GEN. HALLECK ISSUES A PRONUN-CIAMENTO.

Among the letters addressed to the committee of the Sumter meeting, held on Sat-urday in the city of New York, we notice one from General Halleck, of which an extract is furnished in the N. Y. Ecpress. It runs thus :

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, WASHINGTON, April 5, 1863. James A. Roosevelt, Sce'y of the Laugue, N. Y.

We have already made immense progress in this war-a greater progress than was ever before made under similar circumstances. Our armies are still advancing, and, if sustained by the voices of the patriotic mil-lions at home, they will ere long crush the rebellion in the South, and then place them cels upon the heads of sneaking trailors in the North. Very respectfully your obedient servant.
