Local & General.

WHAT MR. WEBSTER THOUGHT OF THE LIBERTY OF THE PRESS.

We quote, in another column, Mr. Webster's opinion on the reserved rights of the States in regard to slavery. Let us now see what he thought of the liberty of the Press, which some of our contemporaries only think an institution to be tolerated in time of peace. Mr. Webster was in favor of the right of petition under all circumstances, and for that purpose defended even the right of presenting anti-slavery petitions, but with the following proviso:

"Any petition which, in our opinion, asks us to do that which is plainly against the Constitution, we might very justly reject. If persons, for instance, should petition us to pass a law abridging the freedom of the Press, or respecting the establishment of religion, such proposition would very properly be denied any reception at all."

What Mr. Webster would not allow even to be petitioned for—an abridgment of the freedom of the Press—is now effected by every provost marshal in the country.—Liberty in the United States will soon be an obsolete idea.—Age.

NEGRO EQUALITY.

Fred. Douglas, (Negro) who is quite a favorite with a portion of the late Republican party, has been in Philadelphia, making a speech to his colored brethren and those who delight to associate with him and them, in which he makes use of the following remarks, which we copy from the "Press:"

"That basis is the adoption into the great family of America the entire negro race.—Make US, black and white, ONE. Give us all the civil and political liberty enjoyed by the white people, said Mr. Douglas. This is the only solid and final solution of the negro question. The prosperity of the nation demands this. The negro and the nation must survive and perish together. Save the negro, and you save the nation. Destroy the negro, and you destroy the nation.—[Applause.] Take the negro into the national family, and in that way only can we have peace. Mr. Douglas looked at this question in the light of abstract justice. Another theory, that of colonization, met with no endorsement either from the speaker or the audience. The colonization scheme be held to be little better than a dream. How the negroes could be got to Africa—there's the rub, and it will continue to be the rub. [Laughter.] Africa was not his native country, but the United States was, and here he would remain. [Applause.]"

It is astonishing that there are white men and women who will applaud such a monstrous doctrine as amalgamation.

A PIECE OF POLITICAL HISTORY.

The editor of the Warren Mail, who is a clerk in one of the departments at Washington, writing to his paper, last week, thus lets us into the secret of an affair which has been the subject of much discussion:

"For a week or two past there has been a great deal of figuring in Pennsylvania politics. Washington is the grand political centre and the managers of State politics frequently come hither to organize a political campaign. Thus far Gov. Curtin and Hon. John Covode have been regarded as the most prominent candidates for the Republican nomination for Governor in our State. But lately Gen. Cameron and his friends have stepped into the ring and declared undying hostility to Gov. Curtin's nomination and his election in case he was nominated. This was the consequence of a feud existing for some time between them, somewhat intensified lately by Gen. Cameron's attempt to make the senatorship, in which he claims to have been damaged by the Governor's opposition. Hence a new combination had to be made by the managers. Gov. Curtin and his friends have been here several times within two weeks; Mr. Covode has been here almost constantly since Congress adjourned, and Gen. Cameron has been here on frequent occasions. Those who are booked up in the movement of men could tell some time ago that something was afoot. Now it is developed in the Governor's appointment abroad and his retirement from the contest. Whom his friends will bring out in his place does not yet appear. Meanwhile Mr. Covode's friends are confident. They think his most formidable rival is out of the way."

☞ The American suggests that a book be opened in this community "to enter the names of those who refuse to join the Union (Abolition) League, and who act with the Copperheads," (Democrats.) Well, neighbor, do open your book: it is a very modest suggestion—a capital idea. Open your book by all means, and call upon every man in town, and take down the names of all who "refuse" to join your oath-bound, cowardly, treasonable Abolition League. Open your book, we repeat, and be about it at once, and for the purpose of saving time, you need not call upon us. We "refuse," and so enter our name.—Carlisle Volunteer.

THE GREAT STRUGGLE.

The London Times recently said:

"In common with the whole civilized world, we have done injustice to the immense efforts suddenly made by the two parties in the Titanic struggle now raging across the Atlantic. It is not without some pride in the indomitable energies and inexhaustible resources of our race that we see two great Anglo-Saxon Powers waging a war as, if they had been half a century in training and preparation. It is but two years since the first shot was fired, and they have surpassed the old world in the terrible results which measure the proportions and intensity of war."

Yes, it is a grand, a terrible, an unexampled war. The world never knew another of equal dimensions and determination on both sides. It will be fortunate for us should the final results be proportionate to the immense outlay of blood and treasure it will have cost to conduct it to a solid peace.—Patriot & Union.

☞ "Pap," observed a young urchin of ten years to his "fond parent," "does the Lord know everything?"

"Yes, my son," replied the hopeful sire.—"But why do you ask that question?"

"Because our preacher when he prays is so long telling him everything, I tho't he wasn't posted."

The parent reflected.

HYDROPHOBIA CURED.—A case of hydrophobia, fully developed, has been cured by the health office of Brooklyn, N. Y. by the simple application of ice and wet cloths on the back of the neck and along the spine of the patient.

☞ The New York Methodist Conference has rejected the application of Mr. Philip Germond, of Connecticut for admission as a preacher, on the ground of his alleged disloyalty. He refused to subscribe to certain Abolition resolutions and is a Democrat.

☞ When Sheridan, found drunk in a coal-hole, and questioned as to his name, replied that his name was "Wilberforce," he did a sufficiently impudent thing; but it wasn't a touch to the effrontery of Senator C. (or some other man,) who being picked out of a street ditch by a watchman, and told to give his name, replied, in a gutter-al voice, "Don't you see I am Seward?"—Boston Post.

☞ It is a fact worthy of record, that none of the Republican papers of this section have accepted our proposition of last week, challenging them to prove that a single Democrat in the North had ever advocated a dissolution of the Union.

READY ROOFING,

NO. 73 MAIDEN LANE, NEW YORK.

This article is made of an extremely thick and strong woven fabric, invented and manufactured expressly for our own use, and is several times thicker than the cotton sheeting commonly used in all other composition roofing, and consequently far more durable.

From the superior thickness of this cloth, it receives, in saturation, a far greater amount of the water-proof composition, and when finished with the fire-proof coating on the surface, presents the most completely finished—and, we are confident, most durable—roofing now known. It needs no final coat applied on the roof, as all other kinds do.

IT IS "READY" TO NAIL DOWN.

It is manufactured and put up in rolls about one hundred feet long, and three feet wide; requiring only to be unrolled, and nailed on the roof.

In this convenient and finished state, it is especially worthy the attention of

HARDWARE MERCHANTS,
TINNERS, BUILDERS,

and all who buy to sell again. We do not hold out to such the prospect of enormous profits immediately, but we offer a really merchantable article, in demand every where, and at all times.

WE CALL ATTENTION TO A FEW POINTS!

1st. It costs only about half as much as tin, and is twice as durable.

2d. It is adapted to all kinds of roofs, whether steep or flat.

3d. It is not affected injuriously by heat or cold.

4th. Any ordinary workman can apply it.

5th. It is not the "cheapest" roofing.

6th. It is the best roofing.

This Roofing has been used in every variety of climate, from Canada to California, and we can most positively recommend it to be entirely proof against the changes of heat and cold that are so destructive to many other kinds of Roofing.

IT WILL NOT SOFTEN AND RUN IN HOT WEATHER.

IT WILL NOT CRACK IN COLD WEATHER.

It is a perfect protection against fire from the falling cinders and fragments from burning buildings adjoining this Roofing.

It is so elastic and strong that the

SHRINKING OF ROOF-BOARDS

does not injure it.

It is particularly valuable on Factories, Foundries, Sugar Refineries, Distilleries, and all buildings where the air is impregnated with gases or moisture, which rapidly corrode, from the inside, all tin and metal roofs.

FOR STEAMBOAT DECKS, CAR-TOPS, PIAZZAS,

and all roofs used for walking on, this article answers far better than any metal roof—as it will bear such usage without cracking or breaking.

It is easily applied over old

SHINGLE ROOFS,
WITHOUT REMOVING THE SHINGLES.

Also the

GUTTERS

can be formed of this material, saving the expense of METAL ONES.

The cost of applying it is very light, and any ordinary roof can be finished in the same day.

PRESERVE YOUR ROOFS!

IF YOUR TIN ROOF LEAKS,

IF YOUR TIN ROOF HAS
SMALL RUST-HOLES IN IT,

IF YOUR TIN ROOF NEEDS RE-PAINTING,

our

LIQUID
GUTTA-PERCHA CEMENT

will effectually close up all the smaller RUST-HOLES, and form a heavy elastic body over the whole surface, that will prevent RUST, and last many years longer than ordinary paint.

IF YOUR SHINGLE ROOF LEAKS,

IF YOUR GUTTERS LEAK,

IF THE JOINTS AROUND YOUR CHIMNEYS LEAK,

IF YOUR SLATE ROOF LEAKS,

GUTTA-PERCHA CEMENT

will completely fill up all the crevices in the shingles, cover over the broken joints in the tin and slate, form permanently adhesive, elastic coating around chimneys, sky-lights, etc., and in all these situations will outlast any other article for this purpose now in use. This article is a thick, tenacious compound of and ingredients used extensively in Europe in the process of Kyanising or preserving wood in railroad structures exposed to moisture and decay. This very useful property tends directly to arrest and prevent decay in the shingles, and will often save the necessity for several years of putting on a new roof. It is well worthy of a trial.

☞ All the above ROOFING MATERIALS will be furnished to

CHURCHES AND CLERGYMEN

at a reduction of

TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. FROM OUR REGULAR RATES.
