"THE HAND-WRITING ON THE WALL!"

It is really amusing to see the "twists and turns" of our neighbor of the Sentinel to get clear of the re-action throughout the country against Abolitionism. In alluding to the election returns which appeared in our last, he says: "Out of the hundreds love. and hundreds of towns, he has found out a raw electing what he calls 'Democrats.'" Our neighbor tries to creep out of a very small hole. Any one with a particle of penetration must see that the returns from New York, for instance, wear a very formidable look. We have the authority of the World and Herald for stating that that State, tainly worthy of a very loud "flourish of 4,369. trumpets." Even John Van Buren, about whose recent speaking at the administration meeting at the Cooper Institute the Sentinel makes so great a blow, thinks these elections of no little significance.
