MORE FACTS FOR THE ADMIRERS OF GENERAL BUTLER.

We have a dozen pigeon-holes filled with affidavits and statements like the following, showing the outrageous corruption of General Butler's rule in New Orleans. We commend Butler's rule in New Orleans. We commend Office at the same place, in South Baltimore poly of the Democratic party, and will, here-these facts (the name of the person responsises, near Forney's drug store, and nearly five, necessarily favor the restoration of the belief or them is at the service of any person opposite Danner & Ziegler's store.

I also know that there was a regular system of selling passes for parties to goneross the lines by and with the knowledge of G n. Butler. I attempted to send documents to Washington, by order of Colonel Stafford, with all these facts, which papers were intercepted by General Butler, and those parties who gave the information were imprisoned. Gez. But ler sent for Col. Stafford and asked him why also heard that Gov. Shepley shipped some one thousand sacks of salt on his own access, and taxed those shipping two dollars a color the witnesses to all these transactions on ommittee down to New Orleans. In my op ion Col. Rutler must have shipped a million of dollare worth of goods across the line with passes signed by Col. French, provost marshal general, and Gen. Butler. They brought back turpentine, rosin and lumber in exchange. I know of Gen. Butler sending up to a rebel plantation and seizing all the wines, and having them brought to his house for his own use. THE POLICY OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY.

The New York World says: -- Unfounded as sertions have been made in some of the pubpic prints, as well as by some entertaining or-ators, in regard to the policy and purposes of the Democratic party. These have been coup-led with reports of conferences at Albany, and changes of policy about to be inaugurated by Governor Seymour. Our excellent and well informed correspondent at Albany, "Sentinel," takes occasion to say of all these rumors:

twenty per cent. extra was charged to pay for
