AN IMPORTANT DISCLOSURE Mr. Sumner was re-elected to the United States Senate the other day by the Legislature of Massachusetts. Mr. Swan, vote for Mr. Sumner, and gave the following reason for so refusing:

"I come now, Mr. President, to what is known in history as the John Brown raid. This expedition was planned and fitted out in Boston, and its expenses defrayed; by subscription. The day he started for Harper's Ferry on his deed of murder, he dined in room No. 4, Parker House, in company with some of the most ardent company with some of the most ardent wire-pullers, taking seats for the new 5. This act, Mr. President, was the death-blow to the peace of the Union. Without it, Virginia would not have seceded-and God grant that we may yet re-cover from it. I know the names of the persons who were engaged in this transaction, and shall leave a record of them for history.

"Another deed of murder, Mr. President, and I will not detain you longer. When Anthony Burns, the fugitive slave, was confined in the Court House in this city, a meeting was held at Faneuil Hall to consider the subject. Theodore Parker and the Reverend Thomas W. Higginson were there. Mr. Parker, in concluding an elo-quent speech, alluded to the fact that a Corn slave was confined in the Court House, and exclaimed in substance, "Why stand we here idle? To the rescue!" A rush was Chrer Seed here idle? To the rescue!" A rush was immediately made for the Court House, and at the door stood a poor laboring man, a Mr. Butchelder, a night watch. DAY, APRIL 2d, 3d, 4th, 6th, 7th and 8th, 1863, at GETTYSBURG, PA. On these six days will be offered Trees of good size, fine-form, and in quality as healthy as can be grown and trained in any soils in the United States or other countries. 4000 to 6000 Trees, Vines, &c., will be offered a public outcry, in lots of from one to a half-dozen, five or six days, (or longer if much unfavorable weather should interfere.) The reason why we adopt this mode of offering trees at public outcry is because we wish to have the people satisfied with such stock as they may purphase. It has been imposed upon and defrauded by Traveling Agents, through the stock purchased not proving in quality as represented. We, therefore, being assured that our charter of the stock in disputable. be offered at public sale, trees of the best 'ca-ricties in cultivation, as none of interior flavor-ed qualities are cultivated by us, and out of several hundrest varieties of APPLES, PEACH-ES, PEARS & PLUMS, purchasers will have
