loyal? Who is their "prince or sovereign?"
Is Abraham Lincoln "rightful king by the grace of God?" When the Syracuse senate, sorrupt and demoralized, determined to make Dionysius king, with unrestrained power, the old patriot Damon boldly stands up, in Benini's great play Damon and Pythias, and resists the usurpation. Dionysius tells him to begone. The rest we quote: "Danow, I stand a Senator, within the

"VIGOROUS PROSECUTION OF THE WAR."

"ANOTHER FLACORDER.—Colonel Fish yeaterday sent to the proprietor of Mann's Hotel, on Baltimore street, by order of General Schneck, the following: 'I am directed by the Major General Commanding to call your attention to the mutilated and disgraceful condition of the National flag displayed upon your hotel, and request you to immediately cause it to be replaced by a new and perfect one. The fact of your keening up recent to the matter of your and perfect one. The fact of your keening up recent to the matter of your keening up recent to the proprietor of General Commanding to call. Repending Dr. Hotel Baugher, D. D., Rev. Prof. M. Jacobs, Prof. M. L. Steever. The following local item is taken from a late number of the Baltimore Gazette;
"Another Flac Order.—Colonel Fish yesterday sent to the proprietor of Mann's Hokeeping up persistently such an apology for our National emblem is construed as an insult to the flag, and causes many just complaints.' An order of a similar character was also sent to Barnum's hotel and the Corn Exchange. The order was complied with in each instance."

"The Major-General Commanding" has won another victory. Amid the pressing cares of office, he has not permitted his Argus eyes to be closed by the Publicans of Baltimore. Their insidious attempt to weaken the Government, by flaunting soil and weather beaten bunning in his face, H. A. Picking, Wm. B. McClellan, John Wolland, A. Picking, John Picking, Abel T. has been promptly rebuked by the conquering Hero. It is true, they gave to the breeze the old flag of the Union; but the retorm had tossed it, and the wind-had every over its folds, and the elements had blayed among its stripes and stars. In such the old banner and display from their flag-staffs "new and perfect" bunting. We trust that much good may grow out of this new victory. The scarred and battle-torn envictory.
