapsco, goes to show that she was worth next to nothing.

himself, that when Capt. Rice refused to countenance the swindle by paying the extra $5, Hall either annulled the charter or satisfied Capt. Rice that he had done so for the purpose of getting the boat into the hands of someone who would pay the usual black mail.

assistant secretary. The committee next proposes to discuss the case of Mr. John Tucker, the Assistant Secretary of War, who is severely rebuked as follows:

All the foregoing facts and testimony point to Mr. John Tucker, late Assistant Secretary of War, as the man through whom the government was chiefly perpetuated.

LETTER FROM THE 5TH REG'T. WINCHESTER, Feb. 20, 1863. Camp 87th P. V. Dear Compiler:—The army of the Shenandoah, (of which our regiment is part), is now lying comparatively idle.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

THE STEAMER CECIL. The corrupt use made by Hall of the exclusive privileges which he enjoyed at Baltimore is shown conspicuously in his dealings with Capt. Wm. Rice, whose testimony has been already referred to.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

MILITARY ARRESTS. SPECIAL MESSAGE BY GOV. CURTIN. EXECUTIVE ORDER, Feb. 12, 1863. To the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

THE GOVERNOR. I desire to call your attention to a subject of moment. When the present infamous and God-condemned rebellion broke out, Congress was not in session, and the occurrence of such a state of things not having been foreseen, no laws were in force to prevent them.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.

to the general government are reserved to the States or the people by a special clause in the Constitution, and any interference with these reserved rights is an act of the grossest injustice and tyranny.